Republican County Convention.

Pursuant to the order and direction of the Republican County Central Committee...

It having been heretofore resolved that each voting precinct in the county be declared a primary district...

Rule I. All Republican primaries, on caucuses, for the selection of delegates to Republican county conventions...

Rule II. All voting at such primaries or caucuses shall be by uniform ballot, which ballots shall be prepared by the County Central Committee...

Rule III. Said ballots shall have printed thereon, in addition to the names of the delegates, the names of all candidates for the several offices...

Rule IV. Such ballot shall be in the nature of an official ballot, and shall bear the name of the Secretary of the County Central Committee...

Rule V. Such ballot shall contain the names of but one set of delegates in each precinct, which shall be selected by the County Central Committee...

Rule VI. Each candidate shall register his name as such candidate with the Secretary of the County Central Committee...

Rule VII. The call for the County Convention shall be by thirty days notice published at least once in each week for two successive weeks...

Rule VIII. The Judges of the several primaries shall make up provisional ballots according to the result of the ballots cast...

Rule IX. The County committee shall meet to execute these rules on call of the chairman or secretary thereof.

Rule X. These rules shall of course, be subject to such changes and additions as may result from any primary election law hereafter passed by the Illinois General Assembly...

At the polls of each of such primary elections to be open for at least five hours, between two o'clock p. m. and eight o'clock p. m. of said last mentioned date...

The voting at each of such primaries shall be by ballot of the kind and in the manner provided for and required by the rules above mentioned...

Table with columns: Precinct, Vote, Del. Includes precincts like Benton, Bond, Boone, etc.

This call is made, signed and published pursuant to the vote and direction of the County Central Committee.

CHAS. WHITNEY, Chairman, J. S. MORROW, Secretary of said committee.

Demands Tolerance. Dynamic is of a very sensitive disposition and should be treated with love and gentleness.

That proposition, of course, flays the general belief, and seems to put the "cigarette fiend" on a plane of moral superiority...

The ministers will have to answer that indignation. If Bible reading is the best of the criminal classes...

On one proposition the London editor is certainly right. A proper reading of the list of the criminal classes...

The vertical handwriting that has passed for chirography in the public schools is neither a type of writing down or tipping over or dattening out...
