VOL. 22. NO. 22.

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS, FRIDAY, JULY 27, 1906

HAS ROMANCE IN REAL LIFE

Ray. Loco, a Former Barrington Boy, Meets His Fate in Indiana.

The following taken from the Index-Republican of Bellefontaine, Ohio, explains itself:

The splutter and glare of the gasoline torch and the general excitement and free life which is peculiar to the circus appeals strangely to some and to Bessie Acres, aged 18, the charming daughter of Contractor and Mrs. Douglas Acres, of Lebanon, Ind., it had a fascination.

Bessie Acres was a belle in the Indiana town where her parents are prominent in both business and social life. When the Carnival Company came along about a month ago and the tents were pitched in Lebanon, Miss Bessie was among a party of young folks who visited the shows and were particularly entertained by the "Rube" actor, who sang a song, gave a monologue, and generally made himself useful.

The comedian's name was Ray Loco and after an introduction to Miss Bessie, it was a case of love at first sight. The parents of Miss Acres said nothing for they didn't know, and if they had it wouldn't have made the slightest difference.

There were long walks, delightful peeps behind the scenes where show life and its wonderful mysteries were revealed.

Mr. Loco was the principal "spiceler" or announcer for the "Escaped From Sing Sing" attraction. When he talked from the platform he talked mostly to Miss Bessie, who was generally in the assembly.

Three weeks passed. A part of the Carnival Company came to Bellefontaine the other day and tents were pitched on south Main. There was also a merry-go-round. Miss Bessie evidently missed her admirer, for when a message came to her she just packed up and came to this city, too.

On Friday Miss Acres and Mr. Loco, the man who is paid to make people laugh, repaired to the home of Rev. Jesse Swank, where they were made man and wife. Friends of Mr. Loco who were connected with the shows went along and acted as witnesses. "Isn't she a peach?" said Mr. Loco last evening, when in paint and powder he found time to talk to the reporter.

"It was a case of love at first sight and we would never have been happy apart. We will remain with the Carnival show and expect to tour the south this winter. My wife will go into the show business with me."

Then he stepped out in front and surpassed himself in entertaining, for he was happy. The merry-go-round "lovers' tub" and all were well patronized last evening and with difficulty was Mrs. Loco found. She was enjoying the merry-go-round seated on a painted horse. She has a wealth of golden hair and big blue eyes.

"We sent word to my folks today," said she, "that we had been married. Then she shook her head and laughed, for her husband in his "rube" costume had climbed onto the merry-go-round followed by an army of small boys, just to see how she liked to ride.

And no one in all that big crowd but the newspaper man knew what the attraction was. The showmen, however, understand and sympathized, for Loco was not supposed to leave the "Escaped From Sing Sing" show just when business was rushing.

Attend the Woodmen picnic at Barrington on Aug. 1.

HE IS A MANAGER NOW

Charles Beinhoff Takes Charge of Cleveland Branch of Big Packing Plant.

Charles Beinhoff of Cleveland, Ohio, made a short visit to his parents here Tuesday. "Charley" on Monday takes charge of Nelson Morris' Cleveland branch as manager. It is quite an honor for a young man to be elevated over a large number of employees, some of them having been in the employ of the firm for over thirty years, but it only goes to show that true grit, honesty and hustle will win out every time. There is no question but what Mr. Beinhoff will "make good," and his many Barrington friends feel proud of his achievements.

Olympic Club Entertains

On Saturday evening the Olympic Club gave the first of its series of Saturday evening entertainments. It is proposed to have something doing at the new club house every Saturday evening. The program of the last entertainment received such applause as will indicate that the fifteen cents admission charged, and which includes ice cream, was satisfactory. We would suggest that the clubhouse verandah be screened in before the next ice cream entertainment, as the combination of shade flies and ice cream is not altogether pleasing. On Saturday evening, July 28, a gentleman's evening will be the feature. Some refreshments will be served, and each club member is invited to bring a guest.

He Knows Whereof He Speaks

Jefferson City, Mo., July 18.—Governor Joseph W. Folk, in addressing the retail merchants of Missouri at their convention here yesterday, spoke against the mail order business and favored advertising in the town papers. He said:

We are proud of our splendid cities, and we want them to increase in wealth and population, but we also want our country towns to grow. We wish the city merchants to build up, but we also desire the country merchants to prosper. I do not believe in the mail order citizen. If a place is good enough for a man to live in and to make his money in, it is good enough for him to spend his money.

No merchant can succeed without advertising in one way or another. Patronize your town papers, build them up, and they will build the town up and build you up increased trade and greater opportunities. Do not be afraid that business is going to be hurt by the recent exposures of wrongdoing in the commercial world. No man who is doing an honest business can be injured by the light. All business will be better for it, cleanliness ofness it is going through and for the stamping out of evil."

Was Well Played.

Wauconda and Barrington broke even in a Tennis tournament on the latter's courts last Friday afternoon. Play was started at 8:12 and brought together E. L. Harrison and Rev. F. N. Latham for Singles, and Drs. Simmons and Shearer vs. D. L. Brown and L. E. Matman for Doubles. Harrison, the Wauconda Champion, won over his Barrington opponent, the opening game going to deuce just 12 times before Wauconda's representative finally tied it down. The Doubles were also very interesting and brought out fine bits of team-work on both sides. The "Does" captured the first set 6-2, lost the second 6-4, took the third 6-4, lost the fourth 6-4, and finally won the event by walking off with the last 6-2. A return match is to be arranged soon.

Nick Baker and Max Naggetz Took Charge of the Business Tuesday.

Ed Peters, for years one of the leading livery men of Barrington, on Tuesday sold the business to Max Naggetz and Nick Baker. Mr. Peters intends to take a long rest before deciding what to do. He retains the building, and tonight said to a Review reporter: "I desire you to publicly thank the 'boys' of Barrington for the liberal patronage and courtesies extended me during my long years of business life in their midst. I have been particularly fortunate in holding my trade, and while I have always tried to give value received, I realize that I am under deep obligations to the citizens of Barrington, and all I can say for is for them to give the new boys the same kind of encouragement that I have received in the past. Messrs. Naggetz and Baker are gentlemen who will give value received for any favors shown them."

SALEM CHURCH NOTES.

Where is Salem Park? has frequently been asked. It is in the rear of the Salem church. It is the park to be and not so much the park that is. Trees are planted, a few being already of fair size. Driveways kept clean and the grass kept mowed.

Services in Salem Park on last Sunday evening were attended by 200 persons. The song service was good and the boys' orchestra helped to swell the chorus.

We aim to begin services at 7:30 and close at 8:30. Seats will be provided for about 100 more this coming Sunday evening. In case of storm the church will be used. Come one, come all.

The W. M. S. of the Salem church had their annual singing in Lord's Park, Elgin. About 70 attended. Dinner was served in the basement of Lord's Pavilion. It was a merry crowd and all enjoyed the ride and the social time.

The children who were present enjoyed seeing the animals in the park. The keepers took a grand daughter of Mrs. Grabenkort, into the 'den of bears' and placed her on the back of one, and her picture was taken.

Many visited friends while there and a few took a view of the Elgin Hospital for weak-minded persons. Supper was served from 5 to 6 p. m., and by 9 o'clock were again safely landed in Barrington. Our other ladies know how to have a good time and they had it.

WILL BE CLOSED.

The business houses of Barrington will be closed from 10 to 3 o'clock on next Wednesday, Aug. 1st, to give their clerks a chance to enjoy the Woodmen picnic. Everybody turn out and help the Woodmen boys make the day a memorable one.
