Cepricials by Lesherp Politising Company, NGHAPTER, VII.—CONTINUED. "Of course live art," Percival agreed; er—all—hand painted, I suppose?" "Sure! that painting alone, leiters and all, cost $450. I've just had it put property of the prope

"Fine-elmple and effective. It "That's it-simple and effective. It "That's it-simple and it don't

"Pine-elimple and effective, repine Percival.

"That's it-elimple and effective, it and the point and it don't goes right to the point and it don't goes right to the point and it don't goes right to the point and it don't steer. We studied a good deal over that sign. The other man, the failor, had too many words for the board space, My advertisin' man wanted it to be, first, 'Higbee's Hamps, That's All.' But, I don't know-for so big a space that seemed but me kind of-well—kind of fippant and undignified. Then I got it down to 'Eat Higbee's Hams.' That seemed short enoughbut after latudying it. I says, Whath the use of agrillant a ham is to paper the walls with or to stuff sofa cushions with—so off comes 'eat's abeing superfluous, and leaving it simple dignified—Higbee's Hams.'
"By the way," said Percival, when they were sitting together again, later in the day, "where is Henry, now."
Higbee checkled.
"That's the other thing took me back this time—the new sign and getting Hank started. Henry is now working the said of the cush of the office and his hours will be taken into the office and his hours will be cut down to right. Eight hours a day will seem like sinful idleness to Henry by that time."
Percival whistled in amazement.
"I thought you'd be surprised. But the short of it is, Henry found himself-facing work or starvation. He didn't want to starpe a little bit, and be finally concluded he'd rather work for his dad than anyone else.

"Tou see Henry there in New York he was the later the in New York had the started and restrict the seem of the man way the sain and the later there in New York had been the sain the sain the later there in New York had been the sain the later there in New York had been the sain t concluded he'd rather work for his than anyone else. You see Hear? was doing the let's Progress act there in New Ke-being a gilded youth and sight a. Now being a gilded youth and sight a. Now being a gilded youth and sight well-known man about town is nething that want to be done in deration, and Henry didn't seem to we the meaning of the word. I put something like 1810,000 for Hank's ding last year. Not that I grudged in the money, but it want' doing any good, He was making a mongroof himself with it, Henry was. A dd lit of that hundred and sighty went tho a comic opera company that was one of the worst I ver did see. Henry had no judgment. He was too easy. Weil, along this summer he was on the point of making a break that would—weil, Ai says to him, says I: Hank, I'm sho penny-queezer; I like good stretchy jegs myself. I says, "I like to see them cleated so they'll give a plenty when they're pulled; but, 'p says, "I you take that step,' I says, "If you declare yourself, then the rubber in your leny,' and "he will just naturally says, "I you take that step,' I says, "If you declare yourself, then the rubber in your leny,' recull find you've overplayed the tension," I says, and there won't be any more streach left in them. a plenty when they're pulled; but, a span, if you take that step, I says, if you cleare yourself, then the rub. The real spring comes in Now were in your fast, I says, will just mather the pulled in the property of the pro for Hank; so, quick as I saw how'tt was, I says, 'Bers.' I says, 'Sie where I save my son and heir from a passel of butchers,' I says, 'Secto they have a my son and heir from a passel of butchers,' I says, 'Secto they have him scalded and dressed and hung up outside the shop for the holiday irade,' I says, 'with the red paper roctuse contact in the same and the same as if he wasn't say relation of naine. I made it plain, you het; she found just where little Henry took of the same and the same as if he wasn't say relation of naine. I made it plain, you het; she found just where little Henry took old the same and the same as if he wasn't say relation of naine. I made it plain, you het; she found just where little Henry took took with his kind-bestered, liberal liberal look father.

"Bay, mays law book callify from a passent the same and the big jar of American beautiful the same and the big jar of American liberal liberal look father.

"Bay mays law where little Henry wasn't in cold to same same haughty roses sent to an address his memory cherished. The Money club you got into,' i says,' and there saint really what you couldn't see daylight between em. I work,' I says, 'and you make a study of the hop from the knowe of the you father done, and there saint really what you couldn't see daylight between em. I work,' I says, 'and you wages work' is be big enough to make you interesting to any skirt-dancer, either,' I says, 'and you wages work' is be big enough to make you can be you can be saint on the form the sone time,' I says, 'and you wages work and the little work,' I says, 'and you wages work and the little work,' I says, 'and you wages work and the little work,' I says, 'and you wages work and the little work,' I says, 'and you wages work and the little work,' I says, 'and you wages work and the little work,' I says, 'and you wages work and the work and the work and th that!"

