LAKE ZURICH NEWS.

Wm Toume went to Waukegan Tuesday.

Herbert Heifer filled his 4000 lbs. this week.

Miss Emma Seip spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of her parents. You can get McCall patterns and fashion books at Ahlgrim & Co., 601 W. W. Highway.

Go to W. H. Ahlgrim & Co. to pick up your spring suit or overcoat. They have samples of the latest.

Fred Pepper, who had his finger bitten by a cat, had to go to Chicago and have a second operation on it.

Mr. and Mrs. Ave Lothman were pleasantly surprised Sunday evening by a party of friends and neighbors.

All had a good time. Mr. Lothman will soon move to Young's farm, and this week their farewell party.

A very interesting debate was given by the pupils of the school Friday afternoon, Feb. 22. They will attend a banquet at the Sherman house.

About twenty-five from here attended the Lake Zurich school basket social last Saturday evening. The girls' Cadet Band furnished music for the occasion, and they also took along baskets which were at a premium when offered at auction. All report a most enjoyable time.

The auction held on Monday by August Miller and that held Thursday by Geo. Hager were well attended and the articles sold netted a good price. The miller sale totaled over $3,000, and Hager's sale over $1,000. The Peters real estate auction, Wm. Peters made his talk count, as usual.

Don't forget the Odd Fellows' entertainment at Odd Fellows' hall, Thursday evening, Feb. 22d. Something good, something rare.

The case of Spenser vs. Frank Nagel, to recover for repairing well on Spenser's property while Nagel was a tenant on same, and which was tried by a jury before Justice Alverson Saturday, was decided in favor of Mr. Nagel.

Chas. C. Jones, general agent for J. S. Ziegler Co. of Chicago, wishes a local representative for Barrington and vicinity. Write to Mr. Jones at office and leave name. If you are looking for a paying position investigate this.

The honor roll of the Barrington public school for the month of January will appear in our next issue, owing to lack of space and time this week. An account of the meeting of the school directors for Lake county, held at Libertyville, will also appear next week.

A dime social will be given at the home of Mrs. Sizer Feb. 20, at 7:30 sharp, for the benefit of the Baptist Dorcas Society. Everybody is cordially invited to be present. Come and have a good time.

Ed Bauman has just received and has on exhibition in his shop in the rear of the postoffice building the latest and best washing machine ever offered for sale. It saves much time and labor.

Ray Fabricz, pur night watchman, is suffering from a severe attack of laryngitis since Sunday. "Skip" West and "Jack" Westphal have alternated in keeping the boys in the "night" path.

Miss Johanna S. Alexander, a graduate of the Chicago Art Institute, will give lessons in water colors, oil and china painting, every Saturday. For further particulars inquire of Miss Connetta Thorp, Barrington, Ill.

Mrs. Lapham, wife of the pastor of the M.E. church at Barrington, called upon Mrs. Z. H. Osmun Wednesday. Mrs. Lapham's sister, widow of the Rev. H. Stinger, being elder of the First Church district, Chicago, and her four children, were with her. Mrs. Stinger has just returned from China to her home in the United States. Educate her children.—Nunda Herald.

A road sensible agent for the past fifteen years for the "Great Migration Line," escorted William Tegtmeier and Mr. Seaver of Palatine to Iowa, and after they inspected the machinery they were so much pleased with the same that Mr. Seaver had no trouble to sell them an entire threshing outfit consisting of a 17-horse power engine, separator, stacker and feeder.

On Monday evening of this week Mrs. Clara Knodt entertained at a club party sixteen of her younger set, including the eight young ladies of the "Fuchsia Actin" club. The evening was most happily spent and a luncheon was served. The young men and women appreciate, as do a vast number of their elders.

Saturday, Feb. 17th, a surprise party was tendered to Miss Lawrence by a lot of her parents at Spring Lake. Dancing was the feature of the evening, and everyone enjoyed a jolly and happy time. The party was strictly private. All left with the hope of soon again receiving an invitation to the Lawrence Hall.
