

BARRINGTON REVIEW

ESTABLISHED 1888

By W. W. McCLURE, Editor and Publisher

WALTER R. WINTERKINGHAM, Business Director and Foreman

Published every Thursday afternoon at Barrington, Illinois, and entered as second-class matter at the Barrington postoffice under Act of March 8, 1879.

Does the Consumer Pay? We hear of little unfavorable criticism, usually of an involved nature, of the fact that the consumer must pay the bill for the degree of unemployment that will produce industrial recovery.

Let us consider a moment: Just as many industrialists have come to a realization during the past few weeks that the workers they laid off cannot continue as their customers and that they in fact had been their customers; so also the man from whom we buy foodstuffs, furniture, automobiles, radios, clothing, and anything else of the innumerable products we sorely need to buy, is also a consumer.

So a keen realization brings us to the realization that when we say a consumer must pay the bill we actually mean that every American citizen and resident of American territory must carry his share of the increased costs incident to reemployment and business and industrial recovery.

Certainly no class is discriminated against. All are in the same boat. Speech of Jefferson, Charleston, W. Va.

ENDING IS SAVING NOW True economy is that which obtains the largest possible return for a dollar spent. True economy is to spend that dollar at a time when it will bring the most.

We have had a number of years of extreme depression. Prices have dropped to unimaginally low levels. Buying power has been close to non-existent. There was money in the country—but persons who had surpluses were afraid to spend. They went without needed articles in order to keep their savings intact.

If they had used that timid policy any longer, they are going to be literally out of luck. That hoarded money is going down in value now. The worth of the dollar depends entirely on what it will buy. Six months from now it will buy much less than it will buy today. In other words, if you keep money in a non-productive state at present it amounts to throwing a certain percentage of it away.

You can get maximum value from your money only by putting it to use. There was never a better time to install a new heating plant, to repair or replace a roof, to build or rebuild, to paint or to do a thousand similar things. Every dollar spent will appreciate in value—what it buys will in a very short time have a market value much in excess of what you paid.

Think it over! True saving now is through wise spending—The Manufacturer.

DON'T LET TAXATION BECOME CONFISCATION An unbiased survey of the governmental achievements of 1933 produced much that is praiseworthy and deserving of the highest respect. Aggressive and daring efforts have been created and payrolls have increased. Factories are operating again that have been closed for years.

It is probable that the worst phase of the year, so far as industry, property-owners, investors and taxpayers are concerned, is the increase in the public debt—federal, state and local.

A number of political subdivisions have endeavored to "spend themselves into prosperity"—something which can't be done.

The national credit has been maintained—but bonds of a multitude of towns and counties and cities have been thrown onto the bargain counter.

Public officials could adopt no better motto for the new year than "Economy and Efficiency are Essential to Recovery." Nothing would do more to accelerate an upward trend in business than a public policy to keep taxes down, thus relieving the buying fear that in the near future, taxation and confiscation will become one and the same thing.

EDITORIAL SHORTS No newspaper is worth two hoots in a barnyard that never steps on anyone's toes.

A wise man is he who puts into the hands of boys and girls many and good books of biography. For, in this way, terdays, live sobriety and wholesomely today, and acquire for themselves fortune and understanding and high devotion for tomorrow's exciting tasks.

One had to name any single thing like as the typical American characteristic, it would probably be just that habit of looking ahead, or forever going on with the quest. We have often been a proud and boastful people, but we have succeeded another in our history, but never have the people as a whole been content to relax.

Our Children

By Angelo Patri

A Good Test School tests tell how the child is getting along with the school tasks.

When he gets a hundred in spelling and ninety in geography and sixty-five in arithmetic, we know that as far as arithmetic goes he is a thorough student and application is in order.

So far as geography goes we can extend our congratulations, and as for spelling, nothing more need be said save a word of appreciation.

But the test marks and the report card are not enough. They do not take us far enough into the mystery of the child's behavior in life. Good conduct marks and still be a poor pupil because he does not give us concern.

When they have been tested there is not an end to the matter. These expressions of the child are all outside expressions. Somewhere inside the child had a hand in them.

There must be some guide to tell us the way he is going and I think that his happiness is the best one so far as the good child is a happy child. The high average child a happy child!

There is no need to ask about all this and not to give us concern. We have the sign manual of personal success.

My personal success, actually, for it is possible to have success thrust upon one, and then one is sick unto death in the soul of him. Real happiness is the spontaneous expression of a soul at peace within itself.

When it comes, you know it is right. When it does not come at all, it is unmistakable. When it glows in the eyes of a child, it animates his lips and smiles in his face.

The soul of a child, who grows through shadowed eyes, whose face is full of smiles and whose laughter is in whom the milk laughter is kindred in deed, up is a most unappreciated and although his mind is filled with that's he is getting on with it.

What Have Hoops "The Hoops of the Hoops," said H. H., the Sage of Chintown, "and often creates one out of his own imagination. This motto is convenient, since if one fails at it, will serve as well."

WHAT'S GOING ON IN WASHINGTON

Wages are expensive, and the United States government is still paying the War of 1912 that cost more than that which with the British are feeling the pinch of federal economy.

How to best the budgeting by providing the people of this country with good whiskey at a reasonable price is the unsolved problem of government.

Group From Field Museum Sets Out for West Africa

Sponsored by Mrs. Oscar Straus of New York, widow of a former American ambassador to Turkey, who became secretary of commerce in President Theodore Roosevelt's administration, and aunt of Jessie Field Straus, the present ambassador to France, a zoological expedition on behalf of Field Museum of Natural History left Chicago for West Africa Wednesday, it is announced by Stephen C. Simms, director of the museum.

The party will sail from New York Thursday, Jan. 25, taking with it a motor automobile and a supply truck driven from Chicago to New York. Mrs. Straus herself will join the expedition in Dakar, French Senegal, early in February, and will accompany it during about two months of preliminary work and travel.

The expedition will continue some six to seven months, covering a 4000-mile range of the continent, and will return to the most important forest region in the world, all to be traversed by automobile.

Rudyard Kipling, assistant curator of birds at Field Museum, will be scientific leader of the expedition, which is to be known as the Straus West African Expedition of Field Museum. Mrs. Straus will accompany her husband to carry out a commission from the Carnegie Corporation of New York to make photographs records of the native music of African zoological expedition staff will accompany the expedition.

Frank C. Wonder of the museum's taxidermy staff will accompany the expedition as mammal collector, and John J. Jennings of Chicago will be official photographer.

After leaving Dakar the expedition will motor to Senegal and West Africa to do botanical, collecting birds and mammals, and recording native customs. The party will drive to Kano in northern Nigeria, and will work through Nigeria to Lagos. Collecting will be done principally in the dry thicket country on the southern edge of the Sahara desert.

From Lagos, Mr. Wonder will proceed to collect on the collecting of small birds in the rain forests and on the plateau between the rain forests and the Cameroons, while Hunt will collect in the rain forest of the Cameroons.

Conference

Games Scheduled for January 24-27 at Three Schools

Preliminaries at Palatine and Wauconda; Finals at Libertyville

The Northwest Conference basketball tournament, a yearly fixture in the conference sport calendar, is scheduled to take place next week, January 24, 25, 26 and 27. An innovation is being tried this year as the tournament has been split into three parts instead of holding all the games at Libertyville as has been done in the past few years.

The preliminaries for the northern schools will be held at Palatine, and the southern five at Palatine. These games will be held on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. The championship between the winners of the two halves will be held at Libertyville, Saturday night. A curtain raiser for that night will be the two high school teams of the conference January 19.
