FINE EARL ROGERS

DARROW COUNSEL ASSESSED SO BY JUDGE HUTTON FOR CONTEMPT.

CALLS WITNESS A PERJURER

Los Angeles, Cai, Aug. 2.—The Darrow trial was halted again here Tuesday by the court fining Earl Regers, chief counsel for Clarence Darrow, 380 for contempt, with the alternative of five days in Jail.

Later, upon, the statement of Horace Appel of Darrow's counsel that the defense would be unable to promote the court modified the order making the court modified the county fall owe imprisonment in the county fall owe imprisonment in the county fall owe imprisonment in the county fall owe imprisonment of the county fall owe imprisonment of the county fall owe imprisonment as the county fall owe imprisonment of the county fall owe in the county fall of the county fall owe in the county fall of the county fall of the county fall of the county fall owe in the county fall of the county fall owe in the county fall owe in

District Attorney Fredericks objected to a question as a waste of time.
"No, we are showing up this perjurer."
declared Rogers.
Judge Hutton halted proceedings and tried to get Rogers to withdraw the remark, but Rogers insisted that he believed the witness was a perjurer and the fine and sentence followed.
