LENT 2008

FOLLOWING THE LORD JESUS

MAKING A CHOICE FOR FAITH

† Jesus is conscious of himself—of his true identity. He has prepared for his mission with prayer and fasting.

† Temptations do trouble all of us. So often our choices are made with little sense of who we are. We forget or ignore what the Lord has given us. We give little time to thoughtful prayer. We ignore the resources that those who are wise and faith filled can offer us.

OUR MISSION

We, a Catholic Christian people rooted by Baptism, take as our challenge the mission of Jesus: to build the Kingdom of God, standing in solidarity with the poor. We are committed to:

Welcoming
- Welcoming all people and providing a sense of belonging to people at every stage of life.

Creating
- Creating a place of enjoyment, excitement and fun for people of all ages.

Healing
- Healing, reconciling and reaching out in caring service to each other.

Reaching Out
- Serving those in need, especially the broken, through generous gifts of time, talent and treasure.

Serving
- Gathering at Eucharist and celebrating the Sacraments of the Church and the sacramental moments of our lives.

Gathering
- Telling and sharing the Living Story of Jesus.

Sharing

So challenged, we pray that the Holy Spirit fills us and empowers us so that we may become the Living Presence of Jesus in our contemporary world.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Lord God, we thank you for calling our brothers and sisters, our catechumens and candidates to journey with us this Lent. Today you will find a prayer card enclosed in your bulletin. The name on your card is one of the persons who will either continue study into next year or someone who is walking the last phase of his/her journey to Easter and full reception into the Catholic faith.

During these weeks of Lent, please offer a daily prayer for all the catechumens/ candidates, especially your particular person. They all must take this time seriously in their spiritual preparation for entrance into the church. Consider, also, your own participation and celebration in this great event when eleven women, a gentleman, and a girl will join us on Holy Saturday.... the most sacred of all nights in the Christian calendar.

If you have never attended this most beautiful and moving service, we especially invite you to see Easter in all its glory. Truly the Risen Christ is alive on this evening. It is an experience like no other worship experience!

Hope Chest Pantry

"The Cupboard is Getting Bare"

Now that the Christmas overflow has been distributed, our food supply is down. If you are willing and able, and not overloaded with our many other requests, we could use any of the following pantry items:

- Canned meats and fish (ham, chicken, turkey, salmon, tuna, etc.)
- Peanut butter
- Any cereal
- Boxed prepared foods
- General foods, juices, etc. (at this time, we have soup and vegetables.)

We also need to be conscious of the expiration dates. The Lake Country health requires us to dispose outdated food donations.

Sr. Lorraine

P.S. if anyone is looking for a mechanical lift chair, call Caryn Habley at the House of Hope office, 847.756.4673.

Annie's Attic 2008

Joining Hearts with Hands

More helpful hands are needed to join the core planning committee and set-up/clean-up crew for this year's Annie's Attic, the single largest fundraiser for St. Anne's Project Hope ministry. A time commitment would be required between June 7th and June 21st, depending upon the volunteer role.

We need you to join us NOW so planning may proceed for Annie's Attic '08!

This event has been called a 'summertime tradition,' and 'one of the best bets for bargain hunters and collectors alike.' It is recycling on a grand scale - everything from saucepans to speedboats has found a second life through this community effort. The sale offers well-conditioned necessities and one-of-a-kind, lucky-find treasures to the thousands of shoppers attending each year. Funds raised through Annie's Attic allow Project Hope to provide short-term, emergency assistance to area families in crisis across the year. The sale also supports the St. Anne Food Pantry, provides household basics for some of our neediest families, and serves as an outstanding community service opportunity for hundreds of teen volunteers.

If you can't imagine a summer without Annie's Attic, imagine how you can make it happen.

We need your commitment NOW! Please call or email Colleen Dunkel at 847.304.8651 or colleendunkel@hotmail.com for more information and to volunteer. Thank you!

