

THE MAN TAKING NO CHANCES

Head Boy's Promotions May Have Been Reserved, but He Still Had the Best.

The Rev. John H. Underwood, one of Pittsburg's most eloquent and earnest ministers, said the other day...

Mr. Underwood paused, then added: "I heard recently of a little boy to whom a warm and comfortable suit had been given..."

"Good for you, Johnny!" said a city missionary to the little chap. "But wearing your suit, I see."

"Yes, sir," the urchin explained. "I sleep in it!"

Different Youth.

"Good morning, Mrs. Alice," said a grocery boy awaiting an order from a lady in a suburban home.

"Please call me 'Alice,'" answered the lady. "That's my name."

"But I don't know you well enough to call you Alice?" rejoined the youth, confusedly.

WOMEN SHOULD BE PROTECTED

Against So Many Surgical Operations. How Mrs. Bethune and Mrs. Moore Escaped.

Elizabeth, Mo. "For seven years I suffered everything."

I was in bed for four or five days at a time every month, and so weak I could hardly walk. I cramped and had backache and headache and nervous and weak that I dreaded to see anyone or have anyone come near me in the room.

The doctors gave me medicine to ease me at first, and then I was told to have an operation. I would not listen to that, and when a friend of my husband told him about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for his wife, I was willing to take it. Now I look the picture of health and feel like it, too.

Murrayville, Ill. "I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a very bad case of female trouble and it made me a well woman. My health was all broken down, the doctors said I must have an operation, and I was ready to go to the hospital, but I decided that I would try your Compound. I got along so well that I gave up the doctors and was saved from the operation."

SETTING THE TABLE AND SERVING THE MEAL IN AN ATTRACTIVE MANNER

Formal Dinner, Served With a Maid. Flowers obstructed the view of the table, hence they were omitted.

By MINA B. CRIGLER, Instructor in Household Science, University of Illinois.

The setting of the table is, in a general way, familiar to every woman. The table is set and food is served three times a day and three hundred and sixty-five days in the year...

The old adage, "Man works from sun to sun, but woman's work is never done," is sanctioned by every intelligent housekeeper.

Plates should be opposite and at equal distance from each other. Place cards should be small and inconspicuous—placed on the napkin or beside the plate in line with the tumbler.

Knives should be placed at the right, sharp edge towards the plate. Fork or forks should be at the left, tines up.

Under A, we must avoid cluttering up the green lawn with flower beds, sheared shrubs, and other artificial affairs.

FIRST PRINCIPLES OF LANDSCAPE ART

By A. W. NOLAN, Assistant Professor, University of Chicago.

Goethe's remark that "the beautiful must be taken care of; the useful will take care of itself," is to a large extent true today.

Both the artistically kept part of the city and the natural neighborhood of the open country contribute the largest element to the picture in the landscape.

There are a few standard principles which will guide all amateurs to use good taste in planting, hedges and school grounds.

PROPER CARE OF UTENSILS

Insistence on Serving Appealing Dishes Causes Many Laundrymen to Perish.

There may sometimes be observed in the kitchen a host of knives, not a bad taste, but a bad smell is appetizing. It would be interesting to know in how many cases this comes from the lack of cleanliness in utensils and methods.

Personal cleanliness is, of course, essential in the kitchen, and every good housekeeper endeavors to maintain a high standard of such matters.

"Food and fingers are carriers of contagion." The proper way of washing the hands, if seriously taught and seriously practiced, in the market and in the kitchen, would go far to remove the source not only of infection, but of disgust.

The time which the shower bath, offers a great improvement over old methods of washing. Few will give sentence to fill and refill the hand basin until the hands are washed at least in clean water, but this result is easily accomplished under the tap.
