 and check off the houses that are described as "Electric lighted" if you want a modern house.

"Electric lighted" means a great deal more than it says, for the same wires that carry the lighting current furnish current for ironing, sewing, washing, vacuum cleaning, massaging, ventilation and for many other purposes.

A few cents per work added to your lighting bill will work wonders in lightening the domestic burden.

CURT THEATRE.

"Ready Money", the comedy hit of the year in attracting enthusiastic audiences at the Curt Theatre, Chicago, as in one of the conspicuous events of the season. Sceldom if ever before has a play made so great a popular appeal as this. The theme of the comedy of how money has attracted unusual attention while play wright Montgomery has his upon a novel idea for his story he has also worked it out in a refreshment center that fills the play at every moment with surprises, laughs and thrills. Full of vim, dramatic wit and brilliant comedy. The remarkable cast that Manager Fraze has given to the play attracts theatre-goers to see some of the very best acting of the season. Maude Gilbert, last seen in Chicago with Mrs. Fiske, has been added to the company as leading woman, and such artists as William Courtenay, Joseph Kilgour, Ben Johnson, Scott Cooper, James Bradbury, Henry Miller Jr., Leo Donnell, Norman Taylor, Charles Dealing, Gwendolyn Piers, Regina Connell, George L. Tucker, Alfred Hesse. A performance of unusual artistic merit is given.

MEVICKER'S.

Giuseppe Pacini's beautiful opera "Tosca" will be the offering of the Aborn English Grand Opera Company at McVicker's Theatre for the week beginning Sunday April 28. This opera is founded on a libretto adaptation of Victorien Sardou's sensational and dramatic play "Tosca" which was written for Sarah Bernhardt and was played through this country by Fanny Salvini and her company. The story is intensely dramatic, dealing with the fortunes of Florida Tosca, the Roman singer who is beloved by the artist, Cavaradossi and Scarpia, the governor of the fortress. For a political offense Cavaradossi is condemned to death by Scarpia, who wishes him out of the way that his own wife for the love of the artist and prepares to sacrifice herself to Scarpia to save her lover's life. The wily governor prepares a banquet feast for the singer, but during the supper he inadvertently lets her seize a knife from the table. She is condemned to a forced notwithstanding her mother. In a fury of anger Tosca stabs her death for her lover who runs from the lower levels. The artist dies in the bastion in her own death. To the tremendous throng Pacini has written a score that has won the approval and the story as a whole is the best. The Aborn company will lies often in a run-down system. Weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys often follow an attack of this wretched disease. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the glorious tonic, blood purifier and regulator of stomach, liver and kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system and restore to health and good spirits after an attack of grip. If suffering, try them.

The Danger After Grip