The Human Person...The Heart of Peace

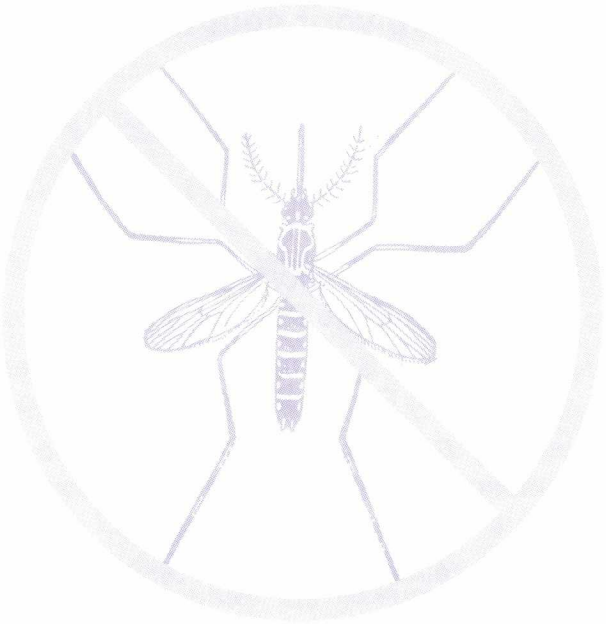
Where will I be in 2009?

As we begin the second year of our Human Person...Heart of Peace project, say to little Moeses, "We hope you will be able to return home soon. We pray that the peace agreement for eastern Congo, signed January 23rd, holds and that we can quickly return to our task of building a new school for you in Nkokwe. While we wait to build, we are working this year to get bed nets for you, your brothers and your sisters in the Rugari Parish. We want to keep mosquitoes from making you sick. We want you to grow up free of malaria."

90% of the world's cases of malaria are found in Africa. Our 2008 Lenten almsgiving campaign joins in the effort to rid the continent of Africa of mosquitoes. Once thought impossible, the eradication of malaria is now being seen as a reality. The solution involves the use of bed nets at night, control of breeding sources, and medicinal therapies.

Join the NO MOs campaign... provide bed nets and help end Malaria in Africa

Starting Ash Wednesday, St. Anne parishioners will have the opportunity to take a tag from bare branches in the Gathering Space. There are only two tags this year.



No More Mosquitoes

The No More Mosquitoes tag, shown here, targets our NO MOs campaign. In this effort, we are joined by students from St. Anne School who will be helping us reach our goal of 10,000 nets for people in the Rugari Parish of which Nkokwe is a part.

The second tag is for Faithjustice's ongoing commitment to youth and adult mission trips here in the United States.

How are you participating in this season of Lent?

Eucharistic Adoration is the act of worshipping God as He is truly present in the consecrated Host.
In our noisy world, Eucharistic Adoration enables us to discover the silent, loving presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.

Come to the Chapel and experience peaceful silence through Eucharistic Adoration every Friday between 9:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m.

- Visit with Him for 5 minutes or stay and enjoy the peace of His presence as long as your schedule allows
- Invoke the Holy Spirit for guidance
- Embrace moments of silence mixed with a few words from scripture or from your favorite prayers
- Listen to Jesus in the silence of your heart
- Pray a decade of the Rosary in honor of Jesus' Blessed Mother

The more time you spend developing a personal relationship with Jesus, the more your soul will reflect His love.

"Nickel and Dimed" by Barbara Ehrenreich

Ehrenreich turns her gimlet eye on the view from the workforce's bottom rung. Determined to find out how anyone could make ends meet on $7.00 an hour, she left behind her middle class life as a journalist except for $1,000.00 in start-up funds, a car and her laptop computer to try to sustain herself as a low-skilled worker for a month at a time. Delivering a fast read that is both sobering and sassy, she gives readers pause about those caught in the economy's undertow, even in good times.

Join Stephen Ray, best selling author and popular bible teacher, as he catches fish on the sea of Galilee, camps along the Jordan River, and explores the places were Jesus lived and taught. Experience the breathtaking journey through the streets of Jerusalem to Calvary and the tomb, encounter the Resurrection and Pentecost. St. Anne School Catholic Schools Week Essays

The following are excerpts from selected student essays:

John Graft, 6th grade...St. Anne School has great values. The teachers were a big part in our school receiving the National Blue Ribbon award for academic excellence. The environment at St. Anne is full of determined students who are willing to learn. The thing that matters most to me is that we have a strong Catholic faith at St. Anne School. I have learned to keep God and family above anything else is my life.

