PROVED ENJOYABLE PICNIC

Salem Church Sunday School's Outing Was a Huge Success in Every Way.

The Salem church picnic was held in the beautiful camping grounds Thursday, and despite the threatening weather the attendance was very good. The Barrington Cornet Band furnished excellent music all day. All seemed to enjoy a pleasant social time. An unlimited supply of refreshment and amusement was furnished in endless variety, some features being extremely comical.

The races and contests were as follows:
 In the "hopping" races for little folks, Verdelle Richardson and Orville Melners took the prizes.
 In the "pistol" contest, Tony Melners and Luella Landwer were victors. Mrs. Frank Landwer and Miss Clara Lageschulte came out ahead and received prizes for besting their competitors in driving six 10 penny nails into a two-inch plank.

In the egg races Mrs. John Thies of Palatine, Miss Jennie Landwer and Miss Luella Landwer took the prizes. In the contest of "sock in the pot" Mrs. Emma Richardson, Mrs. Luella Gieske and Harry Landwer were the fortunate ones. Each can now have a chicken in the pot.

Miss Luella Landwer came off victor in first writing her name sitting on a jug.
 John Schaefer took the prize among the men in first threading a needle.
 In the foot races for little folks Faith Haefele, Irene Holmes, Nellie Berghorn, Pearl Kampert, Julius Melners and Edward Plagge took prizes. Julius Meier and Herbert Landwer won in the sack races.

Marguerite Boehmer and Tony Meiers came out ahead in outlasting all competitors in eating a cookie, suspended from a string.
 H. A. Schaefer proved the best sledge thrower.
 Miss Anna Bauman proved the best woodsawyer, being the first among five to saw a 2x4 piece of wood.

Ray Powers, Ruby Kampert, John Snyder and Ada Wolf won prizes in foot races for children.
 A very amusing contest to the lookers-on was the effort to reach pennies and nickels out of a dish half filled with water. These coins were picked up with the lips. The boys who succeeded diving and holding their breath came out ahead.

In the evening a large number of young people spent a few pleasant hours in a social way on the grounds.
 On the whole, the picnic was a decided success financially as well as socially.

EQUAL TO THE OCCASION

Commander H. H. Hubbard is Mistaken for Gen. Buck at the Campmeeting.

Opening day, with a flag raising at the Des Plaines camp grounds on Wednesday, the 18th inst., proved to be a very interesting occasion and an especial G. A. R. day. Veterans of the Civil war—both the Blue and the Gray—were escorted from the railway station to the platform in the large tabernacle, together with ladies of the G. A. R., including many visitors from abroad.

The program was opened with excellent singing by the St. James Sunday School chorus, led by W. G. Lucas. The flag raising was a large one—"A thing of beauty and a joy forever!" The audience was enraptured at the very commencement by a good joke in the way of "mistaken identity." Gen. F. H. Buck, Department Commander of Illinois G. A. R. was not present. Someone then pointed out to the master of ceremonies Commander H. H. Hubbard, of Sweeney Post, No. 272, as Gen. Buck; and being urged to the front and introduced, it remained only for him to explain his embarrassing position, which he did in an off hand and humorous manner amid cheers and laughter. Bishop Samuel Fallows followed with an able address, extolling the home as the place from which emanates the school, the church and the nation. Other speakers were Adj. Gen. Chas. A. Partridge, Depmt. Senior Vice Commander Wilson, Depmt. Chaplain G. R. Van Horn, Thos. Gault, Commander of Post 4, and Chief of Staff of the Commanders' Association of Cook county and Col. W. E. Poulson, Commander of Camp 8, Confederate Veterans—quite a number of his camp being present. The confederates then gave their famous "rebel yell" which was followed by a hearty union cheer. The speaking was finer, the music excellent—closing with "Nearer My God to Thee."

HELD OPEN-AIR MEETINGS

Y. M. C. A. and Churches Held Union Services at the Campmeeting Grounds Sunday.

The religious meeting at the camp grounds last Sunday afternoon and evening proved pleasing diversions to the church going people of Barrington and were well attended. Many of the young people took their luncheon with them and enjoyed it beneath the trees.

Rev. Lapham spoke in the afternoon on the great spiritual lessons to be drawn from the wonders of nature and, inspired by the nature beauties around him, kept his auditors in a delightful state of anticipation during his entire address.

Special music by the Salem Sunday school orchestra, the Misses Lee of Chicago, and a quartette from the M. E. choir added to the pleasure of the occasion.

In the evening Rev. Haefele was the speaker on his subject, "The text followed in the Young People's meeting immediately preceding, viz. "Friendship and Brotherly Love."

In a short review of church history he told how the divisions of the primary church occurred and how the various denominations had been called into existence through the often time slight differences of opinion upon some particular question.

While Mr. Haefele recognized the fact that so long as the opinions of people differed, so long there would be religious denominations. Yet he pleaded for a unity of effort and greater sympathy among members of the various churches, this he believed, would be brought about by union services, conventuals and the efforts of such organizations as the Young Men's Christian Association.

During the evening the Y. M. C. A. Quartette sang two selections in such a manner as to bring out many expressions of appreciation.

Taken as a whole the Association has reason to feel well satisfied with the result of its efforts; and while it regrets the circumstances beyond the control of either party interested which deprived it of the co-operation of Rev. Phelps and his people, it feels that something has been accomplished in the uniting of the church people of Barrington.

More meetings of the same character are promised during the summer.

GAME WAS WELL PLAYED

Was Exciting from Beginning to the Finish—Score Was 2 to 0 in Favor of Visitors.

The ball game at the Y. M. C. A. park last Saturday afternoon between the Y. M. C. A. and Carpentersville teams demonstrated a marked improvement in the quality of ball the people of Barrington are used to.

Through seven hard fought innings the score hung at 1 to 0 in favor of the visitors; the single cleanly earned in the opening round being the net result of inning after inning played in professional style.

In the 8th, a wild throw was promptly taken advantage of by a Carpentersville youth, erstwhile held in abeyance at 3rd, to scamper home, thereby adding another tally to the meager stock.

During the remainder of the game both sides were unable to score, although several times an error or a safe hit would have changed the result of the game.

Some of the features were the fielding of Waterman at center, clean pickups by Sott at 3rd, the pitching of Landwer and Donegan. Donegan deserves more than passing mention. While young in age he is a strong and careful player. He contributed his full share to the victory of the visiting team.

Among the amusing features was the muff by Polly Bowers. Entirely confident of his ability to field a high fly he ran back from second to short center only to allow the ball to bound out of his hands.

Chas. Hatchison and Freeman of Carpentersville officiated as umpires and were entirely impartial in their decisions.

Next week Crystal Lake will play Barrington a return game on the local grounds and a good game is promised. If you enjoy a good game of ball encourage the sport by turning out to these games. The boys are all working hard and deserve a liberal patronage.

And They Wonder That the Letter Never Came.

Considerable unnecessary trouble is being made Postmaster Brockway by thoughtless people, who simply put on the box number without the number of the route. There being four routes running out of this office, and each one having boxes numbered from 1 to 80 and the local office also having the same numbers it sometimes is a hard matter to determine the right person for whom the mail is intended. Address your letters plainly and add the route number.
