

M. T. LAMMY, Ed. and Pub.

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS

WOMEN'S PARAGRAPHS

J. F. Wenick, formerly of Chicago, committed suicide in a lonely cabin near Lincoln, Mont. his body being hanging to a rafter.

In a railway collision near Maurice Station, Ky., Engineer Peter Murphy and Fireman Joseph Stout were killed and five persons were injured.

Sheriff Anton Meston of St. Paul, Minn., faces loss of his job for violating the law in permitting a newspaper man to witness the hanging of William Williams.

After ten years of litigation George J. Cane of Boston was awarded $7,500 at Cambridge, Mass., in suit to recover $22,216 for services as financial agent to the late Gen. Benjamin F. Butler.

The steamer Texan is afloat at the dock in Honolulu, and as the hold is full of lime the more water is poured in the worse the fire gets. Damage estimated at $25,000 has been done to the cargo, and it is feared the boat will be burned.

Charles L. Stanton, charged with conspiracy in the location of federal buildings, took the stand in his own defense in his trial at Joplin, Mo., and denied knowledge of same, being raised to influence the selection of sites in Missouri and Arkansas.

A bill in equity for an order to compel the American Telephone and Telegraph company to account for all the property it has received from the DeForest Wireless Telegraph company and for the profits has been filed in the United States court in Portland, Me.

Gustav Eckhoff, a farmer, was instantly killed in a runaway at Mantowoc, Wis. Eckhoff was thrown under the wheels of his heavy wagon.

Joseph Arthur, the playwright, is seriously ill in New York, following an operation for a lesion in both kidneys. The operation was apparently successful and hopes of a patient's recovery are entertained.

The state senate at Des Moines, Iowa, killed a measure requiring teachers to give notice of their intention to wear under penalty of losing their certificates.

Daniel Leads was burned to death at St. Albans, Vt., in a fire that destroyed the Lewis building, the Baptist church, several stores and three dwellings, causing a loss of $60,000.

Midshipman Minor Meriwether of the United States Naval academy who was sentenced after being court-martialed to expulsion from the academy for having been pardoned by President Roosevelt.

In the trial of Greene and Gaynor, charged with fraud in government contracts at Savannah, Ga., Maj. Ogle testified that the defendants had put in brush mattresses in their work where the specifications called for log mattresses and had charged the government for the work which was double the price of brush.

Burnard V. Carabur, a switchman, was granted a temporary restraining order against Patrick J. Hughes, a lawyer leader in Kansas City, enjoining him from prosecuting a suit in a justice court in North Chicago to recover an alleged loan. Carabur says he borrowed $80 from Hughes, but repaid him, and the latter is seeking unscrupulous interest. Hughes has been sentenced to jail for usury.

Rev. Washington Gladden, moderator of the Congregational church, 28, 1907. It contained a list of letters from all over the country on the occasion of his seventieth birthday Monday.

Orders have been issued assigning Gen. Baldwin to the command of the Appaloosa at Quartz, Colo., by a cavalerist of the northwestern army, Feb. 5, were rescued after having been in the tunnel without food for more than 100 hours.

Judge Alton B. Parker and family have secured a home on Quil beach, Pass Christian, La., and will live there for the remainder of the winter.

The Librarians' International association at Buffalo elected J. W. Hamilton of St. Louis president and Albert C. Brock of Chicago vice president. The next convention will be held at Cleveland.

The student volunteer movement for foreign missions, with about 3,000 delegates, representatives of colleges, religious and missionary life, met in state in the union and many nations of the world, will meet in Nashville, Feb. 12.

In a pistol duel at Maud, Okla., "Vic" Chambers was killed and Town Marshal Thomas Dancer fatally wounded.

Tom Sabath and Gertrude Buvoich, who had been imprisoned in the Appaloosa at Quartz, Colo., by a cavalerist of the northwestern army, were rescued after having been in the tunnel without food for more than 100 hours.

Judge Alton B. Parker and family have secured a home on Quil beach, Pass Christian, La., and will live there for the remainder of the winter.

The Librarians' International association at Buffalo elected J. W. Hamilton of St. Louis president and Albert C. Brock of Chicago vice president. The next convention will be held at Cleveland.

LATEST CASH MARKET REPORTS

Chicago Produce. Butter—Butter, creamery, 24c; printed, 25c; packing, 26c; whole, 27c. Eggs—Fresh stock at market, new cases, 28c; old, 29c; cases returned, 30c. Corn—No. 2, 95c; No. 3, 90c; No. 4, 85c. Wheat—No. 1, 1.25; No. 2, 1.20; No. 3, 1.15; No. 4, 1.10. Oats—No. 1, 75c; No. 2, 70c; No. 3, 65c; No. 4, 60c. Beans—No. 1, 1.00; No. 2, 95c; No. 3, 90c; No. 4, 85c. Pork—No. 1, 12.00; No. 2, 11.50; No. 3, 11.00; No. 4, 10.50. Lard—No. 1, 10.00; No. 2, 9.50; No. 3, 9.00; No. 4, 8.50. Tallow—No. 1, 8.00; No. 2, 7.50; No. 3, 7.00; No. 4, 6.50.

