

COUNCIL OF BARRINGTON GARDEN CLUBS
January 12, 1970

Present: Frances Peacock, Garden Club of Barrington
Mary Galvin Little Garden Club
Hope Beda " " "
Elberta Andresen Field & Flower Garden Club
Ruth Ryan " " " "
Claudia Mandabach " " " "
Lorraine Westcott Village Garden Club
Johnnie Benjamin " " "
June Hile Country Home & Garden Club
Dot Woodsome " " " "
Jo Kuffel Countryside Garden Club
Mary Sehnert " " "

The minutes of Wednesday, September 17, 1969, were read and approved.

The minutes of a special meeting held September 27, 1969, were read. The Committee duties as listed in the minutes did not agree with other members' lists. After some discussion, the various duties and assignments for each committee for the film showing in February were straightened out as follows: Countryside Garden Club duties are to furnish hostesses, greeters and ticket collectors at the door and ushers, plus clean up afterward. Minutes were approved as corrected.

Mrs. Galvin reported that the small lights on the Village Christmas tree will need replacing each year. It is the Council's responsibility to buy lights yearly.

Mrs. Benjamin announced that all dues are payable. There is $424.16 in the treasury.

Mrs. Benjamin announced that the next meeting of the Council will be April 21, 1970, in the field house at 10:00 a.m..

Mrs. Benjamin called attention to the Woman's Club conservation speaker on January 20, at 9:30 a.m. in the Bank.

The meeting was turned over to Mrs. Mandabach, chairman of the "When Comedy was King" show to be shown in February. She announced she has appointed Mrs. Andresen as her co-chairman. The age cutoff on the tickets will be 12. The hostess committee should be at the field house by 4:00 p.m., the staging committee should be earlier.

Mrs. Kuffel announced that she will not be attending any more steering committee meetings at Golf Mill. The Council must appoint someone else to attend.

Mrs. Benjamin stated that the Council needs two year books from every garden club, one for the president and one for the secretary.

The meeting was adjourned.

Ruth Ryan, Treasurer
Secretary Pro-tem
Field & Flower Garden Club