Caitlin Barry, 7th grade...Attending a Catholic school is important to me because I learn about God and Jesus and the importance of living the right way. We live these lessons every day at St. Anne School. We go to an all school Mass every week and we pray before the school day begins. God is a constant presence in our lives and our education. We are taught to respect others and to be aware that we are God's children. Every grade level feels like a family who learns, laughs and grows together. I am blessed that my parents gave me the gift of being a part of this loving community.

Jack Trimberger, 8th grade...I think Catholic education is one of the most important aspects of St. Anne School. We learn about its history and its uses in our lives. The teachers are amazingly cool and smart, and are the best you will find anywhere. St. Anne is a great school and has really prepared me for my life. I feel extremely privileged to go to a great school where the teachers care and there is strong faith.

Quinlan Abel, 8th grade...I think of amazing friends, outstanding teachers and great academic preparation for the future when I think of St. Anne School. A blue ribbon school needs blue ribbon teachers, and that is exactly the kind of teachers we have at St. Anne. We are rewarded with the best kind of education and are able to more deeply understand our relationship with God. I feel incredibly lucky to have had the opportunity to attend this great school.

Dear Parents and Friends of St. Anne School,

WE DID IT! Through your help and generosity and with the dedication and hard work of a committed and talented fundraising committee, we met and exceeded our fundraising goal of $75,000.00. Thank you for your support, faith, trust and generosity. Without the combined support of both our school and parish community this would not have been possible. Many people came forward to donate their time, talent and/or treasure to make this our most successful school fundraiser to date.

Not only did we meet our fundraising goal, but preliminary accounting shows that we surpassed this by $8,000.00, for an amazing $83,000.00 of net income!!! As promised at the start of the fundraiser, this $8,000.00 will be applied to the school's technology account. Exciting things are currently happening on this front as the implementation of the state-of-the-art SMART Board technology is underway at the middle school level. Your generosity will keep us on our way to maintaining speed with our fast paced, ever-changing world.

As we begin a new year, let us continue to be thankful for the many blessings bestowed upon us, and be ever mindful of the mission of St. Anne School which is dedicated to the formation and education of each child in spirit, mind and body. Let us also be thankful for the dedicated administration and faculty who bring this mission to life on a daily basis. Our school community, rooted in Catholic values and academic excellence, will be forever grateful to you, dear families and friends, for your continued faith-filled support.

Sincerely, St. Anne School Advisory Board

Emily Claps, 8th grade...St. Anne School has given me friendship, education and character. Its religious atmosphere, excitement to learn with support from the teachers, and small class sizes with strong friendships are some of the key things that define St. Anne as an excellent school. The school Masses renew our spirituality and faith and remind us of how special it is to have that comforting feeling of being in a Catholic school. The teachers' strong will and respect for Catholic education are truly appreciated. There is great value in the gift of belonging to a Catholic school, especially St. Anne.

Brian Miller, 8th grade...The religion, environment, teachers and students make St. Anne School so important to me. At St. Anne School we learn how important religion should be in our lives and why. The environment is so great because the students and faculty care about each other. The teachers are passionate and are able to work individually with students because of the smaller class sizes. I have had the opportunity to receive all of the advantages that a Catholic school can offer. St. Anne School has opened so many doors for me. In the future, when I succeed, I will always know that a big reason for it is my experience at St. Anne School.

LENT, a season for...

- making time and space to remember what it means to be Christian by remembering the life, death and resurrection of Jesus in a special way
- remembering the life and message of Jesus—recommitting to following Jesus in today's world
- giving up the negative in our lives to make room for more positive
- being open to change of heart and habit to deep our relationship with Jesus and with each other
- taking time out from the usual daily routine to focus on what is most important in our lives
- acknowledging the parts of our lives that need forgiveness and change, and working to make them right
- clearing out some space in our lives so that God can enter and fill it, and taking time to discover where God has always been

FASTING AND FEASTING

Make more room for God this Lent by choosing not to do some things (fasting) and by choosing to do other things (feasting).

