POSTAL SAVINGS BANK

New Government Savings Institution Opened Last Saturday—Well Patronized From Start—Dohlmeyer First Depositor.

The new postal savings bank at the local post office was opened last Saturday and was apparently well patronized. The first deposit was made at nearly 8:00 was taken in the first day. Since then the deposits have been coming in more slowly but the business does not indicate that the deposits are going to be appreciated by patrons of the office.

Frank Dohlmeyer had the honor of being the first person to make a deposit.

Speaking of postal savings banks a metropolitan paper said recently: "Postmaster General Hitchcock is much pleased with the outcome of the postal savings bank movement. This movement is in operation but so short a time it is demonstrated that it is no longer an experiment but a success. Already the banks have received $1,000,000 and the deposits amount to about $1,000,000 a week, which surpasses the expectations of the most optimistic. A curious and interesting condition is the fact that this large sum must be from persons who are receiving the old postal savings banks, for their deposits are no lessened. The fear that their business would be injured by the introduction of Uncle Sam's banks proves to be groundless."

MAOGUFFIN IS BUSY MAN.

Lake County's Choice for State Senate Making Strong Campaign.

The last two weeks have been busy ones for Paul MacGuffin, who is calling on friends and acquaintances throughout the county, in the hopes of rolling up a large majority vote for the state senatorship which he is seeking.

Attorney MacGuffin has been in most of the voting precincts of the county and is everywhere meeting with enthusiastic support. The fact that many of the prominent men in the party are working for his nomination and the election of Lake county voters in general, we are entitled to the senator for the next term is sure to result in a vote for "Mac" in the primaries, to be held Tuesday, April 9, that will spell success.

The candidate is fortunate in having secured the promise of strong support in the other counties of the district.

As it has never been the custom to elect a senator to a second consecutive term in the eighth district, and the fact that MacGuffin county had both the senator and two republican representatives in the last session makes it plain to all fair minded men that the old "Banner Republican County of Illinois" is not unreasonable in asking that he be given the honor of naming the member of the upper branch in the next General Assembly.

At any rate MacGuffin's "rooters"—and they are numerous—are feeling very confident of victory, and the big Liberty attorney who never seems to tire, is enjoying the strenuous work which accompanies a canvass of the district. His hearty laugh and friendly manner has taken sunshine into many homes during his travels of the last two weeks.

Mrs. R. N. Golden, wife of R. N. Golden formerly of Barrington, occurred at her home, 342 North Normal Parkway, Chicago, Sunday, February 11. A quiet service was held at her late Chicago home Tuesday, February 12, in the funeral home of Des Moines, Iowa, which was her childhood home. She was then placed at her father's side in a vault in Woodlawn cemetery.

Her death leaves to survive, her mother, Mrs. C. H. Doney, her husband, R. N. Golden, and a four-year-old daughter, Jane Garver.

MEN'S CLUB BANQUET.

Annual Social Gathering of Barrington Men's Club Proved to be a Successful Success.

The annual banquet and program of the Barrington Men's club was held last week at the evening of Washington's birthday in the Methodist Episcopal church parlors, and was largely attended by men and women of all denominations. Messrs. L. A. Powers, H. P. Casle and T. H. Crest constituted a reception committee, and H. H. Hubbard, the president of the club, made the opening address and introduced the various speakers. The principal musical features of the evening were furnished by the "Symphony Quartet" composed by Messrs. W. J. Cameron and L. H. Bennett and Miss Jennie Fletcher and Violet Ulrich.

The program consisted principally of addresses upon Lincoln and his accomplishments; Rev. H. H. Thoren, H. P. Casle, Prof. E. S. Smith, Rev. E. G. Lookhart, G. W. Spenser and Rev. O. P. Mattison gave the addresses. Mr. Mattison read an original poem and E. L. Wilmer gave two readings. Arnett C. Lines had been asked to speak but was unable to be present and his mother, Mrs. Fred Lines, took his place on the program. The invocation was made by Rev. H. H. Thoren, pastor of the Salem church and Rev. O. P. Mattison, pastor of the Methodist church, gave the benediction.

The menu was the real master piece however, the dinner being heartily enjoyed by all. For its excellence the menu of the club and their guests was thanks to the ladies of the church where the affair was held.

BURNS MISSING.

Former Representative from Eighth District Disappears Mysteriously—Chicago Being Searched.

