1983-84 BRANCH PRESIDENT'S REPORT TO THE STATE DIVISION

Due Date: March 5. Send to Jackie DeFazio, 580 Riford Road, Glen Ellyn, IL 60137.

Branch: Barrington Area

President: Gladia F. Morris 1983 to 1984

Address: 118 Tower Rd. Barrington, IL 60010

1. General status of branch
   A. What do you consider your branch's greatest strength? Wonderful people with so many strengths
   B. What area of AAUW work needs strengthening? More local commitment with action.
   C. What was your branch's most important accomplishment this year? More activity, more fund raising, — a good project begun.
   D. What is your greatest concern for your branch? Not enough new members getting involved; need to continue to try new activities/programs.
2. Assess the functioning of your branch board of directors
   A. Does each board member know her job? Yes, tho some are inactive.
   B. Do board members function as a team most of the time? Yes
   C. How often does the board meet? monthly except Aug & Dec.
3. What aspect of the president's role or responsibility
   A. do you like the most? Meeting other great people in AAUW — socializing with them.
   B. do you find difficult? Phone! Getting people to act due to multi-commitments.
4. Have you been contacted by the District Coordinator for Division Services? Yes

   Is this service helpful? I like our pres. meetings
5. What was you greatest personal accomplishment as president this year? Moving & motivating a "settled" group. At last choosing a "togetherness" project — Guild.
6. What advice would you give to a new president? Get involve, & keep new blood. Need new, frequent stimuli. Realize that people new to our area are not necessarily new to AAUW.
7. Describe how your members gain an understanding of the purposes and goals of AAUW. Newsltr — verbal reiteration at meetings. Must be ongoing
8. What percentage of your members attend your regular meetings? 40-45%
