

ROOSEVELT AND CLARK WIN IN PRIMARY FIGHT

Former President and Speaker Choice of Illinois Voters for President.

DENEEN RENOMINATED

Governor and Ex-Mayor Duane of Chicago Selected to Head Respective State. Voters Renominated Deneen as Speaker by Lawrence V. Sherman.

Chicago - Ex-President Theodore Roosevelt and Chicago's ex-Mayor Duane Deneen, speaker of the national house of representatives, are the choice of the Republican and Democratic voters of Illinois as expressed at the primary election held throughout the state on Tuesday.

The returns indicate that the former president carried the state by a plurality of 140,000 over President Taft and Senator La Follette.

The returns indicate that fifty-six out of the fifty-eight Illinois delegates to the national convention will be instructed to vote for Colonel Roosevelt. He captured forty-eight of the fifty district delegates and the eight delegates-at-large will be elected by the Republican state convention and instructed to vote for Roosevelt by the popular vote in the state at large.

Speaker Champ Clark was endorsed for the Democratic nomination for president by a majority of approximately 135,000. Mr. Clark carried Chicago by about 80,000 over Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey and more than held his own downstate.

Charles B. Deneen was renominated for governor by a plurality of approximately 75,000.

Edward F. Duane, former mayor of Chicago, was nominated for governor by the Democrats by a plurality of about 15,000.

Senator Shelby M. Cullom, continuously in public life for fifty-seven years, was retired effectively as an advisory primary ballot can bring about that effect.

Returns show that Lawrence V. Sherman is the choice of the Republicans for the seat in the upper house of congress that has been occupied by "Old Shelby" since 1888, and his plurality will total close to 80,000. Since both Senator Cullom and Mr. Sherman repeatedly announced that they would abide by the result of the balloting, it is considered almost certain that the legislature will follow the expressed will of the people and elect Sherman to the senate.

J. Ham Lewis of Chicago had no opposition to the Democratic ballot and received the united support of all factions.

Ex-President Roosevelt carried nearly all of the counties in the state. He defeated President Taft by a vote of at least three to one from Galena to Cairo.

Both the Canaan and McKinley districts were swept into the Roosevelt column by an unprecedented plurality. Livingston carried Cook county by a vote of Col. Frank L. Smith, President Taft's western manager, is in the Roosevelt camp by a three to one vote. Roosevelt carried Cook county by a plurality of approximately 30,000. Official returns from down state probably will swell his plurality to more than 140,000 votes.

La Follette polled a fairly good vote in the mining and union labor districts. In some sections down state his vote ran close to that of President Taft.

Champ Clark smothered Governor Wilson both in Cook county and throughout the state. The national speaker swept Chicago by a plurality over the New Jersey governor of close to 50,000 votes.

Duane's home county ran close to 150,000 votes. He carried every congressional district in the state, which probably will carry with it the instructions of the delegates at large to be named in the state convention at Peoria on April 19.

Stamie Campbell for Defeat. Governor Wilson carried the district in Chicago was a blow to his supporters who found some consolation, however, in the charge that a coalition of the Clark-Roosevelt forces had brought about the former President's renomination.

The New Jersey man developed the surprise of the primary. He carried the district, notably St. Clair county, which embraces that St. Louis, but not Sangamon county, which includes Springfield. It was the only other county given to Wilson save Whategan, which he won by the small margin of 25.

down before the Roosevelt tide was by the same three to one lead. Coles and DeWitt counties, two of the counties in Congressman McKinley's district, were carried by Roosevelt by a big lead.

Kane county, the home county of former Senator Albert J. Hopkins, was carried by Roosevelt by 8,000 plurality.

Vermilion and Champaign counties, the home counties of Congressman Cannon and Congressman McKinley, are also in the Roosevelt column. The city of Danville, as well as Champaign, gave a preference to Roosevelt.

Roosevelt also swept Monticello, Pleasanton and the home city of Speaker Charles Adkins of the Illinois house of representatives.

Deneen and Duane Mess Tickets. The contest for the governorship between Deneen and Duane was carried by a large plurality. He carried Cook county by about 30,000 and ran ahead in most of the down state counties.

On the Democratic side Edward F. Duane, former mayor of Chicago, swept everything before him in Chicago and his plurality is about 80,000.

Second place in the Republican contest was between State's Attorney John B. Wayne of Chicago and Lem Small of Kanakake, the Lincoln League candidate. Wayne ran second in Cook county, with Small a close third.

Walter Clyde Jones, progressive Republican candidate, ran fourth in Cook county, former Governor Yates fifth, John Brown seventh and J. McCan Davis eighth.

Duane's plurality in Cook county is from 40,000 to 50,000 over Samuel Alschuler. Ben F. Caldwell ran a poor third.

In the down state counties, however, the result was different. Caldwell and Alschuler each carried many counties. McLean county was carried by Governor Deneen by 30 votes over former Governor Yates, who carried the county by four years ago. Wayne ran third, Small fourth, Hurburgh fifth, Brown sixth, Jones seventh, and Davis eighth.

Blomington, in this county, is the home of Senator Frank H. Park, who was one of Senator Hurburgh's campaign managers.

Andrew H. McDonald, Yates defeated the surprise party in the associated politicians. His down state vote was exceptionally heavy, but not near enough to bring him within striking distance of carrying the great lead, which Governor Deneen secured early in Cook county and the northern Republican counties.

All the present state officials were renominated by large majorities. Lieutenant Governor John C. Oglesby won renomination on the Republican ticket over Reuben R. Tiffany of Freeport. Some of the Democrats were supporting Tiffany, but the contest lines were not closely drawn. Kinzie Ostwig, village clerk of Lee county, who ran on an anti-Lorimer platform, failed to make the show.

Secretary of State James A. Ross, who has served for sixteen years, won renomination over Chester W. Church of Chicago.

Auditor of Public Accounts James B. McCullough, who has served the same length of time as Mr. Ross, was renominated on the Republican ticket. His opponent was George A. Smith of Chicago and John K. Baird of Cairo.

Attorney General William H. Stead, with eight years of service to his credit, won the Republican nomination over Frank R. Reid of Cairo. Reid made a strong fight, but the principal faction leaders remained out of the contest or threw their support to Stead. John B. Walker, county judge of Sangamon county, was a third candidate.

The contest for the Republican nomination for treasurer was close between Andrew Jackson of Jacksonville, former state treasurer, who retired two years ago because of the constitutional provision that a treasurer must not serve two consecutive terms, and L. L. Emerson of Mount Vernon. The Democrat forces backed Emerson. William E. Rothmaler of Chicago and Herman E. Halberger, progressive, also were candidates.

Cullom's Record Unique. The retirement of Senator Cullom from public life means the removal of the last remaining link between the days of Abraham Lincoln and the nation's present-day statesmen.

For fifty-seven years the name of Shelby M. Cullom has been associated intimately with some phase of national state, county or civic activities in Illinois. For fifty-seven years he has occupied some public office.

And one of the peculiar features of the record is that with but two exceptions all of the offices were direct from the people. The only exceptions he held for only a short time. While other men have served in various appointive offices for that period, the retiring senator stands alone in that he has selected his way directly to serve them year after year for more than half a century.
