Move on Know, says a politician to a street crowd, and heads heads if they don't. "Move on now," says the big, marshy mineral pills to bowel congestion and suffering from indigestion. Dr. King's New Life Pills don't follow the bowels. They gently persuade them to right action, and health follows. 25 cents at Barrington Pharmacy.

AT THE CHICAGO THEATRES

CORT THEATRE.
"Ready Money" continues to be the reigning success in Chicago where it has run for the 11th week of its highly popular life on the Great Stage last Sunday night. This brilliant comedy is the son of James Montgomery and there is not a suggestive line or situation in the entire play. It is a clean, snappy comedy that entertains and invigorates its auditors and sends them away happy and contented. The play contains four separate and distinct stories, each deliberately worked out and leading the spirit of romance to the comedy. It tells a story of a young man who makes a success just at the time when things look darkest for him, and affords a lesson in encouragement to his beholders. The play opens on New Year's eve with most of the characters preparing to see the new year in. They have arranged a big dinner party for this purpose, and every one is gay and happy, excepting the hero, Stephen Baird, who is disappointed and heartbroken at his ill-luck. They insist upon his joining their party but he is in no mood for merrymaking and declines. He is in a bad way of mind when this unhappy frame of mind, when Jackson lives, a celebrated counterfeiter comes to him and offers a proposition which he guarantees will make his fortune in a couple of days. His and Baird finally consents to try the experiment. The results far exceed their expectations. Baird is now a very rich man within a short time. Manager H. H. Frazer has provided a company of unusual excellence to interpret the comedy, and a scenic environment of artistic beauty.

Ends Hunt For Rich Girl.
Often the hunt for a rich wife ends when the man meets a woman that has nerves tell in a bright brain and even temper. Her peach-bloom complexion and ruddy lips result from her pure blood; her bright eyes from her mental strength Electric Bitters give a woman, and the freedom from indigestion, headache, nervousness, fainting and dizzy spells they promote. Every woman should be a woman's favorite remedy. If weak or ailing try them. See at the Barrington Pharmacy.

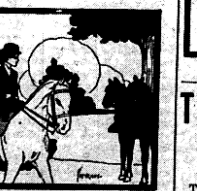

Not a Real Patriot.
A man is not a patriot a patriot because he shuts his eyes to his nation's faults.

Some Self-Denial Necessary.
We all have to put up with one another; one cannot do that even in our own homes, without conceding a good deal which we should very much like to retain.

Man Coughs and Breaks Ribs.
After a frightful coughing spell a man in Neenah, Wis., felt terrible pains in his side and his doctor told him his ribs had been broken. What any Dr. King's New Discovery would have saved him. For his coughing spell ends a late cough, while prelatant use roughs out obstinate coughs, expels stubborn colds or breaks colds, sore lungs. "I feel sure it is a Godsend to humanity," writes Mrs. Ethel Morton, Columbia, Mo., "for I believe would have consumption to-day, if I had not used this great remedy. It is guaranteed to satisfy, and you can get a free trial bottle or 50-cent or $1.00 size at the Barrington Pharmacy."

Electric Bitters
Succeeds when everything else fails. In nervous prostration and female weakness they are the supreme remedy, as thousands have testified.
