

Every housekeeper should know that if they will buy Defiance Cold Water Starch for laundry use they will save not only time, because it never sticks to the iron, but because each package contains 16 oz.—one full pound—while all other Cold Water Starches are put up in 4-pound packages, and the price is the same, 10 cents. Then again because Defiance Starch is free from all dyes and chemicals. If you grocer tries to sell you a 12-oz. package it is because he has a stock on hand which he wishes to dispose of before he puts in Defiance. He knows that Defiance Starch has printed on every package in large letters and figures "16 ozs." Demand Defiance and save much time and money and the annoyance of the iron sticking. Defiance never sticks.

MAN'S FIGHT WITH BABOON.
Fouled Member Very Nearly Overcomes Its Slayer.
The South African mail brings a thrilling tale of a fight to the death between a man and a giant baboon. Mr. Robert Heugh, proprietor of Kamech's Farm, Ultenhage, saw a baboon in his orchard, and shot him through the body at 200 yards. The baboon was, however, able to get away, and was afterwards seen on the top of an adjoining hill, where he suddenly dropped. Thinking that he was dead, Mr. Heugh went after him with two terriers and a native. The dogs ran up to the supposed carcass, when the baboon suddenly rose, caught the unfortunate terriers, bit a large piece out of each, cast them from him with such violence as to kill them, and then made furiously for his master, tearing his arm open from shoulder to wrist. The native bolted, and the partially disabled white man was left alone to battle with the enraged baboon. Mr. Heugh is active and muscular, but his efforts to throttle his antagonist and to beat his face in with his fist were unavailing, and he was forced to the ground. Here, while desperately struggling, the man's hand came in contact with a large stone. This he seized, and with almost a last effort fractured the baboon's skull with it. When the body was measured it was found to be over five feet.—English Exchange.

Boy in Seven Feet High.
A European prodigy, known as "the long Josef," was born in Munich-Gladbach on April 15, 1858. At 13 years of age he was 5 feet 4 inches in height and is now 7 feet 1 inch. He is still growing and no doubt will become the tallest man on earth. His father is a butcher. At present he is the principal attraction at the Panopticon, Berlin. He was born of normal parents and is the eleventh child. The first ten have developed quite normally.

Gen. Jackson's Chaplain Dying.
Rev. M. A. Wilson, the veteran pastor of the Baptist church at Norton, Va., is reported to be dying. He was chaplain of "Stonewall" Jackson's brigade in the civil war, and throughout the years has maintained an undying devotion for the greatest Christian character, as he believed, of history. He said to a newspaper correspondent in the beginning of his illness: "Well, it doesn't matter how it goes with me. It is time to go. I am willing and waiting. It is literally true, as Jack-

Thought It Was the Camp Pig.
While K. J. Snell of Potsdam was trading watches with a Frenchman at his lumber camp near Utica, N. Y., the dogs behind the house set up a loud barking. Snell went out to investigate and discovered an animal poking around in the darkness. He concluded that the camp pig had again escaped, and after considerable hard work succeeded in putting the beast in the pen. When he went out next morning to see if the porker was all right, he was astonished to find that instead of a pig he had put a black bear into the pen. Snell avers that bears are as thick as huckleberries in that section. The law forbids that they be shot at the present time.

Spanish Women in Suicide Club.
The police at Lerida, Spain, have raised what is believed to be a woman's suicide club, and have made several arrests. Recently a young lady named Isabel Rodriguez, belonging to a well-to-do family, was found wandering about the streets at night in a state of great excitement. When questioned by a policeman she stated that she had drawn a number at the club which, according to the rules, bound her to commit suicide. She added that at the last moment her courage had failed her. Acting on this information the police watched the premises used as a club house. They found it attended by well-dressed ladies, who met ostensibly for social purposes.

FROM MISERY TO HEALTH.
A Society Leader and Club Woman of Kansas City Writes to Thayer Doan's Kidney Pills for a Quick Cure.
Miss Nellie Davis, of 1215 Michigan Ave., Kansas City, Mo., society leader and club woman, writes: "I cannot say too much in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills, for they effected a complete cure in a very short time when I was suffering from kidney troubles brought on by a cold. I had severe pains in the back and sick headaches, and felt miserable all over. A few boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills made me a well woman, without an ache or pain, and I feel compelled to recommend this reliable remedy."