Fasting

Fasting is an integral part of Lent. Traditionally it has included reducing the amount of food we eat and abstaining from meat. We fast to allow our physical hunger to remind us of our spiritual hunger, our need for God. The purpose of fasting is to turn our attention to both God and others.

Things to fast from...

watching television
cussing or using foul language buying new things
snack or junk foods spending money on entertainment being angry at other people holding resentments gossiping being dishonest

Feasting

A feast is "something that gives unusual or abundant pleasure." Jesus tells us what gives us the most real and lasting joy: sharing ourselves in love for others, our friends, our family, and our neighbors in need. During Lent, we pay attention to feasting on joy, compassion, service and hope so that we might grow in faith all year long.

Things to feast on...

prayer and forgiveness
acts of kindness to others participating in church activities (GOF!)
participating in liturgy and Eucharist giving our time in service participating in sacramental Reconciliation acts of service and charity giving money to people in need giving personal possessions to people in need

The Beginning of Lent

Father Jeffrey Mickler, S.S.P. tells an experience of a young woman living out her life in a large state mental hospital on the east coast. Though her features were all perfectly proportioned, her eyes always seemed focused on a horizon that only she could see. The woman lived in a world of her own fantasy, a personal creation, because our world had proven too harsh for her. In her imagination she believed that she was the only real person in the universe. Everyone else was simply a part of her dreams and had no real existence. As the only real person in the world, she was convinced of her own importance but at the same time she was terribly alone. She could not function. After all, she reasoned, she was the only one to experience pain or suffering. She believed it is impossible to experience real pain and suffering and at the same time carry on the everyday tasks of cooking, cleaning, or driving a car. In her mind, the people she saw doing these simple things cannot be real. No one or no therapy was able to shake her illusions. As the years passed by, it became more and more evident that she was locked in a prison of her own making.

Might we ask if our culture today, believing it exists on its own apart from God, is just as out of touch with ultimate reality as the woman who believes she is the only real creature id existence? Does our culture promote the notion that the only truth is what can be experienced through the senses?

Those of us blessed with faith are called to be ever more alive to God, so that those trapped in a purely materialistic view of reality will receive a "spiritual electro-shock" that will awaken them to the God of wonders. From ancient times, Lent has been that time in which believers have attempted to make God tangible in their lives and world. In antiquity, people went to the desert for spiritual renewal. It was there that the spiritual masters came to learn what was truly real.

These 40 days of Lent should be a period of spiritual regeneration for us. It is a time in which we acknowledge, in a concrete way, that God reigns in our hearts and we are aware of the reality of a kingdom that transcends all boundaries, time and space. These 40 days are a time to remind ourselves of a reality that goes beyond the senses. Lent is a time to prove deep within that we are about the task of reforming our lives and conforming them to the law of love of God and neighbor.

Night Ministry Needs Help

The Night Ministry service project group is looking for cold weather gear (hats, gloves, scarves, heavy duty socks-new or gently used), personal care items (toothpastes and toothbrushes) and travel-size items (hand and face lotion, shampoo/conditioner, soap). Do you know a dentist who could help us purchase these items at a discount or donate samples? Also needed is Vaseline, shave cream, disposable razors, deodorants, chapstick. All donations will be graciously accepted at the Youth Ministry office. For more information, contact Lisa Presmyk at mpresmyk@msn.com.

Daily Prayer Book for Lent

The Women's Scripture Sharing group is selling copies of "The Little Black Book" of daily prayers to be read during the season of Lent. Each book is merely $1.00, but has invaluable messages for those of the Christian faith. Books can be purchased in the Rectory during office hours.

Family Rosary

The Family Rosary will be said every Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the Chapel.

Shawl Ministry

The Shawl Knitting Ministry group will meet on Monday, February 11th, from 1:00-3:00 p.m. in the Conference Room, Parish Center. For more information, call Liz at 847.381.8695 or Joan at 847.381.1409.

An Invitation

Looking for an excellent way to prepare yourself for daily Mass? How about praying the Rosary? A group gathers at 7:45 a.m. to pray the Rosary every day before the 8:15 a.m. Mass. The Rosary is also a wonderful spiritual exercise during the Lenten season. All are most welcomed.

