

WORLD'S NEWS PARAGRAPHS

Alsdorfer Long of Peoria, Ill., has announced that he has won the fight for a $1,000 saloon license until after the election. Prof. H. A. Hammes of the University of Colorado, at Boulder, Colo., has been appointed head of the department of pedagogy at Harvard. Mrs. Gus Kleiser of Toronto was seized after crossing the river from Detroit to Windsor on the charge of smuggling jewelry into Canada. Fire destroyed the remains of the Camp Bird mill, near Ouray, Colo., which was wrecked Sunday by a snowslide. The mill cost $500,000 to erect in 1898. Gen. Thomas J. Henderson of Illinois was elected at Washington as president of the Society of the Army of the Ohio, to succeed the late General Schofield. The Ohio senate at Columbus passed a bill providing for the fine and imprisonment of students found guilty of hazing and of leaving of college faculties who permit it. Paul Trapi and Giuseppe Cagliano, arrested as being members of the Black Hand band which wrecked the store of Gioacchino Fazio at Scranton, Pa., with dynamite, were held in $5,000 bonds each. Hans Peterson of Dundee, Ill., is in prison at San Luis, Mexico, charged with a crime committed by another man, and unless he is released speedily his friends will appeal to the government at Washington. President Theodore Roosevelt of the Free Press company of Milwaukee denied, when he took the stand in the suit of Charles F. Pfister against the corporation, that there was any plot to injure the character of Pfister. The commissioners appointed to inquire into the Valencia disaster made their report at Victoria, B. C., blaming Captain Johnson for grave errors in navigation and lack of discipline among the crew, and making recommendations for the betterment of the protection to shipping traversing waters contiguous to the Vancouver island coast. The Wisconsin Supreme court has granted leave to bring a suit testing whether the state bank examiner's department is unconstitutional under the jurisdiction of the Wisconsin civil service law. The Windsor hotel, once the leading hotel in St. Paul, Minn., was purchased from the C. J. Montfort estate by L. P. Ordway, a local capitalist, for $100,000. Ferdinand Hueser, aged 22, who came from Germany three months ago, while crossing a bridge at Racine, Wis., was overtaken by a south-bound freight train and killed, and the driver of the freight train was injured. Judge Amidon of the federal circuit court at St. Paul, Minn., filed an order dismissing the suit of the Merchants' National bank of Valdosta, Ga., against Lyman H. McCombs, receiver of the default First National bank of Fairbault, to compel the receiver to list as credits $7,375.63 in favor of the Georgia bank. Christian Haug, at present charge d'affaires of Norway at Washington, will be appointed Norwegian minister to Washington. Dr. Edwin D. Starbuck, head of the department of anatomy at the Guthrie college, Richmond, Ind., has been elected a member of the Sociological society of England. The senate committee on the judiciary ordered a favorable report to be made on the nomination of A. H. Holt to be United States attorney for the western district of North Carolina. The following cadets have been recommended to the Annapolis naval academy: M. J. Foster, Louisiana; C. H. Pierce, North Carolina; A. C. Paulter, Michigan; Edwin F. Barlow, Tennessee. Rev. Dr. John Watson of Liverpool, England, "Tan MaLaren," the author, is to be the lecturer extraordinary in the Western Theological seminary at Pittsburgh for a course of lectures next year. Dr. Watson requires that some church give him preaching for the year and Josiah V. Thompson, the millionaire, has taken up his abode on behalf of the First Presbyterian church of Uniontown, Pa. The receiver of the Defunct Enterprise National Bank of Allegheny, Pa., will pay a dividend to the depositors in April. It is expected that they will ultimately receive 30 cents on the dollar. Infuriated because he blamed him for trying to prohibit McClelland Findley, his sweetheart, against him, Clayton Christy, aged 24 years, shot down and killed Frank Meisinger on his own doorstep at Lancaster, Pa. George M. Koser of Washington was elected president of the Association of American Medical Colleges, which met in annual session at Pittsburgh. Dr. Fred C. Zappé of Chicago was unanimously re-elected secretary and his salary was increased from $500 to $1,000 a year. The national convention of the Methodist Episcopal Missionary Society of America will be held in Miami, Fla., March 25-27. Clinton D. Grigg, editor of the Christiana Journal, Illinois, Independent, has announced the suspension of that publication.

LATEST CASH MARKET REPORTS

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Includes Chicago Provisions, Grain Quotations, and Live Stock.

HIDDEN PUZZLE PICTURE.

Find Her Brother.

TWENTY-ONE DIE IN RAIL CRASH. Charred Bones Hide Identity of Fifteen to Twenty Other Victims.

OPERATOR ASLEEP AT HIS POST. Had Been on Duty Seventy-two Hours and Neglected to Deliver Orders Which Changed Meeting Place of Belated Trains. Pueblo, Colo., dispatch: An operator who had worked for seventy-two consecutive hours without rest is responsible for the wreck on the Denver and Rio Grande railroad at 2:20 o'clock Friday morning...

PEACE ONLY COME TO MINERS

Joint Scale Committee to Consider Way Out of the Difficulty.

MITCHELL'S STIRRING APPEAL

Miners' Chief, Reiterating His Belief in the Justice of the Demands on Operators, Prays for Effort to Reach Agreement. Indianapolis, Ind., March 21.—President John Mitchell of the miners Tuesday made a dramatic appeal for industrial peace in favor of the country before a just conference of operators and miners. He charged the operators with responsibility of precipitating a great and ruinous strike if they failed to make every possible effort to reach an agreement with their men.

Oil Magnates Are Suffering

William Rockefeller Incubally Ill with Cancer of the Stomach.

H. H. ROGERS LOSING MEMORY. Speculative Member of Great Combination Faces Death, Business Head is in Decline, and Founder Retired, Concern Loses Power. New York dispatch: Private advices received in this city said that William Rockefeller, one of the most prominent in Europe since early last fall, has cancer of the stomach and that his malady is incurable.

LIST OF KNOWN DEAD.

- Edward E. Baird, deputy sheriff, Denver. A. N. Barklo, Salida, Colo. Miss Grace Barklo, Salida, Colo. Mrs. William Burns, daughter and daughter's child, all of Kansas, town not known.

FALLS DOWNSTAIRS TO DEATH

Professor of Chemistry at Indiana University Killed at Evansville. Evansville, Ind., dispatch: Dr. F. W. Achille, for many years professor of chemistry at the state university at Bloomington, fell from his office Sunday and died later of his injuries.

WINS MICHIGAN CONTEST AND GETS CHICAGO ALUMNI MEDAL.

An Arbor, Mich., dispatch: K. S. Inui, a Japanese student, won first honors in the annual oratorical contest of the University of Michigan and received $100 in gold and the Chicago alumni gold medal. His subject was "The Mission of New Japan."

PLATINUM IN RUSSIA.

St. Petersburg, cablegram: Telegrams report that rich deposits of platinum have been discovered in the district of Ouray.

NURSE HELD TO $20,000.

St. Paul, Minn., dispatch: Miss Laura Winslow, nurse at St. Mary's hospital, Minneapolis, has a cable gram from England telling her an uncle has died, leaving her $20,000 in property.

MISOURI SUPREME JUDGE.

Jefferson City, Mo., dispatch: Gov. Folk will commission Judge W. W. Graves of Butler as judge of the supreme court to succeed Judge Marshall, resigned.