TWO BECOME JUNE BRIDES

Miss Luella Plagge Becomes Mrs. Albert Gieske and Miss Anna Krueger Changes Name to Wichman.

A beautiful wedding occurred on Wednesday evening, June 27th, when Miss Luella Plagge and Albert Gieske were united in marriage to the strains of Lehengren's wedding march, played by Miss Cornelia Smith of Cary. The bridal party descended the stairs, headed by Rev. A. Haeftle, who performed the ceremony. Following the pastor came the groom and his best man, Mr. Elmer Gieske, and the bridesmaid, Miss Nora Plagge. The bride was brought down by her father, John C. Plagge, while little Miss Miriam Plagge carried the ring in a white rose. After the ceremony and before congratulations were extended

Miss Frances Plagge read the following poem written by H. H. Hubbard: "To the Bridal Pair, Albert G. and Luella M. Gieske, at their wedding."

From the beginning, all the way, Throughout the whole creation, Has cupid held restless sway, In every walk and station.

Jehovah gave to man the earth; But as the man was human, He failed to realize its worth— Till God had added woman.

In Cana, too, of Galilee, The nuptial tie impressing— There on the marriage jubilee, Our Lord bestowed a blessing.

So all along the march of Time— His charms around us flinging— Has cupid led the merry chime Of wedding bells a-ringing!

At such an hour a host of friends— A joyous congregation— United on one thought extends Sincere congratulations!

Each one who greets you here to-night, Like some good fortune-teller, Predicts a future fair and bright For Albert and Luella!

"To memory's train this date affix— Foretaste perchance of Heaven: The day— A. D. 1906: The day— June, twenty-seven."

But, should life prove a troubled sea, And dangerous shoals discover, May strength divine your portion be— With grace to tide you over.

A sumptuous wedding banquet was served, after which a number of the guests accompanied the bride and groom to their new home on Station street.

The guests from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Nick Stenger and son, Oliver, of Naperville; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hubrke and Misses Helen Frey and Sallie Baker, of Chicago; Miss Selma Tompfer of Palatine, and Miss Cornelia Smith of Cary.

Ed Wichman was united in marriage to Miss Anna Krueger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Krueger, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of her parents, Rev. Stanger officiating.

The wedding was supposed to be simplicity itself, but before the happy young couple took the 5:16 train for a honeymoon trip they experienced one of the most novel experiences that ever befell a newly married pair.

After the ceremony and an excellent and sumptuous banquet the groom was "requested" to take the carriage with his bride, to be carried to the depot. "The carriage" turned out to be an elaborately decorated milk wagon with six young beneficiaries "horses" pulling, and two to do the "pushing." The team consisted of "Billy" Cannon and Ed. Ernst, leaders; "Senator" Mason and Larry Doule next; Vetter (Vet) Fyvie; George Otis and Otto Stanger, doing the holding of the tongue, while "Farmer Dutch," Geo. Beinhold and Assistant Village Smithy Jas. McKay did some heavy pushing.

The trip was made up Main street and around the block to the depot, amid a shower of confetti and rice, but the couple proved "game" to the core.

There isn't a more popular, upright young man in town than Ed Wichman, and his popularity is justly earned, while his bride is one of the most popular and handsome young ladies in Barrington.

The bridal march was played by Miss Jennie Fletcher.

THEY HAD A GRAND TIME

V. M. C. A. Ball Team Given a Taste of Good Things.

The informal luncheon given to the base-ball team last Friday evening was a most delightful affair; the Gym. with its bare walls and sharp outlines was transformed by the experienced hands of a half dozen young ladies, into a very pretty dining hall festooned with bunting and greens, and lighted with candles.

At 9 o'clock the umpire whiffed "Play Ball," and 9 uniformed young athletes took their places at the tables and proceeded to give a perfect imitation of a harvest gang at supper time.

Sandwiches, salads, coffee, cake and cream were put out in one, two, three order, and when the umpire finally called time the score book showed a clean cut of white wash had been administered, only a few errors and a couple of fumbles, one of which landed a cup of coffee in the pitchers mill, marred the game.

After the dust had cleared away, Prof. N. M. Lantz, Capt. Will South, Geo. Stiefenhofer, and Rev. P. N. Lapham made short and entertaining speeches in which they complimented the team upon the good-fellowship which existed among the members and their sportsmanlike conduct upon the field; Manager Logschulte and the mascot failed to respond to calls for speeches.

At the close of the festivities the young ladies to whom all credit for the delicious lunch was due, were called in and thanked for their kindness by the entire company; all then joined in singing a verse of "God be with you till we meet again," and a very pleasant evening was ended.

The manager of the hall team announces the following schedule of games on the home grounds: June 30th, Crystal Lake; July 7th, Austin High-School; and July 14th, Woodstock, Y. M. C. A.

Next Sunday afternoon Rev. Hirsch, of Arlington Heights, will speak in the rooms at 2:30; Mr. Hirsch is a thoroughly awake young man and a very pleasant speaker. Everybody is invited.

GRADUATED WITH HONORS.

Miss Riley Was One of Two to Receive Gold Medal.

The Elgin Advocate of Saturday, June 2, says: "Before an audience which completely filled the opera house, Misses E. Hudson Riley, and Mary J. Jacobs received the graduating medals of St. Mary's Academy Wednesday. In addition, Rev. Father McCann awarded diplomas to five who had completed the business course and to twenty-four for completing the grammar department curriculum."

"Shortly before 7 o'clock the curtain rose and the entire class, who were to be honored with diplomas, led by Misses Riley and Jacobs, marched upon the stage. Applause greeted the two young ladies as they received the highest honors of the school. The diplomas were then awarded to the others."

Miss Riley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Riley of Cuba township.

LAKE COUNTY FARM'S IDEL.

Lack of Help Causes Thirty Agriculturists to Suspend Work.

The Chicago News of Monday says: Lack of farm help has caused thirty farmers of Lake county to allow their lands to go uncultivated. One of these farms near the town of Rockefeller, in Fremont township, comprises 360 acres. The owner is R. Cowdrey and it is said that he has been unable to secure help to cultivate it.

Another 200-acre farm owned by Charles Phillips, in the same locality, is uncultivated, save that a neighboring farmer has agreed to plow up some of the land and in the fall stock it with South Dakota cattle. Mr. Phillips is well along in years and is without help to farm his land.

A farm hand is offered in Lake county from $25 to $30 a month with board, washing and the use of a horse and vehicle, but this is not sufficient, seemingly, to induce either young or middle-aged men to engage in the business.

Farther north in the same county there has been a dearth of tenant farmers caused by an exodus of this class of soil tillers to South Dakota and Canada. Some of the best potted men of Lake county say that the share offered to tenant farmers is too small. It is said the landlord has been requiring one-half of the crops. Owners of reclaimed land in other localities of this class which an immense amount of money has been expended in draining operations, require only two-fifths of the crops.

One of the farmers of Fremont township said that were it not that his son is sticking to the farm he would be obliged to abandon farming as a business. In Libertyville township one eighty-acre tract is farmed entirely by a woman 50 years old. She does her own plowing and cultivating and rides a mowing machine. She lives alone and if she did not do the work, the farm would go unfarmed.

Chicago employment agencies are furnishing little farm help. The farmers' experience with city help has not been encouraging. Down on the big farms that have been reclaimed from the Kankakee swamps, the farm help comes from North Carolina and Kentucky. One man who has a 2,300-acre farm has twenty hands and he gets them all from those localities.