Mayor Carter H. Harrison of Chicago Tuesday ordered a police search for Thomas F. Burns of Belvidere and former member of the legislature from the eighth district. He has been missing since February 23. Mayor Harrison's aid in the search was sought by prominent Democrats.

Burns had been in Chicago four days when, staying at the Grand hotel, 76 South State street, and his actions there were such as to suggest that he was mentally unbalanced.

Burns was one of three Democratic representatives who voted for the election of William Linnier to the United States senate. At that time he was serving his first term, having been elected in 1898. The senatorial district includes Boone, Lake and McHenry counties. In November, 1910, Burns sought re-election and was defeated by Joseph E. Anderson of Lake Forest, who was the legislative candidate.

Burns contested the election of Anderson but the house committee on elections decided against him. The campaign cost him several thousand dollars and his wife it is said, has preyed upon his mind.

Burns is a dry goods merchant at Belvidere and is one of the best known citizens of Boone county.

Dear Grove Social.

Quite a number from this village attended the social and entertainment given at the Dear Grove school last Thursday evening. They say that it was not the success that was anticipated. A goodly crowd attended however and the financial returns were quite satisfactory to the school. The audience was favored with readings by Miss Johanna Lines of this village and Miss Adellea Franz of Chicago. After the program prizes were awarded as follows: Lewis Standers, for attendance; Gust Fithian, for excellence in history; Salma Walbaum, for spelling; and Harry Nitgen, for improvement.

The Mollycoddie.

The mollycoddie's heart is sore,
"Dance more," he sadly sighs,
"We'll have that two and two are four,
That folly is unwise."
"With strenuously let loose,
"I'll be our daily lot
To hear that stonies yield little juice,
That heat is always hot."
"We shall be sold in thunder tones
That wrong cannot be right,
That July hasn't any losses,
That black is never white."
"And when these platitudes are heard
We'll have to show surprise,
As if a god spoke every word."
The mollycoddie sighs.

DECIDED SUCCESS.

Barrington Lodge 886 Entertained 158 Brother Odd Fellows in Most Pleasing Manner.

The spirit of fraternity and brotherly love was never more forcibly demonstrated than last Thursday evening when wearers of the golden links emblematic of "Friendship, Love and Truth," assembled in this village in large number as guests of Barrington lodge 886.

The lodges represented were I Will, 141, Chicago; Irving Park, 190; Cary, 360; Palatine, 703; Wauconda, 891.

The occasion was the meeting of the 774-County League I. O. O. F., and celebration of Washington's birthday by the local lodge. The program of the evening opened with the presentation of the beautiful and dramatic first degree by the staff of Barrington lodge in a manner which called forth plaudits from a band of brothers who packed Masonic hall to its full capacity. The team worked under difficulties. Two members came from beds to take their parts while two characters made their first appearance in the work. Prof. C. N. Peterson of Chicago furnished the obliging numbers so necessary for proper presentation which greatly assisted in the success of this touching drama of brotherly love.

The degree work was followed by an address, short, though one of the most interesting and acceptable ever offered here, by Rev. J. E. Rice of Chicago, an orator and Odd Fellow, who won the hearts of his hearers. Theodore Finn, I. G. R. of Chicago, spoke briefly on the Exocommunicated branch in a pleasing manner. Early departure of Chicago visitors curtailed the address, greatly to the regret of the large number who enjoyed every word spoken.

Refreshments were served in Odd Fellow's hall which had been transformed into an inviting banquet room by handsome decorations, beautiful flowers, snowy white covered tables laden with many delicacies which appeal to the wants of man. For all these the guests were under obligations to a committee of ladies composed as follows: Mesdames A. W. Sutherland, G. W. Page, A. C. Lines, Carrie Kendall, Ed Rieke, E. C. Thier, J. F. Hollister, E. K. Magee, W. M. Wilmer, E. D. Proby, H. V. Stanley, and Miss Hannah Rohlfner.

During the banquet a quartet composed of Mesdames Jennie G. Thoren and Violet Ulrich and Messrs. L. H. Bennett and W. J. Cameron, assisted by Mrs. Cameron as pianist, furnished pleasing musical selections.

This meeting was the greatest held by Odd Fellows in this section and its success was due to the untiring efforts of the committee in charge as follows: arrangements, H. H. Morrison, George W. Page and E. F. Wichman; refreshments, Charles Ebel, Edward Rieke and Earl Jencks; A. W. Sutherland, N. G. acting as ex-officio on this committee and working up more than usual activity in matters of this kind.

The occasion will always be remembered with pleasure by every participant.
