

ALD. ROBERTSON IS DEAD

Another Good Plan is Removed From Our Midst by the Death of Silas Robertson Wednesday Morning.

Died, Wednesday morning, at 8 o'clock, Mr. Silas Robertson.

A man of few words, but possessing the qualities that endeared him to all who had the pleasure of meeting him, better describes Silas Robertson's character than columns of obituary.

Silas Robertson was not a "mixer," but whoever enjoyed his friendship could bank on a friend—whether in need of one or not.

The deceased was a man who strictly followed the golden rule: "Do unto others as you would be done by." He did not seek political office of his own choice, but his fellow citizens, recognizing the fact that the interests of the community would be guarded more securely by having men in charge who could not be influenced by prejudice, prevailed on him to sacrifice his personal interests and accept one office after another, and he filled those offices in a manner which entitles his friends to point to his record with pride and proclaim: "He did well." No trust placed in him was ever violated.

Mr. Robertson was born February 12, 1847, on the old home east of Deer Grove. He followed farming practically all his life, only removing to Barrington in order to give his children the advantages of an education. He was married in May, 1873, to Alida Alexander, who died December 8, 1900. Seven children blessed this union, as follows: Lloyd, now located on a ranch in Arkansas; Rose, now Mrs. Dr. Black of Palestine, Myrtle, now Mrs. Chas. Hutchinson; Ethel, the wife of Ray Cannon; Mina, now Mrs. Royden Meyer; Ira and Joe, these two making their home with their father.

Mr. Robertson always had been in good health until a week ago last Sunday, when he returned from a trip to his brother's ranch with an attack of malaria typhoid.

The funeral will be held at the residence Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, and interment will be in Evergreen cemetery.

One-Sided Game.

The game of ball between the Arlington Heights and Palatine teams at the Old Settlers' picnic at Schaumburg, last Sunday, proved a decided one-sided game, the Palatine boys fairly winning the game by a walk away. Seven innings were played, and the score resulted 7 to 3. The features were two double plays by Palatine. The line-up was as follows: Palatine—Catcher, Harris; pitcher, Kraft; 1st base, Odell; 2d base, C. Schering; short stop, F. Schering; 3d base, Butler; left fielder, Jones; center field, Wiseman; right field, Chas. Seip.

Barrington, Ill., August 15th, 1906.

To the Editor: Believing there is a misconception in regard to the Canada Thistle law (Act of 1903) being held unconstitutional by the supreme court of the State of Illinois, in its decision in The People ex rel. N. V. C. Hooten vs. The Board of Commissioners of Cook County, et al. Opinion filed April 7th, 1906, permit me to say, through the columns of your valuable home paper, that the point involved was Section 9 of Article 9 of the Constitution, treating of local improvements by special assessment or taxation, and the supreme court held that the law was not within the exception in favor of local improvements. The action was brought by the Canada Thistle Commissioner of the City of Chicago, who attempted by mandamus, to force the County Board of Cook County to pay him a large amount of money for his labor in trying to exterminate Canada thistles and noxious weeds in the City of Chicago. Yours most truly, L. H. B.

Mr. Vera Postel is enjoying a two week's vacation. He is spending it with relatives and friends in Dakota and Minnesota.

The annual picnic of the M. E. Sunday school was held last Saturday on the grounds of Mr. and Mrs. John Robertson at Lake Zurich and a most enjoyable affair it was.

First of all the weather was ideal; then the attendance was the largest in recent years, two big haystacks being required to carry all the children and a big bus for the older ones, to say nothing of the numberless private conveyances which filled the beautiful grounds with animated childhood intent on enjoyment in the fullest possible measure.

While the children sought the deep woods or lake shore the older members brought out the baskets and soon a diversified but ample picnic dinner was spread beneath the trees.

As the dinner call was sent out the floods of desire abated for cracker jack to the mouth of the small boy.

It was a happy though tired crowd that wended its way, singing homeward, that evening.

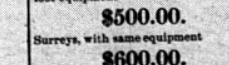

And another milestone was passed.
