...Republican ... hold a rally in the theatre Monday night, to which the community has been invited. Speeches, music, singing, vaudeville and short screen subjects will provide entertainment.

Tuesday, bargain night, the Catlow will present a return showing of Shirley Temple in "Baby, Take a Bow." It wil be followed by the Wednesday, Thursday and Friday screening of Mae West's "Belle of the Nineties." The key note of "Belle of the Nineties" is the slogan of Ruby Carter (played by Miss West), "I'm gonna be a bad girl with a good heart!"

The film, with Roger Pryor, John Mack Brown and John Miljan as the "tall, dark and handsome," strides through an adventurous love-action story which has as its background two of the most colorful cities of that period: New Orleans, La., and St. Louis, Mo.

Miss West is cast as Ruby Carter, the center of a whirlpool of action that brings her down the river from a St. Louis burlesque show to one of the most famous gaming houses in the South. Around resounds all the gaiety of song and music of the period.

Historical characters of the day move against the background for which Mae West is famous.

Duke Ellington and his orchestra, Katherine DeMille, Warren Hymer and Stuart Holmes are featured.

C. Wayland Brooks,

Dick Lyons

at Big Republican Rally

Monday Night

FACTS and figures from the records of the state and national Democratic administrations which have made a bosh of the economic and political life of the people of Illinois and the rest of the country will be cited by C. Wayland "Bobby" Brooks, candidate for congressman-at-large and Representative Richard J. Lyons at a mammoth Republican rally Monday night, Oct. 29 at the Catlow theatre, Barrington, Ill.

The movement of the county Democratic organization to ballyhoo the cry of "carry on the new deal with Roosevelt" will be shown to be nothing more than an attempt to fool the people into making the local issues with the national administration.

"Bobby" Brooks, whose clear cut thinking and presentation of the political situation in Illinois has met with the applause and favor of farmers, women and business men, will lead the Republicans with a complete summary of the activities of the opposing party leaders. He will show the attempt of the Nash-Kelly-Horner-Crowe ring of Chicago to gain complete control of the state and various county governments.

Aside from these two headliners, the Barrington Republican rally will bring together all of the local county candidates, Ralph E. Church, candidate for congress, and people of Cuba, Ela and Tatlandia as well as Barrington persons who are interested in good government and economy in government in the state and county.

Include county Republican candidates including Sheriff Perry L. Persons and Martin C. Decker, County Clerk Lew A. Hendee, Probate Clerk John Hollebrock, County Superintendent of Schooloss W. Harry Allen J. Nelson, candidate for treasurer, Lawrence A. Doolittle, candidate for sheriff, will be introduced and they will give their qualifications for carrying on the duties of the county

Supervisor H. D. Kelsey, one of the county's hard workers for good, clean and economic county government, will preside at the rally. The meeting is being sponsored by Republican workers and leaders of Cuba township with the cooperation of leaders of neighboring towns.
