Reaching Out	• Serving those in need, especially the broken, through generous gifts of time, talent and treasure
Serving	• Gathering at Eucharist and celebrating the Sacraments of the Church and the sacramental moments of our lives
Gathering	• Telling and sharing the Living Story of Jesus
Sharing

So challenged, we pray that the Holy Spirit fills us and empowers us so that we may become the Living Presence of Jesus in our contemporary world.

AIR CONDITIONING IN THE CHURCH

We would like to thank you for your continued patience with our air conditioning challenges in the church this summer.

In early June, one of the two compressors that cools the main church was no longer functioning and needed to be replaced. Fortunately, we had just signed a contract with the company that includes not only the maintenance, but also all parts. For that reason, the replacement, which would have been in excess of $20,000, is being replaced at no cost to us. Unfortunately, however, it has taken most of the summer to have the replacement delivered due to many back orders on parts that were needed.

Last week they delivered the compressor and hooked it up, only to find out that there is another part that is needed that is on backorder. As you can imagine, we are not pleased with this additional delay. We have been assured that the whole matter will be behind us by the second week in August. In the meantime, we are redirecting all the air conditioning from adjoining buildings to the church over the weekends to help keep the main body of the church as cool as possible.

PERSPECTIVES FROM THE PCM...

Parishioner Question: I saw the volunteer page for GIFT. Do I have to help at every event or can I pick and choose when and how I share my time?

Answer: Consistent volunteers make the task of dividing up the workload a bit less complicated; however, if you can help at every other event, want to be a table leader during the Confirmation sessions, enjoy leading children or like doing dishes – you are needed and wanted! There are so many places where you can fill a need, and serving your fellow parishioners is a very gratifying experience. Service work seems to nourish our spirits in a unique and special way. You will find camaraderie naturally flows as the work is being done, you will recognize more men, women and children you worship with at Sunday Mass, and lastly, and perhaps ironically, our theme for GIFT this year is Discipleship. There is a place for you, and you are needed at St. Anne.

Contact the PCM at 847.620.3057 or email us at parishcouncil@stannebarrington.org.

GIFT 2010-2011 REGISTRATION INFORMATION

We are looking forward to our first year of GIFT, Growing in Faith Together, and our fourth year of community faith formation events. Our topic for 2010-2011 is Discipleship. Through discipleship, we claim ourselves as followers of Jesus and learn how to make our faith a way of life.

GIFT offers faith formation opportunities for all ages in community and age-based formats, details of which can be found in the GIFT Faith Formation Offerings descriptions. This year there will be eight events presented in the community format; six Community Events along with a special event in January focusing on theological reflection or a service learning project and a Lenten Mission in March.

You will have the opportunity to choose the Community Event session you wish to attend from one of six days, Monday through Saturday. The Monday session will continue to be for adults and high school teens only. Online date selection information for the Community Sessions will be sent to you shortly after your registration is processed. Look for further information on the January and March events as they draw closer.

It takes many helping hands to make these events a reality. We encourage you to consider the various ways you can share your time and talents with your fellow parishioners by exploring the GIFT Ministry Opportunities on the back of the Program Registration sheet.

First Eucharist Preparation and Grades 3 through 5 Catechesis

Through GIFT, we are excited to offer children in grades 1 through 5 the opportunity to receive faith formation in a variety of ways to meet your family needs.

- Families grow and share your faith together in six Community Events. Family participation reinforces the parents' role as the primary educators and role models for their children. Attend these sessions as a family on any day, Tuesday through Saturday.
- Children attend nine Grades 1-2 Sacrament Preparation or Grades 3-5 Catechesis sessions on either Tuesdays or Wednesdays between the Community Events.

Your family may choose to attend only the Community Events, only the Grades 1-5 Faith Formation, or both. You can choose to attend the Community Events as a family any day Tuesday through Saturday and/or your child can attend Grades 1-5 Faith Formation on Tuesday or Wednesday.