Grain Quotations. Chicago—No. 2, 95c; No. 3, 90c; No. 4, 85c. St. Louis—No. 2, 95c; No. 3, 90c; No. 4, 85c. Kansas City—No. 2, 95c; No. 3, 90c; No. 4, 85c. Omaha—No. 2, 95c; No. 3, 90c; No. 4, 85c. Des Moines—No. 2, 95c; No. 3, 90c; No. 4, 85c. Minneapolis—No. 2, 95c; No. 3, 90c; No. 4, 85c.

Live Stock. Chicago—Cattle, 1.00; Hogs, 8.00; Sheep, 6.00; Poultry, 5.00; Butter, 10.00; Eggs, 20.00; Lard, 10.00; Tallow, 8.00; Corn, 95c; Wheat, 1.25; Oats, 75c; Beans, 1.00; Pork, 12.00; Lard, 10.00; Tallow, 8.00.

House Adopts Resolution Naming Members of the Committee on the Judiciary. The House adopted a resolution naming the following as members of the committee on the judiciary: Messrs. Clegg, Cramer, and Keogh.

M. Fallers has resigned the presidency of the French senate and also his senatorship as preliminaries to taking up the duties of president of the republic on Sunday next.

Secretary Taft has agreed to deliver a series of four lectures in the Dodge series before Yale university next April at Hartford, Conn., and also at New Haven, Conn.

George Smith, an Austrian, was sentenced to the Ohio penitentiary for life for the murder of William Bradley in Columbus, Ohio.

Rev. David Gregg, president of the Western Theological seminary at Pittsburg, Pa., is seriously ill with pneumonia at his home at Allegheny.

Dr. Gregg assumed the presidency of the seminary about a year ago.

James Sears, 72 years old, hanged himself at Berkley, Ind., because he feared an injury just received would make him a cripple. His father hanged himself several years ago.

Rev. Father John P. Leary, chaplain in chief of the G. A. R., is dangerously ill with pneumonia at his home in Chapman.

Peter Heitzelman while engaged in steading a large stick of timber for a pile driver was instantly killed at Minneapolis at his home, a slip so bad he fell on his head upon the pile.

Mrs. C. M. Hulse, a widow, formerly of Circleville, Ohio, fell to her death from a first-story window of an Ithaca hotel at Ithaca, N. Y., while leaning out to get fresh air.

The formal opening of the Jamestown exposition has been set for April 28, 1907. It contained a list of letters from all over the country on the occasion of his seventieth birthday Monday.

Twenty-one bodies have been recovered from the Parral mine in Fayette county, West Virginia, and it is supposed that only one body remains to be recovered, making the total fatalities twenty-two.

John L. Doyle, managing partner of the stock and grain brokerage firm of P. R. Fahney & Co., which recently suspended, was arraigned in court at Cleveland on an indictment charging him with operating a bucket shop.

As the result of a break in the large gas main of the Peoples' Natural gas company near the West Virginia state line, in Greene county, Pennsylvania, was killed, and another seriously injured and a shortage of gas caused in Pittsburg. Several of the large downtown buildings in Pittsburg were left without electric service.

The sovereign grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows will meet in Toronto next September. The executive committee has decided to appropriate $12,000 for the entertainment of the delegates. Two thousand delegates will be set aside for prizes for competition in degree work.

Martin Willis of St. Louis has been elected president of the Builders' Supply association at a meeting in Philadelphia.

James A. Wright, formerly of the International Mercantile Marine company, is seriously ill in New York with pneumonia.

The trial of George W. Beavers, former State Senator George E. Green of Binghamton, N. Y., and W. D. Dorning of New York, was adjourned in connection with the trial of postal contracts has been postponed until Feb. 18.

HIDDEN PUZZLE PICTURE.

BAER STIRS UP OF LAWMAKERS Pennsylvania Solons Quickly Reply to His Public Statement.

House Adopts Resolution Naming Members of the Committee on the Judiciary. The House adopted a resolution naming the following as members of the committee on the judiciary: Messrs. Clegg, Cramer, and Keogh.

San Diego, Cal., special: It is stated on what is believed to be good authority that a condition of mutiny existed among the sailors of the cruiser Marbatou when she was on her recent trip in the Pacific.

