Place Stamps on Your Mail.
Under a recent ruling of the post office department rural mail carriers are not required to pick loose coins from the letters on their routes. Carriers are supplied with postage stamps, stamped envelopes, cards and stamp books and will be glad to sell whatever you need. Patrons should always have a supply of stamps on hand.

Under this ruling all first class mail must be stamped when put in the boxes.

Sleep Inducer.
"That speaker is over-dramatizing. He lacks response." "Well, he has to do something to prevent his audience from taking too much repose."

Different Ways of Doing It.
Mrs. Touchey—"I hated to do it, but I had to take some money out of my husband's pockets while he was asleep last night to pay for his birthday present." Mrs. Chazley—"Mercy! I wouldn't dare do such a thing. I used the market money and then had things charged to him—Kansas City Star.

Maturing Cheese Electrically.
A British trade paper reports that an electrician of Rotterdam has discovered a method of maturing cheese by electricity. The method consists in subjecting fresh cheese to an alternating current for 24 hours, which treatment results in giving to the cheese all the properties hitherto acquired by aging.

Privilege of Lady Mayores.
Among the privileges enjoyed by the lady mayores of London during her husband's year of office is that of entrance at court. Instead of being compelled to take her place among the ordinary guests, titled and untitled, at court functions, she enters the palace by a separate entrance, and is received by royalty before any of the other guests.

What "Honeymoon" Means.
It was a tradition among the old Funtonic tribes to drink of diluted honey for thirty days, or a moon's age, after a wedding, and from this custom came the expression a honeymoon. Attila the Hun drank it. It is said, so freely of hydromel on his marriage day that he died of suffocation.

Fire Set by Cotton Basting.
A citizen of Horton bought two small houses and joined them together to make one cottage. There was a small open space in the point of the roof where the two houses were fitted together. The carpenter basted the space with ordinary cotton basting and the point of the roof was made of tin. The heat of the sun shining on the tin set fire to the cotton basting and nearly burned the house down.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

61" FLOOR VARNISH
In children's play—they may help skip and jump, but the "61" Floor Varnish shows only the reflection!—not a scratch nor stain. Apply it yourself!—It's easy. Remember!

Bell Telephone Company System

ROLONGED conversations over party line telephones involve a certain amount of danger to fellow-subscribers. An emergency call for the fire or police department or for a physician, may be obstructed because of thoughtless or unnecessary use of the line. Telephone conversations should be as short as the business in hand will permit.

TWO NEWSPAPERS FOR ONE PRICE

1¹/₁₀ Cents a Day for World News

Here's the greatest buying opportunity you were ever offered: The news of what the world is doing, and the news of the neighborhood, for 1 1/10 cents a day.

A great Chicago daily—The Record-Herald—and your home newspaper, for almost the price of one.

Think what this means. It means complete and reliable market reports every day. It means daily news of the financial world. It means up-to-the-hour information, vital to you as a business man.

It means advancement of ideas in the home circle, to be derived from day-to-day criticism of the current drama, music and book-reviews for which The Record-Herald is noted.

It means added knowledge, broader minds, greater interests—for every member of the family—through the following famous Record-Herald features:

Daily there are articles devoted to the household—advance fashion news, helpful housekeeping hints, etc., etc.—Sporting editorial comments on topics of the day—brilliant thoughts of big minds on timely subjects—clean, crisp columns of sports—pointed paragraphs by one of America's foremost humorists—clever cartoons of passing events—and a continued story by some noted author. The Record-Herald news gathering facilities are world-wide in scope, and unrivaled in reliability. Comprising the news of the Associated Press—telegraph news from special correspondents in every large city of the East and in every town of the Central West—news that comes over leased wires from New York and Washington—and the foreign cable service of two of the biggest New York City newspapers.

AND ALL FOR 1¹/₁₀ CENTS A DAY!

It's nothing to hesitate over! It's something to grasp NOW, while it's offered! Stop in at the office, or send us a check with your order, while the opportunity lasts.

Here's the Proposition, Briefly:
The CHICAGO RECORD HERALD (regular price for one year) $4.00

The BARRINGTON REVIEW (regular price for one year) $1.50

BOTH to you TODAY (Special price for one year) $4.25