Opening for Canadian Fruit.
A report from Commercial Agent Jackson at Leeds says there is a good opening for Canadian fruit in England. The apple and plum crops have been a failure. Last year England imported 200,000 tons of apples and 200,000 tons of plums. Of this amount Canada sent 200 tons.—Detroit News.

ARE YOU GOING TO ST. LOUIS?
The Hamilton Hotel is located in a few blocks from World's Fair. It is fireproof and moderate in charges. Good rooms with bath, $2.00 per day and up. European plan. Breakfast 50c. Write for Booklet. Address F. Williamson, manager.

To the housewife who has not yet become acquainted with the new things of everyday use in the market and who is reasonably satisfied with the old, we would suggest that a trial of Defiance Cold Water Starch be made. Not alone because it is guaranteed by the manufacturers to be superior to any other starch, but because each 16-ounce package contains 16 ozs., while all the other kinds contain only 4 ozs. It is safe to say that the lady who once uses Defiance Starch will not return. Quality and quantity must win.

Americans in the Making.
The new humorist in the house of representatives, J. Adam Bede of Minnesota, has discovered a new description of the process a foreigner undergoes in attaining citizenship rights in this country.
He says he was out in the west not long ago. He met a group of men who were talking of their different nationalities. There were representatives of a half dozen different countries. Among them were a Scotchman, a German, an Italian, a Swede, a Frenchman, and finally, says Bede, one fellow who spoke for his side in the mountains of the Nordland and announced that he was a Norwegian. He had been "neutralized!"—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Utah's Wonderful Natural Bridge.
There exists in San Juan county, Utah, three wonderful natural bridges. The largest of these bridges spans a canyon 235 feet and 1 1/2 inches from wall to wall, and is a splendid arch of solid sandstone, 60 feet thick in the central part and 40 feet wide. Underneath it there is a clear opening 357 feet in length. The accompanying cut, reproduced

Utah's Great Natural Bridge Compared with Capitol.
The Century, shows the dimensions of this bridge as compared with the capitol at Washington.
The other two bridges, while of proportions somewhat less massive, are marvels of wonder and beauty. They have been seen probably by fewer than a dozen white men.
Footprint of Prehistoric Animal.
A valuable scientific find has been made in New Jersey, where a slab of stone bearing the impress of the feet of some prehistoric animal has been brought to the surface. The footprints are three-toed, about three inches long, and resemble bird tracks. There is also a trail left by the heavy tail of an animal, and two parallel lines which may have been made by wings. They are thought to be the tracks of a pterodactyl a kind of reptile bird.

Pencils Froze Not Cheap.
A fair lot of a lot of splendid looking pencils nurtured him back to school the other evening at the astonishing price of eight for 10 cents. His customers grew angry the next day when they found that the pencils were back about one-fourth of an inch from the end.
Frosts Froze to Death.
R. W. Adams of Plainfield, N. H., was throwing out hay from a truck recently, when he came across a nest that contained seventy-four rats and mice, which had evidently been frozed to death.

WOULD WORSHIP GREEK GODS.
London Man Asks for Funds to Erect Temple.
It is only a paltry $12,500 that Marjory, London's latest spiritual counselor, "The High Priestess of the Winged Disc," wants the public to give him wherewithal to spread his doctrine, and really somebody ought to come forward with the money, just as a contribution toward the gayety of nations.
The new "Apostle of Pantheism," as

he otherwise calls himself, is the most picturesque thing in the propagandist line England has produced recently, and the temple that he wants to build for the worship of the old Greek gods, with a special one for the accommodation of stray birds, ought to put Mesiah Piggott's "Abode of Love" out of the running soon after it gets started.

Cushions of Fat Saved Him.
After falling three stories while sleeping and landing on a stone sidewalk, Thomas Gallagher, a 250-pounder, came to consciousness in the operating room of a New York hospital and astonished the surgeons surrounding him by jumping up, dancing around the room, and walking home uninjured.
Cushions of fat on which he landed after his fall, said the surgeons, saved him.

Frank Odonsky, of Chicago, swore out warrants for the arrest of Joseph Kozel, Martin Kozel and Frank Maronksi, charging them with swindling him.
The alleged swindle, according to the complainant, was the result on his part of credulity and cupidly. The man says that he was so taken with that by carrying a hen for eight days and following a formula given him by the alleged confidence man he could cause a dollar to refer to his gain and again after he had spent it.
Gadomsky followed this advice, but so wealth came to him. Now he seeks the arrest of the three men and the return of money which he says he gave to them for their "secret."
