CASH DEPARTMENT STORE
DUNDEE, ILLINOIS

ARE DOLLARS ALIKE?

Yes. Each has 100 cents. But you know, and we know that 100 cents will get MORE and BETTER things in some places than in others. That is why we buy Toys direct from Germany, Hosiery straight from southern mills, etc., etc. Are you so careful about YOUR buying? You wouldn't hire out for $1.50 when others get $1.25? Then why pay $1.75 for the same goods for which others pay only $1.50.

Are you a member of the Co-operative Burial association yet? If not, make your application at once. Ten cents when you are well is but a trifle, but $100 in case of death is a big help. Isn't it? Ten cents pays your initiation fee, at E. M. Block's.

In this week's issue will be found a card of Albert G. Gieske, a graduate of the Chicago Veterinary College. "Bert," as he is known among Barringtonians, is a young veterinary surgeon in whom the greatest confidence can be placed. He graduated with the highest honors, and that, too, on his merits. Anyone in need of the services of a veterinary surgeon should give him a call.

Editor M. T. Lamey of THE REVIEW was presented with a comfortable office chair by the Modern Woodmen of the Chicago Veterinary College in recognition of his services as clerk of that organization for 13 years. No more convincing sermon could be preached on the ambitions, standards and moral code of Wall Street than to be found in the blighting of the career of John A. McCall. It is one of the tragedies of the system.

Jeram K. Jeram, the English humorist, says the American joke too much, "sontcherkown." He would have us read his brilliant emanations and let it go at that, which would be a fine joke for him.

PALATINE NEWS

Kan. He was 95 years old, a friend of Alexander Campbell and one of the early members of the Campbellites church. At one time he was worth $100,000. Mr. Wood had lived in or near Emporia since 1872. He was the father of six children.

The Palatine Memorial Association held its first meeting Monday evening, April 2, 1906, and Judge Ben Smith of Chicago has been selected to make the Memorial address. It was also decided to procure a suitable marker for the soldiers and have it set and in readiness by Decoration Day. R. L. Peck was chosen to unveil the monument on that day. Meeting adjourned to meet again April 16, 1906, to which all members are earnestly requested to attend.

Several of the friends of G. H. Arps from Barrington came down on the 6:47 train Tuesday evening, and walked in upon Mr. Arps unbeknown to him and he was so very much surprised it took him a few moments to fully recover, after which he greeted his old time friends with a glad handshake. Several of the Palatine people had been invited in and progressive cinch was played, the first prizes being awarded to Miss Elnora Arps and Bert Smith and the consolation prizes to Mrs. Frank Wright and Billy Williams, after which refreshments and a general good time was enjoyed until they left to take the midnight train, promising to come again and surprise Mr. Arps, although he is one of the fellows who can never be surprised, you know.

Miss Clara Krueger, daughter of Louis Krueger, was united in marriage to Jacob Sylvester of Chicago at the home of the bride's father Saturday, March 31, 1906, at 3 o'clock. The couple entered the parlor to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march played by Miss Elnora Arps, and were attended by Miss Sophia Lawrence, niece of the groom, and Miss Fannie Uler, both of Chicago, as bridesmaids and Irvin Krueger, brother of the bride, and Henry Nordien of Chicago were the groomsmen. During the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. J. C. Hoffmeister, Miss Arps sang "Oh, Promise Me." Afternoon, congratulations had been offered all at down to a sumptuous repast. Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester left for their future home Sunday afternoon, where they will be at home to all their friends after April 1st, at 1802 Armitage Ave., Chicago, Ill., at which place they will be glad to receive them all. Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Miss Nordien, Mrs. Sylvester, mother of the groom; Mrs. Hausamban and Mrs. Lawrence and daughters, sisters of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Comar, Mrs. Diana and Mrs. Mary White, all of Chicago. They were the recipients of some very beautiful as well as useful presents.

International Theatre, Chicago.
The International Theatre has been enjoying an unprecedented business. In fact, the patronage of this popular house since Manager W. S. Cleveland inaugurated his "great vaudeville" has increased until it is now the leading vaudeville theatre in Chicago. The reason is found in high quality and novelty of the acts presented. Beginning Monday, April 9, another galaxy of star performers will be seen. The ultra attraction will be Hill and Silviary, acknowledged to be the most sensational music act in the world. It astonished and electrified the French and Austrian audiences before coming to this country and their great acts will be produced in their entirety. During the recent past this pair of talented performers broke all records for the long runs at Hammerstein's theatre in New York and the Riviera opera act will be presented by Green Bros., the satirical comedy acrobats and that Jugglers who were hidden to amuse the eccentric Shah of Persia. Caroline Kelly McCard and company in a new playlet. Their performance is worth prying and at the same time marvelous in its dexterity. Pauline and Bernice, an actress and actor of fame will offer their prize comedy conceit in one act entitled "Miss Steno, Stenographer," while Kresco, Connelly and Gazelle, a trio of burnt cork singers and dancers will entertain with new specialties. Shean and Warren who, through their popularity with Chicago audiences have proven a big hit the past week, have been induced to put off their Boston engagement and will continue for another week. A half dozen other great numbers will make up a show seldom seen.

Human Blood Talks.
A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of New York. He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained cured ever since." It cures hemorrhages, chronic cough, scrofulous colds and bronchitis, and is the only cure for weak lungs. Every bottle is guaranteed by Barrington Pharmacy, 10c and 25c. Trial bottles free.