San Francisco to Electric Line and Rebuild it. San Francisco, Cal. dispatch: Mayor E. T. Schmitz has given notice that he will have the Green Street railway, the franchise of which has lapsed, seized by the city next Monday.

CLASS PRESIDENT IS KIDNAPED Kalamazoo College Students Make Threat to Quit if Punished. Kalamazoo, Mich., special: A clash threatened at Kalamazoo college which may result in the entire second-year class leaving the institution.

BRYAN RESIGNS FROM SCHOOL Quits Illinois College Because It Took Money From Carnegie. Jacksonville, Ill., special: William J. Bryan, writing from Hong Kong, Kenkake in his resignation as trustee of Illinois college, declaring that he would not serve a school where the board of trustees was in favor of accepting money from Carnegie or other trust magnates who are attempting to subsidize the colleges of America.

Waters of Kanakake to Be Turned Into Wash Instead of Tiling. La Porte, Ind., special: Large owners of lands along the Kanakake river will divert the flood waters of the Kanakake into a Pequotian river, whereby a more rapid and thorough discharge may be had and much damage to crops averted.

Dedicate Gavel to Lincoln. Washington, D. C., special: A new gavel was dedicated to the memory of Abraham Lincoln by Speaker Cannon Monday in opening the House, and the birthday of the martyred President was remembered in the prayer of the chaplain.

Richmond, Va. dispatch: The revival conducted in Abbeville, S. C., by Rev. C. R. Scoville of Chicago is one of the most successful on record. There have been 500 conversions.

Congressional Proceedings

Thursday, February 6, 1907. The Senate today passed the bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which provides that the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller shall be exempt from the payment of the estate tax.

Friday, February 7, 1907. The Senate today passed the bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which provides that the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller shall be exempt from the payment of the estate tax.

Saturday, February 8, 1907. The Senate today passed the bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which provides that the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller shall be exempt from the payment of the estate tax.

Sunday, February 9, 1907. The Senate today passed the bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which provides that the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller shall be exempt from the payment of the estate tax.

Monday, February 10, 1907. The Senate today passed the bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which provides that the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller shall be exempt from the payment of the estate tax.

Tuesday, February 11, 1907. The Senate today passed the bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which provides that the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller shall be exempt from the payment of the estate tax.

Wednesday, February 12, 1907. The Senate today passed the bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which provides that the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller shall be exempt from the payment of the estate tax.

Thursday, February 13, 1907. The Senate today passed the bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which provides that the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller shall be exempt from the payment of the estate tax.

Friday, February 14, 1907. The Senate today passed the bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which provides that the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller shall be exempt from the payment of the estate tax.

Saturday, February 15, 1907. The Senate today passed the bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which provides that the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller shall be exempt from the payment of the estate tax.

DEATH SEEMED NEAR.

How a Chicago Woman Found Help When Hope Was Fast Fading Away. Mrs. E. T. Gould, 914 W. Lake Street, Chicago, Ill., says: 'Dona's Kidney Pills are all that saved me from death of Bright's Disease, that I had eye trouble, backache, catches when lying down, or when standing over, was languid and often dizzy with my name and had sick headaches and bearing down pains. The Kidney Pills were a blessing as they relieved me of all these troubles and I have been ever since.' Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

No Joke to Him. 'My dear,' said Mrs. Stronge, 'I'm sure that our George is thinking surely of matrimony.' 'Well, I only hope so,' returned her husband, 'with unusual spirit. I wouldn't like any boy of mine to regard it as a joke.'—Stray Stories.

Garfield Tea. Mild Laxative. Regulate the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Bowels, cure all Constipation and Sick Headache. Send this notice with your name and address to the writer of this notice to the following address: Garfield Tea Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Send no sample package. Sold at all drug stores. Send us the name of your druggist.

No one can read the financial news of the day and dodge the impression that outside of Pittsburg and New York there isn't enough money to tempt an ordinary book agent.

Sensible Housekeepers will have had their minds made up because they get one-third more for their money, but also because of superior quality.

King Christian died poor. He should have consulted King Leopold.

To CURE A COLIC IN ONE DAY THE LAXATIVE BROMO QUINA TABLETS. Drug Store everywhere. It is safe and sure. Send for a sample on each box.

England published 6,718 new books last year. Who read 'em?

When You Buy Staruch. Buy Dufrance and get the best. 10c. for 10 cents. Once used, always used. The honest grifter is a foeman worthy of his steel.

Pink's Cure for Constipation is an infallible medicine for constipation. N. W. RUMALD, Oconomowoc, Wis., Feb. 7, 1907.

Advertisement for Lane's Family Medicine, featuring an illustration of a woman and child, and text describing the medicine's benefits for various ailments.