1st Sunday of Lent (24C), 2008

First Reading: Deuteronomy 26:4-10 (USCCB)

Psalm 91:1-2, 10-11, 12-13, 14-15. Be with me LORD, when I am in trouble.

Second Reading: Romans 10: 8-13 (USCCB)

Gospel: Luke 4:1-13 (CCCB)

[1] Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilder ness,
[2] where for forty days he was tempted by the devil.
He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished.

[3] The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread."
[4] Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone.'"

[5] Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world.
[6] And the devil said to him,
"To you I will give their glory and all this authority;
for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please.
[7] If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours."
[8] Jesus answered him, "It is written, "Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.'"

[9] Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, 'If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, [10] for it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,'
[11] and 'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'"
[12] Jesus answered him,
"It is said, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'"

[13] When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

Several aspects that are not immediately apparent in these pericopes must be borne in mind for a fuller appreciation of the intent of the authors. I have previously discussed honor/shame and challenge/riposte in Mediterranean society. Honor: A core value even to the present day. A public claim to status with public acknowledgment of that claim. Defines station in society, enabling one to interact with equals, superiors, and inferiors in a prescribed fashion. Is a limited good; if someone gains honor, someone else must lose honor. Without honor a person has no status and cannot survive because neither the person nor the culture would know their position in society! For example, the honor of one's extended family determines all interaction: who could be marriage partners, where one may live, with whom one can do business, what functions one can attend. Since the family, rather than the individual is the basic social unit, family honor must be defended at all cost to safeguard the status of the whole group. Without knowing how to interact, the family (therefore, the individual) would be totally isolated and extremely vulnerable. Ascribed honor comes from birth; being born into an honorable family makes one honorable; birth into a dishonorable family is equally true. Acquired honor results from the ever-present game of challenge/riposte. The act of winning and its acknowledgment must be public. Shame: To be shamed is to lose honor. To have shame is to have concern for one's honor, or the honor of the family. Women were the guardians of honor, passing it on to the children. Those who did not respect the limits of the honor system were perceived as threats to order and therefore irreversibly shameless, for example, prostitutes and actors. Women's sexual honor, once lost, was irretrievable. In addition, all males on her father's side would also be shamed; if married, her husband's honor would be lost. Challenge/Riposte: This game is perpetual and pervasive in the society described above. It is the means of acquiring and defending honor. Challenge: Any word, action or gesture that seeks to undermine the honor of another; must be answered successfully or honor is lost. Positive challenge: gifts or compliments. Negative challenges: dares or insults. Riposte: A response that is equal or greater, therefore a challenge to the original challenger.

The foregoing is the subtext to the gospel pericope. Luke, as do the other evangelists, portrays Jesus as a master of the game of challenge/riposte. Not only does Jesus answer the challenge, but he increases the level with his responses until finally the Tempter, having lost honor, leaves him - albeit to await another opportunity. Note that Luke had previously ascribed ultimate honor to Jesus at his baptism (3:22b) and in the genealogy (3:38d): he is Son of God, the Elect of God. The Tempter makes the first challenge: If you are the Son of God...(4:3). Luke shows that Jesus will not be diverted from what he came to do: to proclaim the existence of God's kingdom. To give in to these temptations is to subscribe to the type of kingdom that the world holds dear. The Tempter is subtle and strong: "use your own power...don't be dependent on God." At each challenge, Luke depicts Jesus as stronger, and emphatically declaring his trust in God, and so shows his readers that Jesus beats the Tempter in this deadly game; Jesus remains faithful to the tradition outlined in the Hebrew scripture, which he quotes back to the Tempter in a riposte that the Mediterranean ear regards as superior. In the first temptation, for example, the hungry Jesus is told: feed yourself if you have the power of the Son of God. Jesus quotes Deuteronomy 8:3; humans live not by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of the Lord. Jesus will indeed make bread, but not for him and his disciples alone, but for others (see the Feeding of the Five Thousand at 9:10-17, recall especially that all in the crowds were fed and that even twelve baskets of leftovers were collected). Similarly in the second and third temptations, Jesus remains faithful to his mission: he trusts in the words that come from the mouth of the LORD and not in himself which the Tempter urges him to do. To the Mediterranean ear, Jesus has not only met the challenge and upheld his honor but he has increased the level of the game and the Tempter is shamed; the Tempter yields!

