C. F. HALL CO., Dundee, Ill.

Republican County Convention. Pursuant to the order and direction of the Republican County Central Committee of the County of Lake and State of Illinois, a Republican County convention will be held at the Town Hall, in the village of Libertyville, Cook county, Illinois, on the 10th day of September, 1904, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Circuit Clerk, a candidate for Coroner, a candidate for State Attorney, and a candidate for County Surveyor.

It having been heretofore resolved that each voting precinct in the county be declared a primary district, and that a primary election or caucus be called for each of said primary districts, and the Republican legal voters and each County committeeman shall see to it that such primary is fully advertised.

Rule II. All voting at such primaries or caucuses shall be by uniform ballot, which ballot shall be printed by the central committee and distributed by such committee to the Republican township committees of the county, to be by such last named committee delivered to the judges of the primaries, who shall be chosen by such township committees, wherein same shall be delivered to voters and prepared for voting and voted the same as the Australian ballot under the regular Election Law of Illinois, and books to be used voting.

Rule III. Said ballots shall have printed thereon, in addition to the names of the delegates, the names of all candidates for the several offices for which nomination are to be made at the convention for which delegates are to be selected; and the voter shall receive his ballot from one of the judges of the primary and indicate his choice of candidates by making a cross opposite the name of the candidate of his choice for each office and cast his ballot so marked the same as at an election by Australian ballot under the regular Election Law and the candidate for any office who shall receive the highest number of votes for that office in any precinct shall have the delegation of this precinct as instructed for him and to vote for him at the County convention at which such delegates are chosen; and the ballot shall so state such instruction.

Such ballot shall be in the nature of an official ballot, and shall bear the name of the Secretary of the County central committee printed on the back thereof and when delivered to the voters by the primary judges they shall have the initials of the primary judge who delivers them written thereon, and in counting ballots cast none shall be counted other than such official ballot.

Rule V. Each candidate shall register his name as such candidate with the Secretary of the county committee immediately upon declaring his candidacy, and pay to said secretary a fee of $25.00 to help defray the expenses of printing and distributing such ballots.

Rule VI. The call for the County convention shall be by thirty days notice published at least once in each week for two consecutive weeks, the first publication to be thirty days before the convention day, except where special elections and district convention calls require a shorter notice necessary.

Rule VII. The Judges of the several primaries shall make up credentials according to the result of the balloting, and shall also forthwith certify such result to the Secretary of the County committee and to the County clerk, and the Secretary of the County committee and the County clerk after the adjournment of the County convention to which delegates are elected.

Rule IX. The County committee shall meet to execute these rules on call of the chairman of secretary thereof.

Rule X. These rules shall of course, be subject to such changes and modifications as may result from any primary election held hereafter passed by the Illinois General Assembly, and said County committee having voted and directed the judges of each of such primary elections to be open for at least three hours between two o'clock p. m. and eight o'clock p. m. of said last mentioned date, the judges and clerks thereof to be appointed by the several township committees.

The voting at each of such primaries shall be by ballot, of the kind and in the number of copies for in and required by said rules above mentioned and set forth.

The registration for each primary district in said County convention hereby called will be one delegate for each twenty-seven voters; the major candidate for president in 1900. The several primary districts will thus send delegates to the said County convention as follows:
