A number of the leading newspa-pers on this side of the line have been noticing the growth of the Canadian West in recent years, and draw atten-tion to the fact that there seems to be so abstement of the influx of settlers to that great grain-growing country. The Buffalo Express thus refers to the Proper Eyeglasses.

Everyone who knows that in using a field glass it is necessary to adjust it to a proper focus. Suppose that you put one of the tubes at your focus and the other tube at a focus that suited some one eise and then you looked through both tubes. You should have a more or less blurred vision, and if you kept on looking the chances are that you would feel giddy and get a heedache. Now, the two eyes are supposed to have an equal natural focus, and when by any chance that focus is unequal a headache results. The remedy is a pair of glasses or a single glass to make the eyes equal in power.

Museum Gets Fine Pulpit.

King Priederich August of Sarony has given to the Germanie museum at Harrard a full-size reproduction of the sandstone pulpit of the Church of Wechselburg, near Lelpie. This girt is regarded as the most important made to the museum since the fine collection of casts was sent by the German emperor. The pulpit belongs to the beginning of the thirteenth century, and is a mastive structure, 15 feet high, resting on Roman-seque columns.

Unknown Qualities of Radium,

May Throw Light en History.
While excitement regarding the Hohenlohe memoirs is still rife in Europe, there is subdued talk in British military circles regarding the forthcoming appearance of a book which will contain some of the late duke of Cambridge's voluminous correspondence. A diary kept by Emperor Frederick of Germany is in safekeeping in England and the day may not be far distant when it also will be published. Correct answers to numerous historical enigmas may be expected from such a publication.

Man Cured by Cutteurs.

"I suffered with humor for about three years off and on. I finally, saw a doctor and he gave me remedies that did me no good, so I tried Cutteurs when the same raw as piece of beef. All I used was the Cutteurs Soap and the Ontment. I bathed with Cutteurs Soap every day, and used about six or seven boxes of Cutteurs Offinment. I was throughly cured of the humor in three weeks, and haven't been affected with it since. I use no other Soap than Cutteurs now. H. J. Myers, U. S. N. U. S. S. Newark, New York, July 8, 1905."

Sympathy Not Needed.

Dr. Pridtjof Nansen, Norway's famous arctic explorer, now minister to Gerat Britain, makes light of the sympathy expressed by many persons anent the "bardships" of travelers. Ho says: "There never was such misplaced sympathy as commiserating a man who has lived in the wilds. Most men who travel in outlo-the-way parts of the world do so because they like it. People who live in the center of what is called civilization do not understand, cannot realize, the spell that getting close to nature, battling with nature, has on the heart." He does not believe in the use of alcoholic beverages, holding that while liquor will raise the temperature for a few misutes, after that it falls lower than before.

NO MEDICINE.

But Change of Food Gave Final Relief.

Most diseases start in the alimentary canal—stomach and bowels.

A great deal of our stomach and bowel troubles come from eating too much starchy and greasy food.

The stomach does not digest any of the starchy food we eat—white bread, pastry, potatoes, cats, etc.—these things are digested in the small intestings and if we eat to much as most three and if we eat to much as most things are digested in the smart intentions, and if we eat too much, as most of us do, the organs that should digest this kind of food are overcome by excess of work, so that fermentation, indigestion, and a long train of us do, the organs that should di-gest this kind of food are overcome by excess of work, so that fermenta-tion, indigestion, and a long train of alls result.

Too much fat also is hard to digest, and this is changed into acids, sour stomach, beloing gas, and a bloaty, heavy feeling.

In these conditions a change from indigestible foods to Grape-Nuts will work wonders in not only relieving the distress but in building up a strong digestion, clear brain and steady nerves.

A Wash, woman writes:

strong digestion, clear brain and steady nerves. A Wash woman writes:

"About five years ago I suffered with bad stomach—drspepala, indigestion, constipation—caused, I know now, from eating starchy and greasy food." I doctored for two years without any benefit. The doctor told me there was no cure for me. I could not eat anything without suffering severe pain in my back and sides, and I became discouraged.

"A friend recommended Grape-Nuts and I began to use it. In less that two weeks I began to feel better, and inside of two months I was a well woman and have been ever since.

"I can eat anything I wish with pleasure. We eat Grape-Nuts and cream for breakfand, and are very fond of it." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Hard the little book, "The Road to Wellville," In paga. "There's a reason."
