Bensenville Wins From Bronchos in Overtime Period

Points, Minus Latta, Lose Game Friday by One Point Margin

Bensenville handled the Bronchos in their best of the season by winning 21 to 19 in a terrific 23-02 overtime period at the local gym Friday night.

The contest came in the wake of a Latta star center, on the bench, who had scored 14 points in the first half and 10 in the second, but who was unable to catch any of the overtime.

Bensenville dropped the Bronchos into a 19-17 lead with 1:30 left in the overtime period. Latta, however, scored 12 points in the overtime, but Bensenville held on to win 21-19.

Bensenville was led by the main three scorers, Latta, who scored 24 points, and two other players, who scored 12 and 10 points.

Two Local Cage Teams Split Games at Arlington Heights Tuesday Night

The husky Arlington seconds unleashed a fast passing attack in the second and last quarters to run up their margin over the class of '33, Howard R. Brintlinger and R. Grabowski turned in the best performances for the local quintet.

The feature game between Barrington and Arlington first teams was nipped and tuck all the way with the local five holding a slight edge except for a few minutes in the third quarter when the Arlington scored a few points in the lead. Tate, Wichman and Albrecht all hit the hoop in the last period to knot the game score at 29 all, and Tate's basket and Wolf's free throw and field goal in the overtime period gave Barrington the victory, 34 to 32.
