HEROISM OF SEAMEN

NOYALIA

Records of the Navy Reveal Numerous Instances of BRAVERY IN FACE OF DEATH

By GEORGE CLINTON

Washington—Stories have been told of the heroism of the men of the navy who have risked their lives in the face of death in the service of their country. The records of the navy reveal numerous instances of bravery in the face of death. The men of the navy have shown a courage and heroism that is truly inspiring. They have risked their lives for the sake of their country and for the sake of their fellow men. Their actions have been a source of pride and inspiration to all who know of them.

When the story came of the way in which Grace's life was saved, the Washington residents who had known her in the past were surprised to find that she was a woman of such courage and heroism. She had risked her life for the sake of her country and for the sake of her fellow men. Her actions had been a source of pride and inspiration to all who knew of them.

After it was known that she had been saved, the men of the navy were proud of her. They had risked their lives for the sake of their country and for the sake of their fellow men. Their actions had been a source of pride and inspiration to all who knew of them.

Before, After and Operation

Please Read These Two Letters

The following letter from Mrs. O. V. Rock will prove how often it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was four weeks in the hospital and spent a great deal of money worse than before. Then after that suffering woman gave Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored her health.