"Well, Hank squealed at first like he was getting the knife; but finally a when he see he was up against it, and especially when he see he was up against it, and respecially when he see how this girl and her family throwed him down the elevator shaft from the tenth story, twy, he come around beautifully. He's really got sense, though he doesn't look it—Henry has—though Lord knows I didn't pull him up a bit too quick. But he come out and went to work like I told aim. It's the greatest thing ever happened to him. He ain't so fat-headed as he was, aiready. Heary'll be a man before his dad's through will him.

The line of the seemen the seemen the seemen that he come out a seemen that he was a like him. The line is the seemen that he was a seemen to seemen the seemen that he was a seemen to seemen the seemen that he was the mice long yellow-backs that I've piled up because the public knows good ham when they taste it. As for being in love with the mice long yellow-backs that I've piled up because the public knows good ham when they taste it. As for being in love with the representation of the seemen th out."

"I remember Mr. Milbrey spoke of what fine claret you gave him."

"Yes, and I wasn't stingy with ice either, the way those New York people always are. Why, at that fellow! house he gives you that claret wine as house he gives you that claret wine as warm as soup.

"But as for that girl," he added, "say, she'd marry me in a minute if I wann't tied up with the little lady over there. Otecourse she'd rather marry a sub-treasury; she's got 'about that much heart in her-cold-blooded as a German carp. She'd marry me—she'd marry you, if you was the best thing in sight. But say, if you was broke, she'd have about as much use for you as Chicago's got for St. Louis."

CHAPTER VIII. SOME LIGHT WITH A FEW SIDE

in April and May, the city-pent must wait until mid-October.
But spring is not all of life, nor what at ones chiefly concerns us. There are people to be noted a little series of more and the people. A young man, stands conveniently before a florist's window, at that hour when the sun which you have not a more of Broadway from wall to wall.

He had toltered along the lively highway an hour or more, his nerves the railing responsively to all its stimut. And now he mused as he stared at the tangled tracery of ferus against, the high bank of wine-red autumn foliages, the royal cluster of white chryanthen must and the big jar of American Beutles.

He had botoed forward to this monether with a better the series of the certain expressions; but it would be done with no heart because of the certain expressions; but it would be done with no heart because of the certain expressions; but it would be done with no heart because of the certain expressions; but it would be done with no heart because of the certain expressions; but it would be done with no heart because of the certain expressions; but it would be done with no heart because of the certain expressions; but it would be done with no heart because of the certain expressions; but it would be done with no heart because of the certain expressions; but it would be done with no heart because of the certain expressions; but it would be done with no heart because of the certain expressions; but it would be done with no heart because of the certain expressions; but it would be done with no heart because of the certain expressions; but it would be done with no heart because of the certain expressions; but it would be done with no heart because of the certain expressions; but it would be done with no heart because of the certain expressions; but it would be done with no heart because of the certain expression; but it would be done with no heart because of the certain expression; but it would be done with no heart because of the certain expression; but it would be done with no supplied them. Two maids would be required, and madams would of course wish a butler—Mrs. Bines looked helplessly at her son, who had just entered.

"It think—wave—we've always did our own buttling," she failtered.
The person was politely interested.
The person was politely interested.
"It attend to these things, ma," said the strength of the stren lotter on this bracing October day down a leaf-strew aisis in Central park.

"You," said the girl of the pair, "least of all men can accuse me of lacking heart."

"You are cold to me now."
"But look, think—what did I offer—you've had my trust—everything I could bring myself to give you. Look could bring myself to give you. Look and the latest heart of latest heart h titude in mind."

"Life-what is life! To do without avail.
The decent refered tasks of every day.
Talk with the soler; join the solem play.
Tell for the hundredth time the cell-same tale.
Tell by our grandstrean in the self-same vale.
And nights, eternally the same make way.
And nights, eternally the same make way.
For huckes dawns, intolerably pale—"
"Mo; hear it out;—hear what you sent me:

"But I know the verse."

"No; hear it out;—bear what you sent me:

"And this is life? Nay, I would rather see The man who sees his soul is some wild the following the sees of the sees of "Wall, sang it, it wasn't like the last time, and you know it; you're not kind sany longer. You can be kind, can't you'?

Her lip showed faintly the curl of score.

"No, I can't be kind any longer. Oh, I see you've known your own mind so little; there's been so little depth to it all; you couldn't dare, it is see foolish to think I could show you my mind."

"But you still care for me?"

THE PLUMP AND PETITE.

