Easterner Found Guilty of Taking Purse With $207

A verdict of guilty was returned against Charles Stine in circuit court at Waterloo, Thursday after Mrs. Katherine Goetz, who lives near Rowan's bridge at Cary had charged him with stealing a purse which contained $107 in currency and a $100 bond. Mrs. Goetz was a former resident of Fox Grove. Mrs. Stine denied the charge and pleaded not guilty. He said he knew nothing about the purse although he was the only person present when the pocketbook disappeared from her cottage Oct. 5.

The purse was not found until Tuesday morning when Mrs. Goetz discovered it in a rock garden near the barbecue stand. A large rock was covering it. The purse was first missed when Mrs. Stine returned home from a business trip to Cary. She testified that Stine saw her place it on a table in her cottage. Only a few minutes later it was gone. When Stine was questioned and charged with the crime, he ran from the cottage but was located by county officers in a swamp nearby. He was brought to Woodstock and placed in the county jail.

His attorney, D. Wicks, made a motion for a new trial which will be heard later.

Dr. Fanning Takes Solo Flight After 8 1/2 Hours as Pilot

Dr. W. A. Fanning, 112 W. Main street, made his first solo flight at Trout Park, Elgin, Saturday morning after having completed eight and one-half hours of student flying under the direction of Orville Schroeder, instructor in aviation.

"I'm not changing my profession," said Dr. Fanning. "Flying will be my means of recreation, not a vocation."

day if Bills Are Unpaid
Monday Night

All delinquent water users must pay their bills on or before Monday, Oct. 22, or their service will be discontinued on Tuesday, Oct. 23. A notice to this effect has been sent to all delinquent water users by order of the village board.

The board meeting last Monday night instructed the Jefferson Ice Co. to pay a disputed bill of $504.03. The company had protested that its meter was faulty and the bill unreasonably high. The meter was tested by the department of weights and measures and reported to be accurate.

The Jefferson bill was not considered as delinquent but rather as one set aside for adjustment if an adjustment were found to be warranted. Mrs. J. Montgomery and Miss Louise Jones Take 2895-Mile Motor Trip

DRIVER 2895 miles in two weeks, camping out of doors and preparing all meals with stereo prepared a delightful vacation for two Barrington women, Mrs. J. E. Montgomery and Miss Louise Jones who have returned, enthusiastic over the beauties to be found in southern states.

They remained out of doors during the entire trip and slept in a tent. Among the highlights of their sightseeing were visits to the ancient buried city at Wickliffe, Ky., the Pink Palace and Overton Park at Memphis, Tenn., and to several pre-civil war homes at Vicksburg, Miss. They returned by way of St. Louis and did their last sightseeing at Springfield.

Reporter Blames Barrington for Loss of Election

Herald Assumes Arlington
Voters Can't Think for Themselves

Several local citizens were furnished with some interesting reading matter by the Arlington Heights Herald of "Last Friday" which grieved over loss of a proposed swimming pool project and blamed the decision of the Heights club on the Barrington Park district.

The article was printed under the deck heading "Barrington Casts Deciding Vote Against Arlington Heights Project." The first paragraph of the story reported loss of the swimming pool proposal at special election by 215 to 201 votes.

Then under the sub-heading "Barrington Gets Jealous," the article stated that an "over-zealous" park board secretary of the village sent a lot of letters to Arlington Heights as "exhibit A" why Arlington Heights should not build a swimming pool. The article in the Herald concluded: "When other Barrington officials became aware that a letter file was being used as political propaganda in Arlington Heights, the secretary was instructed to send a second letter with the true facts and figures. Whether or not the letter will be read, the letter and letter, no publicity was given to it prior to the final day for voting on the project.

"Thus Arlington Heights people will remain patrons of the Barrington pool."