To receive the greatest benefit for your family, attend both the Community Events and the Grades 1-5 sessions. This schedule will provide your child 15 faith formation sessions approximately every other week (excluding holidays and holy days). ADULT TABLE LEADERS ARE NEEDED FOR THE CONFIRMATION PREPARATION SERIES

Adults are needed who would be willing to serve as table leaders for our upcoming Confirmation Preparation Series. The role consists of attending all of the sessions in either the fall or spring series (or both!) and leading table discussion and activities with a small group that would remain the same throughout all sessions. There is minimal advance preparation; we may send or give you some materials to read and review prior to the sessions, and we ask you to come a little early each time so that we can go over the lesson plan with you and describe your tasks for that session. All lessons are taught by guest speakers so the content is presented by master catechists. Your role is simply to support those presenters by leading discussion and activities with your small group and helping to supervise and maintain discipline.

OUR MODEL OF TRUE DISCIPLESHIP

One of the more familiar gospel stories of Jesus is the Multiplication of the Loaves and Fishes. We proclaim it at the liturgy, and we are inclined to focus on the miracle. A small amount of bread and fish feeds thousands of people on the hillside.

Yes, we can try to understand exactly how this miracle took place. How did the multiplication really take place? Did those who were present begin to share what they had with each other? Rather than answering these questions, let's look at what this story can teach all of us who are called to ministry by the very fact of our Baptism. For this, we need to zero in on the disciples who were at the gathering.

Jesus directed the disciples to "give them (the crowds) something to eat yourselves." That seems to suggest that they feed the crowd with their own resources and with their own direct service. We can almost hear Jesus tell them: "See who needs to be fed and how you can do that with what you have." The disciples were being asked to change their plan. They were not going to have the luxury of a quiet place where they could sit, eat, and listen to Jesus. They were being asked to serve the crowd! Not only was that a change of plans, but they learned that service cannot always be given according to one's wishes. Jesus' call would even dictate when and how to serve others. This was a new lesson that would help them realize that it was Jesus' insight, choices, and energy that would guide them in their work for the Kingdom.

There is a lesson in this for us. Ministry is what Jesus gives one to do. The action and content of our ministry, as well as how we serve, all come from him. Pray for direction in the service asked of you. We can never forget what Jesus did and how he did it and follow his example. That is our model of true discipleship!

Guidelines for what we can ship:

- We can accept women's, men's, and children's shoes and work or hiking boots.
- All shoes should be in good condition with shoes laces for shoes that require them. No holes or grass-stained shoes.
- No winter boots—it does not snow in Haiti. Work boots and hiking boots are great.
- No women's high heels—they don't work well on dirt/stone roads. Flats and low heels are fine.
- We can only ship men's and women's larger size 10 and under. Very few of the recipients have feet larger than size 10. Shoes larger than size 10 will be given to Project Hope and other charities.
- Please tie shoes together by their shoe laces or use a rubber band for sandals or flip-flops that don't have laces.

Boxes will be in the Gathering Space marked with the style and size.

Please help us sort by placing in the correct boxes.

Wisdom 18:6-9ab

6 The night of the passover was known beforehand to our fathers, that, with sure knowledge of the oaths in which they put their faith, they might have courage.
7 Your people awaited the salvation of the just and the destruction of their foes.
8 For when you punished our adversaries, in this you glorified us whom you had summoned.
9ab For in secret the holy children of the good were offering sacrifice and putting into effect with one accord the divine institution.

Psalm 33: 1, 12, 18-19, 20, 22. R_X = Blessed the people the LORD has chosen to be his own.

1 Exult, you just, in the LORD; praise from the upright is fitting.
12 Blessed the nation whose God is the LORD, the people he has chosen for his own inheritance. R_X 18 See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him, upon those who hope for his kindness,
19 To deliver them from death and preserve them in spite of famine. R_X
20 Our soul waits for the LORD, who is our help and our shield.
22 May your kindness, O LORD, be upon us who have put our hope in you. R_X

Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19

Brothers and sisters:
1 Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen.
Because of it the ancients were well attested.
8 By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; he went out, not knowing where he was to go.
9 By faith he sojourned in the promised land as in a foreign country, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs of the same promise;
10 for he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and maker is God.
11 By faith he received power to generate, even though he was past the normal age – and Sarah herself was sterile – for he thought that the one who had made the promise was trustworthy.
12 So it was that there came forth from one man, himself as good as dead, descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sands on the seashore.
13 All these died in faith. They did not receive what had been promised but saw it and greeted it from afar and acknowledged themselves to be strangers and aliens on earth, 14 for those who speak thus show that they are seeking a homeland.
15 If they had been thinking of the land from which they had come,
they would have had opportunity to return.
16 But now they desire a better homeland, a heavenly one.
Therefore, God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.
17 By faith Abraham, when put to the test, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was ready to offer his only son, 18 of whom it was said, "Through Isaac descendants shall bear your name."
19 He reasoned that God was able to raise even from the dead, and he received Isaac back as a symbol.

Luke 12:32-48

Jesus said to his disciples:
32 "Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom.
33 Sell your belongings and give alms. Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy.
34 For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.
35 "Gird your loins and light your lamps
36 and be like servants who await their master's return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks.
37 Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival.
Amen, I say to you, he will gird himself, have them recline at table, and proceed to wait on them.
38 And should he come in the second or third watch and find them prepared in this way, blessed are those servants.
39 Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.
40 You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come."
41 Then Peter said, "Lord, is this parable meant for us or for everyone?"
42 And the Lord replied, "Who, then, is the faithful and prudent steward whom the master will put in charge of his servants to distribute the food allowance at the proper time?
43 Blessed is that servant whom his master on arrival finds doing so.
44 Truly, I say to you, the master will put the servant in charge of all his property.
45 But if that servant says to himself, 'My master is delayed in coming,' and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants, to eat and drink and get drunk, 46 then that servant's master will come on an unexpected day and at an unknown hour and will punish the servant severely and assign him a place with the unfaithful.
47 "That servant who knew his master's will but did not make preparations nor act in accord with his will shall be beaten severely;

Sharing the Living Story

[48] and the servant who was ignorant of his master's will but acted in a way deserving of a severe beating shall be beaten only lightly.
Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more."

The gospel this Sunday is the second in a series of passages chosen from chapters 12 and 13 which are centered on the journey of Jesus and the disciples to Jerusalem, where Jesus will meet his destiny. Today's pericope (Lectionary passage) is clearly about the End Time and the return of The Christ. Recall that at the time that Luke is writing down the oral tradition for his contemporaries, it is about two generations after Jesus' departure. Generations have died awaiting the Parousia[i] and people in Luke's time have begun to think that The Christ's promised return is not imminent. In the face of the seemingly capricious and cruel injustices of daily life, they have started to slip in their vigilance. Hence, at vv.35-37, Luke warns against their acting irresponsibly and at 38-40 calls them to return to being vigilant while waiting for the return of The Christ.

Luke says it straightaway in vv. 32-34: Do not be afraid any longer ... sell your belongings and give alms ... Provide money bags that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach ... (Recall how direct was last Sunday's gospel, 12:13-21!). Luke here is equally clear: do not act out of fear but out of loving response to God's invitation to disengage from possessions to give alms (serving others) which will be like treasure in heaven that no thief can steal.

Of the fourteen verses from 35-48, nine of them contain admonitions: Gird your loins and light your lamps (be ready for action) ... be ready to open immediately ... vigilant on his arrival ... not have let his house be broken into ... you also must be prepared ... prudent steward ... will [be] put in charge ... Blessed is that servant ... that servant's master will come [unexpectedly] ... the servant who did not make preparations ... shall be beaten severely ... All these verses warn the sometimes flagging, weary community to be vigilant, to act in response to the needs we see and so not be caught flat-footed when the Master arrives.

