Frank Wolthausen, a former Barrington merchant, whose establishment was located in the building now occupied by the postoffice, was in Barrington Sunday visiting his many friends. Mr. Wolthausen is now engaged in the mercantile business in Duluth, Minn., and reports that he is meeting with great success. The gentleman's hosts of friends here are pleased to hear this good news, as he is a hustler and deserves success.

On Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m., Rev. Guy Phelps of Portland, Oregon, the Evangelist who is meeting with such success in the union revival meetings being held in the churches south of the C. & N. W. railway tracks, will make for his subject "What is Man?" The meeting will be held in the village hall, and all boys and men are cordially invited. The gentleman is a forceful speaker. He does not mince words—a member of the "upper ten" looks no better to him than the lowest of the "lower five." All who attend the meeting may rest assured they will hear something of interest and of benefit to themselves.

An Engine Without An Engineer.

An I. H. C. Gasoline Engine
 does not require an engineer to run it. It is so simple and practical in construction that it requires very little attention and is easily operated by anyone.

An I. H. C. Gasoline Engine
 runs smoothly and produces more power than rated. It is very economical in the use of fuel, consuming less per horse power than any other engine of the same rated capacity.

An I. H. C. Gasoline Engine
 is a wise investment. It saves time and money, and increases your profit as a result of the increased production. No progressive farmer can afford to be without an I. H. C. engine. There is one to fit your special need.

Made in the following styles and sizes:
 Vertical—2, 3 and 6 horse power.
 Horizontal—4, 6, 8, 10, 12 and 15 horse power.
 Portable—4, 6, 8, 10, 12 and 15 horse power.