Our country has many authors.
Whose books we love to read;
It also beasts of artists.
Whose spectures are fine indeed;
But, if you'll look closely, you'll in every celebrity.
Be it an artist or author,
A peculiarity,

We love Mr. "So-and-So's" latest !
The heroine is so sweet;
To look at the illustrations for the prefer treats from the state trouble
That starse at me always, so great
The girl of both artistand author
Is always tail and sim.

Oh! what can we do, my sisters, Who are under five feet three, Or, who (in horror I write it) Are nearing obesity? Is there no one to sing our praise Or to call us neat and trim? Is the always to be foremost. The girl who is tall and alim?

Yet the future must held a champion who will cry to the world: "I re The girl whom I admire Must always be plump and petite." Yes, a time must come, my sisters, When all the praises from him Will not be forever directed at Inc. Dornal II, Holiman, in Times Demo-

These Explanations.
Senator Foraker, at a dinner in Washington, quoted with a laugh an extravagant and incredible statement that he had read in a magazine. Wensome one attempted to explain, he said: some said:

"The thing is preposterous, and all the explanations in the world won't alter its preposterousness. These explainers. They are never at a loss, are they? They remind me of old James Seariett of Rainsbors.

"There was nothing which James Scariett of Rainsbors could not explain.

Scarlett of Rainshoro-could not explain.

"One winter night he was reading a volume of the Seaside Library to his family gathered about the freate. With his speciatele on his nose he droued along like this:

"Gwendone de Veer Hattings low-ered, hee linguid blue eyes, and Lord white hands in his, and crushed her to him in a passionate embrace."
"At that moment, five minutes past 12 sounded from the castle bel-fry, and-" past 12 sounce "Jut here young Miss Scarlett interrupted." No clock could strike five minutes past 12, she said. "Certainly it could, James snorted. 'It was five minutes slow."

It was five minutes slow."

"Patent Pending."

Although Miss Hobbs had lived her whole life in a New Hampshire village, she saw no resion with yet hoston should be narrowed of her circle small; relate Nouth's Companion.

At the age of sixty she was relieved of the last of her flamily cares by the death of a paralytic; she then promptly folined the Society for Disnelling Gloom, and began correspondence with eight other members in different parts of the country. She began to send orders by mail to one of the Boston shops, and at hast amounced her investion of going to the city for a day or two.

of the Boston shops, and at max and of the Boston shops, and at max and nounced her intention of going to the city for a day or two.

In the care of a Boston niece, Miss Hobbs made a tour of the abaps, but she intended to reserve her purchasing for one that 'had done so well by her through the mail.'

The got a list of things ther's advertised, appeals,' said hiss Hobbs, and when they reached the desired shops she consulted the sile of paper held tightly in her hand; then also looked hemorelonity over her glasses at the young man behind the counter.

Whereshouls skall we find that 'patent panding I see advertised on that new damainager your bluss sent may nit mitmental citizen, died, much also sheek him. The supe, a seem han an intenstiti citized, died, much also sheek him. The supe, a seem han an intenstiti citized, died, much also sheek him. The supe, a seem han an intenstiti citized, died, much also sheek him. The supe, a seem han an intenstiti citized, died, much also sheek him. The supe, a seem han an intenstiti citized, died, much also sheek him. The super hard to a blister.

Pana Merchant Dead.

Illinois State News

Recent Happenings of Interest in the Various Cities and Towns.

Bucceeds Dr. Corbus.
Dr. James L. Greene, for many ars superintendent of the Nebraska até bossital for the insane at the inh, has been anned as the successor
Dr. J. C. Corbus as superintendent the insane hospital at Kankakee,
r. Greene is a native of Indiana and
d. 3 years old, Gov. Mickey, of Nenatka, said Dr. Greene was easily is foremost alienist in the state and

DR. JAMES L. GREENE that he was recognized as one of the leaders throughout the west. Dr.
Greene has paid particular attention to finding employment certablishing a starm at the Nebranka institution twice as large as that at Kankakee, where the financial investments amount to $1,500,000 and the annual expenditure sreceds $400,000.

ILEGO,000 and the annual expenditure exceeds $400,000.

Lincoln Dynamite Outrage.
Lincoln—A dynamite bomb hurled at the Commercial bote in this city tors an immense hole in the gridner and the commercial bote in the gridner and drove the greets in a panic to the street without waiting to dress. The bomb was exploded under the window of Mrs. Viola Page, an employe of the hotel whose busband had objected to her working there. Mrs. Page had a warrant swort out for the arrest of her busband, although there is no positive evidence to indicate the isn populate of the commercial comm sen volunteered to pay the expenses and he was taken to jail.

Graduate in Meeting.