The first parable at vv.35-38 has a Eucharistic overtone. Wedding ... table ... he [the master] will gird himself ... to wait on them. During Mass, at the start of communion time, we say, "Happy are they who are called to his supper" for the LORD serves us; he washes our feet; it's a flip-flop of the eternal Master-servant relationship; if the LORD washes our feet, are we to treat others in like manner?[ii]

Luke says, be dressed for action. Tunics were worn free-flowing. To be able to work, one hitched up the lower end and fastened it in place with a belt around the waist (v.35). This recalls the passage from Exodus (12:11) about how to eat the Passover: with loins girt and sandals on their feet. Recall also that Luke, as well as Mark (14:25) and Matthew (26:29) and Paul (1 Cor. 11:26) associate the Paschal meal with the waiting for the return of the Lord (Luke 22:18). In the midst of these ordinary Sundays of the Year, we have a clear, unmistakable "theme" – it is what every Mass is about. What we celebrate always has as its central focus the paschal mystery. No matter what the season of the liturgical year, high holy days like Christmas and Easter, or "ordinary Sundays," like today, when the Presider calls us to proclaim the mystery of faith, we respond: "When we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim your death, Lord Jesus, until you come in glory." We must be alert and do the LORD'S bidding during this waiting period, for when he comes, he will take those faithful ones, seat them at table, and wait on them.

The next simile about the thief in the night is simply that: the coming is unforeseeable. Luke warns that we must be prepared during this waiting because we cannot know the day or the hour (38-39) that the Son of Man will arrive.

At 42-48, Peter asks for whom this parable is meant: for the in-group, the disciples, or for the out-group as well? Jesus responds with another parable: the story of the steward. A steward held a lot of power; he was in charge of all the other servants/slaves and was responsible for the running of the master's business as well as the household. The master therefore placed a great deal of trust in him and expected the most rigorous accounting in return. If he was found lax in attending to the master's business, then a severe punishment ensued. If others acted unworthily, they got "fewer stripes." The message is clear. Those in charge in the community had grave responsibilities and were open to the ultimate punishment: banishment to outside the group. They could not be lax during this period while awaiting the LORD'S return; they must treat all in their care with justice, with righteousness. Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more.

So what? Is that it: Much will be required of the person entrusted with much (v.48c)? In material terms, we moderns certainly have been entrusted with much. Those first disciples waited, grew weary, waiting for the promised return, looking for signs, for clarity. How goes it with us and our vigilance; in the absence of clear signs today, what are we doing about, say, the unmistakable fact that materially there are people who are outsiders? Are we the ones in charge to distribute the food allowance at the proper time? (v.42c). If we are, what do we do about the fact that such a task seems unending?

[i] This Greek word indicates the return of Christ in glory to make the final judgment. See the short discourse at Matthew 24:3 as an example.

When memories matter...
The fine art of caring
Over the years our mother taught all six of us kids the fine art of caring. When she was diagnosed with Alzheimer's Disease, it became our responsibility, and privilege, to care for her.
With the help of the people at Prairieview, we are honoring her legacy.

Visitation of the Sick: If you or a family member are in a local hospital or are homebound, and would like a visit from a minister of care or a priest, please call Mary Hoffing at 847.382.2148.

We believe that the celebration of the sacraments ranks among the most important gifts that we have. We look forward to sharing these celebrations with those who, in some way, are part of our community. Therefore, please note the following:

Baptism: Our Baptismal ministry is pleased to help your family prepare for the special event of your child's entrance into our faith community. For those parents who are baptizing their first child, please allow 2 to 3 months in order to attend 2 required Baptism sessions before setting the Baptism date. For a subsequent child's baptism, an interview session must be scheduled prior to setting the date. All schedules are done in the parish office. Please call 847.382.5300.

Marriage: If you are planning to be married at St. Anne, your preparation process should begin seven months to one year prior to your wedding date. Please call the parish office to secure a date as soon as possible. Membership at St. Anne is not a requirement. We look forward to helping you during this time of engagement and preparation for the vocation of Christian marriage.

First Eucharist and First Reconciliation: These sacraments are celebrated in the second grade. Candidates must complete the required preparation program. Please call the REP office at 847.620.3068.

Confirmation: This sacrament is celebrated in high school. Candidates must be registered parishioners and complete the required preparation program. Please call 847.620.3072.

Reconciliation: Saturdays 9:15 a.m. until all are heard or by appointment.

Registration: To enter into our faith community as a member of St. Anne parish, please plan to attend an information and registration session at 9:30 a.m. in the Hospitality Room, followed by the 11:00 a.m. Mass in church, on the 1st Sunday of the month. For further information, call the Rectory office at 847.382.5300.

* REGISTRATION WILL BE ON SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 5TH ****
