VOL. 22. NO. 6.

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS, FRIDAY, MARCH 30, 1906.

$1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

MUCH MONEY FOR MISSIONS

What the United Evangelical Church Conference Did at Freeport.

BY SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.

The Illinois Conference of the United Evangelical Church closed its annual session at Freeport, Illinois, on Tuesday morning of this week. A great deal of business was transacted. At this annual session a definite report is made of every congregation within the conference. Each charge or field of labor, whether a circuit, station or mission, is entitled to a lay delegate, making the conference a truly representative body of the clergy and lay members of the church. At this conference fourteen delegates to the General Conference, which meets in Des Moines, Iowa, next October, were elected.

At the missionary meeting on Wednesday afternoon, March 21, it was ascertained that a larger sum of money for the mission work of the conference was contributed during the year than ever before. These offerings prove the spirit of Christian socialism prevailing. Since a larger number of small congregations would find it a great burden to build on next week's session, it was decided to request their pastor a rule has been established ordering subscriptions to be lifted on every charge, and the money thus secured is given in proportion to their needs to the weaker congregation.

The Barrington congregation has for many years raised the largest sum of any congregation for this special purpose, and has contributed $415 this year, but Hampshire won the race at this session, having raised above $500.

The moral and official conduct of every charge is usually investigated, and no guilty man would be allowed to escape. Not a word of complaint was heard against one of the sixty-five charges present.

The statistical report of all the charges shows a healthy growth in membership and finances, some charges having had remarkable success.

The position taken by the conference in favor of the anti-saloon movement and Sabbath observance is strong and radical. Not a dissenting voice was heard. Strong resolutions were passed opposing the attempt of the liquor traffic to violate the rights of the Indians in the Indian Territory by introducing intoxicating drinks among them. Their guaranteed rights in selling them against the curse of strong drink should be forever guarded. The rights of our innocent or ignorant people of other states should not be equally guarded against this great curse of C. A. W.

Ten young men were ordained to the ministry on Sunday. Bishop W. F. Heil, who is greatly esteemed by all, and who is growing in favor every year, preached two excellent sermons on that day.

At the close of his evening address nearly $1,000 was subscribed, largely by members of the conference, for missionary purposes.

On Sunday afternoon Bishop H. Dubs for nearly two hours interested a large audience with reminiscences of his early life in the ministry, having started out to preach from the city of Freeport thirty years ago. A pair of gold was presented him by members of the conference in memory of his jubilee year and as a token of regard for services rendered.

Perhaps the most interesting part of the conference business is the stationing of the preachers. The established law of the church prohibits any one from remaining over four consecutive years at one place. This may have many advantages but has one disadvantage, too. The removal of one man, who has served four years at one place, often necessitates the removal of others, who may have been but two or three years at their place. The rapid change of language from German to English is another embarrassing feature. Three heretofore exclusively German charges—Ahlton, Streator and Sibley—demanded greater aid in both German and English hereafter. This works a hardship upon such men who fall in their younger days to master the English.

The Revs. Th. C. F. Busse, Wm. Schneider, S. Miller and Ed. Witke have because of the language difficulty retired from active work or left the conference to seek employment elsewhere.

Some few changes have been made on the Chicago District which are here indicated: Chicago Ashland Avenue—C. J. Frey. Chicago Hoyne Ave.—F. W. Landner. Edison Park—A. Strickland. The Presiding Elder, J. G. Fidler, was transferred to the Southern District and will move to El Paso, Ill., and Rev. M. C. Knoch, will take his place. Rev. H. Messner, of Edison Park, goes to Torrington, Ill.

PASSES AWAY IN WISCONSIN

Mrs. Sarah Busch nee Plagge is Relieved of Her Suffering.

Word was received by Frank H. Plagge Tuesday morning of the death of his sister near Turtle Lake, Wis. The lady died Monday evening, and Mr. Plagge had just recently returned from a visit with her.

Mrs. Sarah Busch nee Plagge was born in Palestine township near Barrington on October 21, 1841, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Plagge. She attended the Bradwell school in Palestine township, near Barrington, and for several years after her school years made her home in Barrington, where she affiliated with the Zion Evangelical church.

On Feb. 11, 1902, she was united in marriage to John D. Busch of near Elgin, and they made their home on a farm near Deer Grove, after which they removed to Elgin and made that city their home for several years, removing to a farm near Turtle Lake, Wis., some five years ago, where they have since resided.

Two children blessed the union, one dying in infancy, and the other, an eight-year-old daughter, surviving to comfort the father. The deceased is also survived by her parents, three brothers and one sister—Frank H. of Barrington, Fred of Elgin, and Walter and Miss Minnie, who reside with the parents.

Mrs. Busch had been ailing for about a year, two operations being performed on her last year for cancer of the stomach, but to about 3 months ago was not considered dangerously ill.

The deceased was universally respected and had a large number of friends both in this vicinity and Turtle Lake.

Wherever she went, her lovable disposition and kind heart won her friends, and the sympathy of this community is extended to the bereaved parents and their family.

Funeral services were held today.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Hold Three Interesting Meetings Sunday.

A large audience of men, old and young, among them some good "old sinners" greeted Rev. Warren of Auburn Park at the Y. M. C. A. meeting in the Zion church Sunday afternoon, and before the reverend gentleman had spoken many words they were indeed pleased with themselves that they were present, especially so did those that were not members of the Y. M. C. A.

Rev. Warren held his audience spellbound from beginning to end, and his pleas and arguments made and left a deep and wholesome impression on them. He is not a radical but a conservative speaker and the earnest expression of his contentment while making arguments in behalf of Christianity inspires confidence in his hearers which leaves a lasting impression.

In the evening a union of young people's meeting was held in the Zion church, in which all young people's societies of the various churches participated, and the whole was led by Mr. Kellor, former pastor of the Baptist church, and who has just returned from New Mexico.

In the evening a union meeting was held, in which all the churches united with the Y. M. C. A. Such talks were given by ministers and members of the Y. M. C. A. Miss Fairchild of Arlington Heights delighted the audience with a beautiful solo well sung, and Newton Plagge, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Plagge executed a most difficult cornet solo in a most creditable manner. The Y. M. C. A. quartette also sang several selections. It proved a most profitable meeting, and Y. M. C. A. members are to be congratulated on furnishing such entertaining and instructive meetings.