Champaign—The second session of the Graduate School of Agriculture, held at the University of Illinois under the auspices of the Association of Agricultural Colleges and Experimental Stations, has an enrollment of Staudents from 23 states from Maine to California, and as far south as Alabama. There are also three students from a letter of the states of the California and the states of the California and the states of the states of the California and the states of the state plant next year.

Xilled by Englas Explosion.
Jacksonville—A threshing engine englosed on the farm of Charles Johnson, west of the city, killing Roy Caldwell, nine years of age, fastally scalding Roy Libbey and slightly exiding three others. The cause of the explosion was probably due to a treak in the boller, allowing the water to be forced into the firebox.

to be forced into the firebox.

Child Crushed Under Car.
Galesburg.—Walle a crowd bound for Chastauqua, was clambering onto moving care the four-year-old son of Attorney C. W. Welsh was caught in the jah and thrown under a car, which crushed his life out.

Baby Fatally Burned.
Decatur.—Dolly Covey, the 1s-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Covey, was fatally burned by overturning a bottle of carbolic acid. The upper part of the child's body was burned to a blister.

Much Trouble at Tampico.

Sterling.—The return of the mayor of Tampico has resulted is more entanglements than ever. When Mayor Kemp desired to enter the city he was the control of the c

Suicide White Demented,
Suicide White Demented,
Peoria—Suffering from a sudden attack of dementa during which she wandered from home and to the railriond yards a mile away, Miss Mary Murphy, a teacher in the Peoria publiconosis, committed suicide by throwing herself under the wheels of a switch engine in the Peoria and Pekin union yards. Her head was cut off and her body otherwise mangled. No cause is, ascribed for the act except poor health.

Bucket Brigade Saves Town.
Chicago.—Formed into a bucket brigade, the citizens of Wasconda, Ill., a small summer resort, saved the village from destruetion by fire only after the flames had inflicted a money loss of more than 130,000.
Calls for help were sent to helpboring towns, but before any arrived the fire had burned itself out.

Two Killed in Preight Wreck, Harrisburg.—W. H. Wheeler of Louiavitle, Ill. was crushed to death, and James Thompson of Morris City, was probably fatally injuged in a car of number which was wrecked here. The nent were in charge of the commissary department of the Big Four construction gang, and were sleeping in the car on a side track.

Domestic Tragady at Elco.

Caira.—Beranse for the alleged accaira.—Beranse for the alleged accaira.—Beranse for the alleged acguest and the alleged accaira.—Beranse for the alleged accaira.—Beranse for the alleged accaira.—Beranse for the alleged accaira.—Beranse for the alleged abortion at his home in Eleo, the county.

It is said that Mrs. Sarah Lentz, mother of the boy, is prostrated with grief.

Alleged Wife Abandonment.
Girard.—On the complaint of his wife, Mrs. Annie Whitis, Alfred Whitis of Nilwood was arrested and brought to this city by City Marshal Robert Turner, charged with wife and child abandonment. He was bound over to ourt, Celebrate Wedding Anniversary. New Windsor.—Mr. and Mrs. Wil-iliam W. Phares, of this place, were married 60 years ago, and their chil-dren held a celebration in bonor of the event. Mr. Phares is 35 years old, while his wife is seven years younger.

Suicide Attempt Unsuccessful.
Pawnee.—Lealle Cuphers, a farm hand, unmarried, who works for Edward Jones, near this city, attempted to kill himself by slashing his throat.
He will live, it is thought he is unbalanced mentally.

Epworth League Chooses Chicago.
Danville. — The Illinois Epworth League in convention here selected Chicago as the next meeting place.
Charles W. Nella, Fairbury, was elected president.

Stroke of Paralysis Fatal.
Whitehall.—Thomas McCann, one of the best-known business men of Greene county, was stricken with paralysis at his home in this city, and

Are Parents of Triplets.
Virginia.—Mr. and Mrs. John Hol-ilday, living near Newmanville, in the eastern part of Cass county, are the parents of triplets, all girls.

Small Fire at Petersburg.

Petersburg.—Jacob Gums' reant was set on fire by sparks fireworks. The fire was extinguishefore any damage was done.

Death in Harvest Field.

Assumption—While working in the harvest field for Denis Caton, six miles west of Asumption, James Nichols, aged about 48 years, was overcome by the beat and died from the effects while in a wagon on the way to the house.

the a wagon on the way to the house.

Chicago Firm Surned Out.

Chicago Tirm Surned Out.

Chicago The piant of the H. J.

Noblett Manufacturing company, cabinet makers, was destroyed by firs.

One raillien feet of lumber stered in the rear of the factory was burned.

The loss is estimated at $150,000.