AT THE CHICAGO THEATRES

MAJESTIC.

The headline feature at the Majestic theatre, Chicago, for the week of April 12 will be A. Reeves, the greatest of the American music hall artists, who has created a remarkable furor in the United States by his piquant and artistic method of her work. Reeves is dainty, refined and artistic in every particular. Her songs being peculiar to herself and rendered in a manner quite different from the usual important music hall singer. S. Miller Kent & Co. will play a unique comedy called "The Real Q." It is full of humor and Mr. Kent is a recognized artist of the highest dramatic class. Pauline Welch and George Moore singers, dancers and talkers will introduce their outstanding act; the Six American dancers noted as the best dancing team in the world including that number of people, will appear and J. C. Nugent with the assistance of Miss York will produce "The Squarer," a vaudeville sketch set forth in a very humorous manner. The Abdallahs, who are not Arabs but American athletes of extraordinary merit, will appear with their remarkable routine; Boynton & Meyers, two young ladies of exceptional talent on the piano, violin and in comic song, will also appear, and Laughlin's Wonder, comedy trained dogs will also be among those present on this remarkable bill.

CORT THEATRE.

The swift and sudden success that "Ready Money" has made at the Cort theatre, Chicago, and its consequent popularity, stamps it as one of the big hits of the year. The proposition that playwright Montgomery has advanced to prove that a young man may advance into the realms of quick rich finance, make a sudden fortune and yet keep himself honest and his principles fresh and right, gives a healthy tone to the play. In "Ready Money" Stephen Baird finds his resources reduced to a last quarter. He is given fifty $1000 bills with the strict understanding that these are simply to be shown and not to be spent. Exhibiting these changes his fortune and at the same time crosses himself, his friends and his fiancée into a remarkable series of adventures. In the exploitation of this scheme, playwright Montgomery has aimed higher than the mere building of a merry play. His intent has been to teach a lesson in the value of suggestive force and what encouragement means to a man or woman.

William Courtenay as Stephen Baird has made the success of his case, as has also Joseph Kilgour as the brilliant counterfeiter, Jackson Ives. Each one of the supporting company deserves individual recognition. Ben Johnson, James Brandy, Henry Miller, Jr., Scott Cooper, Leo Donnelly, Norman Tharp, Alfred A. Hease, George L. Tucker, Ivy Troutman, Ida Darling, Rayline Connel and Geraldyn Fiers all together form one of the most remarkable comedy organizations seen upon the local stage this season.

Puts End To Bad Habit.

Things never look bright to one with "the blues." Ten to one the trouble is a sluggish liver, filling the system with bilious poison, that Dr. King's New Life Pills would expel. Try New Life Pills for better feelings and "the blues." Best for stomach, liver and kidneys. Zie. Harrington Pharmacy.

Warned in Time.

A soft answer sometimes disarms. A story is told of a landlord on the North shore. A guest, seldom satisfied, came to him and said: "Mr. Smith,—that was not the landlord's name—Mr. Smith, your coffee is rotten." The landlord shook him by the hand. "Thank you, sir; thank you. I haven't had my breakfast yet, and I'll stir the coffee this time. Much obliged."—Boston Herald.

His Need.

A Hiawatha, Kan., man told a young woman that he would marry if he could find a helpmate who would be willing to do all the washing and all the other hard work around the house. "What you want is a woman with a weak mind," said the girl.

Ineffective Good Manners.

We sometimes meet an original Gessner, who, if manners had not existed, would have invented them.—The orator.

QUENTIN'S CORNERS

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sturm a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ebel and son departed for their home at Stanton Monday after a week's visit with friends and relatives in this vicinity. They are much pleased with their new home.

It is reported that L. Bockelman has sold his farm known as the Fritz Fisher place to Fred Feddele.

We are sorry to learn that Jacob Sturm, Sr., is in poor health. This has been a severe winter for sick people.

John Witt was in Chicago on business Saturday.

Miss Lydia Quentin visited at home over Easter.

William Stocckel was a Chicago business visitor Monday.

Postmaster H. K. Brockway of Barrington called on friends here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Young were guests at the home of Fred Feddele Easter.

Scripture Comforted Her.

As to Scripture quotations, writes a correspondent, many years ago there was living at Bristol Hill an old woman, whom I knew well, and in conversation with a friend on the benefits to be derived from a knowledge of the Bible she made this remark: "I have often been comforted with that blessed Scripture, 'Patience shall never wear fairly.'"—

Daily Thought.

To live our lives, to get out what is in us, to do our share of the world's work and live brotherly with our fellows—that is what we are here for. If riches are an incident of that course of life, they are a good incident.—Edward S. Martin.

Not Malicious.

LIFE VERSUS DEATH BREAD

Physician Claims Much for Preparation That He Invents Has Renewed His Life.

The physician had once been a dyspeptic, sour and morose; but his color was now ruddy and clear, his spirits light, and his health excellent.

"Death bread," he said, "laid me low. Death bread kept me a dyspeptic for ten long, sad years. And life bread has made me my own buoyant, healthy, happy self again."

"What do I mean by death bread? I mean ordinary bread. Why do I call it death bread? Because it is alive with putrefactive germs—because, by more than one authority, the yeast cells in it are said to be identical with the diseased cells of pus—and, therefore, are a poison."

"Yeast, in fact, is as unhealthy as its sickly smell and musty, slimy consistency would lead you to believe. It is a mass of living germs—and along with these are mingled putrefactive germs. Yeast is a very harmful thing. It makes bread a very harmful thing. All bread made with yeast is death bread."

"Life bread—that is what I eat. I make it myself. I take wheat of the finest quality, unground, and I roast it over a hot fire in a thick iron saucepan. The grains, an inch deep in the pan, are stirred continually. They pop like popcorn, and, when all have popped—it is a matter of about ten minutes—my life bread is done."

"Each grain of this life bread is a loaf, a miniature, delicious loaf—brown and crisp, that falls to powder on being bitten. Life bread must be kept in air-tight tins. It is the healthiest, the most nourishing, and the best-flavored bread in existence. But it must be confessed that the loaves are rather small."

Queensland's Sugar Industry.

Queensland is one of the great sugar-producing states of Australia, and practically all of the sugar consumed in the Commonwealth is raised and refined in this state and in the northern part of New South Wales. The leading feature of the sugar industry is the number of small cane growers engaged in it, who now supply cane to the central mills of which they are proprietors.
