Wildcats Eliminate Bronchos From Tournament

Local Five Loses to Libertyville in First Round

Clark Men Lead 17 to 12 at Half Time; Final Score 33-29

Libertyville Wildcats relegated Barrington Bronchos to the sidelines in first round of the Northwest conference tournament by skeing out a victory in the northern division at Wauconda Wednesday night. The first three quarters of the game looked as if the Bronchs would be unworthy winners but with a flash of the local team in the course of finals, the Wildcats forged ahead in the dying minutes of the final period to advance to the second round of the tournament. The score tied 8 to 7 at the first half. The local quintet, from 24 to 20 at the end of the third period, but a flashy one handed Lynk and two short baskets in the final minutes gave to Libertyville's favorites played stellar ball, passing and deadly work in scoring.

Lynk was the high man for the winners with 11 points closely followed with 7. Latta made his points being ejected on fouls in the last quarter to lead the Bronchs. Etters was next in the basket and three free throw points.

In other victory over the Bronchs Libertyville cagers are now to enter the final tournament against the winners of the southern division at Palatine Saturday night. Semi-finals will be played at the division at Palatine and Wauconda Friday night.

Tea and High Tea

Tea may be little more than the game English tea accompanied by bread, muffins and cakes, while a high tea offers in reality, a meal served earlier than a dinner would be. A choice of several meats, salads, breads of various kinds, cakes, a sherbet or ice, and tea and coffee or other beverages are usually offered the guests.

Boots Reversed

In a military funeral, when the riderless horse is led in the procession, saddled with the owner's boot reversed, it indicates that it is the soldier's last march and that the end of the earthly journey has been rounded. This is a very old custom and its origin is not known.

Barrington Slips From First Place in Conference List

Libertyville Defeats Broncho Five 22-19 on Local Floor

Led by two dead-eye forwards, Duddles and Radloff, the Libertyville Wildcats dumped the B.H.S. Bronchos out of first place in the Northwest conference standing by romping off with a 22 to 19 win in a slow contest at the local court Friday night. The Wildcat's strong zone defense, centering around Isaacson, huge center, kept the Barrington players pretty well bottled up but even when the local cagers did break loose they failed to sink their shots. The Bronchos had apparently left their basket eye at home as they took 57 shots at the basket during the game and only connected on six of them. Forty of the shots were taken in the first half and only one field goal slipped through the netting.

The only time the B.H.S. cagers really looked like themselves was in the third quarter when they scored 9 points to the Wildcat's 3 to lead by one point, 13 to 12 at the end of the quarter. Radloff counted all three of his field goals in the final period to run the Wildcats ahead. Duddles with 1 and Radloff with 8 points were the Libertyville sharpshooters while Latta celebrated his return to the game by leading the Bronks with 3 baskets and 3 free tosses.

The local Ponies chalked up their fifth straight conference win by defeating the heretofore leading Libertyville lightweights 29 to 28 in a red hot struggle. Libertyville had a one point lead with only seconds to go when Grabenkort, freshman center, counted on two free throws to put the young Bronks ahead. Long shot honers went to Wichman, Pony guard, who hit four arching baskets to lead the local scorers.

Salems Again in Undisputed Lead in Church League

The Salem cagers jumped one half a game ahead of the pack in the church league standing by virtue of their 26 to 25 win over St. Anne in a close battle last Monday night. St. Anne forced the issue all of the way and it was only through Hawley's short shot with a minute to play that Salem managed to win. Salem led 19 to 13 at the half.

The gangling St. Paul five had an easy time with the Baptists, triumphing by a 34 to 16 margin. Wolf of St. Paul led the scoring with six baskets and a free throw while his teammate Wichman was right behind with five floor tosses. Falkinburg, Baptist guard injured his ankle in a mix-up under the basket in the third quarter and had to leave the game.

A crucial game in determining the eventual league champion is on tap for next Monday night, Jan. 29; when the present leaders, Salem and the Methodists clash at 8:45 p. m. St. Paul and St. Anne will meet in the curtain raised one hour earlier.

Many Old Drugs in Use

Sixty centuries ago physicians and pharmacists practiced separately in Babylonia. The Ebers Papyrus of 1552 B. C., found in Egypt, listed hundreds of recipes for remedies for specific complaints. It mentioned some 700 simple drugs known to the Egyptians of that period—many of them still in common use today.

Season's Film Hit, "Little Women," at Catlow Jan. 28-30

Strong Cast Used to Dramatize Louise Alcott Story

Will James, regarded as the greatest living western author and artist, will make his first motion picture appearance in the Fox film version of his novel, "Smoky," coming on January 26 and 27 to the Catlow theatre.

The picture has Victor Jory and Irene Bentley at the head of the cast. It is the dramatic story of a horse and of the horse's effect on the destinies of various humans. In book form it has sold more than 400,000 copies since it first appeared seven years ago. Eugene Forde directed the picture.

Concerning the remarkable authenticity of RKO-Radio picture's dramatization of Louise M. Alcott's classic, "Little Women," which comes to the Catlow theatre January 28, 29, 30, George Cukor, who directed it, says: "We believe that of all the stories in the world, this was one at least that would be made by authenticity and ruined by dramatic licence. The book is 65 years old. Today it remains a best-seller. Twenty millions of people have read it. In view of these facts we felt that such a remarkable