Recall the opening of this chapter. Jesus was in the Spirit, just having been baptized, and it was the Spirit who led him while he was in the place of desolation, in the desert. The psalm refrain for today would have been on his lips: Be with me LORD, when I am in trouble.

The message of trust is also present in the pericope from Deuteronomy. This book was written just as the subjugated Israelites were being thrust out of their land into the Babylonian Exile. But it recalls for them another critical time: the Exodus period when they wandered in the wilderness for forty years. It makes the connection for the reader. When we were in trouble, and powerless, it was God, not ourselves, who delivered us from slavery in Egypt and then fed us in the desert. The ritual described here calls for the offering to God of the first-fruits of the harvest and then recalling – or making present – the mighty, saving deeds of God. This recital of the words that recount God's action and the offering of tithe is a signal event of highest importance for it emphasizes ongoing trust that God will continue to protect and provide for us. Then we are able, as verse 11 indicates, to rejoice even with the aliens, the ones who have no status among us.

This same message carries some ominous overtones in the pericope from Romans. To confess that Jesus is Lord is counter-cultural, in fact, it is blasphemous. To the Israelite, only God is LORD. To state that Jesus is LORD is to equate him with God! This challenge was met with the response of expulsion, ostracizing, even death (recall the story of Jesus before the high priest and the Sanhedrin at Mark 14:61!). Paul says that followers of Christ are to be witnesses to God's saving deeds just like our ancestors in the Deuteronomy passage. No one who believes in him will be put to shame (see shame above)...there is no difference between Jew and Greek...all have the same Lord, rich in mercy to all who call on him. Paul, as Luke and the author of Deuteronomy, is inclusive; interior faith in the Lord leads to righteousness (the right behavior among people together with God) and to an exterior declaration with the lips leads to salvation. Paul insists that we make Jesus central by confessing that he is Lord. Bold? Yes, but we have assurance: Be with me LORD, when I am in trouble.

So What? These lectionary choices show the struggle to keep God central, whether it is in giving God credit for mighty deeds or in calling for help since the subtleties of the Tempter are everywhere. But it is easy to remain in the historical, or to spiritualize the passages. It is harder to view them with their own cultural lens. Yet, we are the Elect of God; we are chosen, marked, set apart. How can we strategize so we can help each other when our institutions and cultural patterns seduce us from the God who continually calls us to be faithful?

Sacramental Celebrations

We believe that the Celebration of the Sacraments ranks among the most important gifts that we have. We look forward to sharing these celebrations with men and women who, in some way, are part of our community. Therefore, please note the following:

Baptism: Registration in the parish is a prerequisite. For those parents who are baptizing their first child, please allow 2 to 3 months in order to attend 2 required Baptism sessions before setting the Baptism date. For a subsequent child's baptism, an interview session must be scheduled prior to setting the date. All schedules are done in the parish office. Please call 847.382.5300.

Marriage: A son or daughter of a registered parishioner or a registered and active parishioner will need to schedule an interview with a parish staff person to set a date and start the marriage process. Please call 847.382.5300.

First Eucharist and First Reconciliation: These sacraments are celebrated in the second grade. Candidates must complete the preparation program which is coordinated through the REP program. Please call the REP office at 847.620.3068.

Confirmation: This sacrament is celebrated in high school. Candidates must be registered parishioners and complete a 2 year preparation program including large and small group involvement. Please call 847.620.3072.

Reconciliation: Saturdays 9:15 - 10:00 a.m. and by appointment.

Registration: Please do not assume you are registered if you have been attending Mass here or have children in St. Anne School or our REP program. Registration includes meeting with one of our welcoming team members and filling out an official form for our parish records. To register, please call 847.382.5300.

Lord God, we thank you for calling our brothers and sisters, our cathechumens/candidates, to journey with us this Lent. Bring and all the cathechumens/candidates to a deeper understanding of the Gospel, help them to accept the challenge of Christian living and lead them to the joy of new birth at Easter in the family of your Church. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
