USE OF BANK BUILDING

The two year old discussion on "What ought to be done with the First State Bank building?" reached a climax when it was rented early in the winter for use as a tavern.

The fact that the tavern has been carefully managed to maintain strictest respectability has answered this question as far as temporary expediency is concerned, but unless the building is purchased by someone who wants it for permanent tavern use, the question is still unanswered from a long range viewpoint.

The building must sooner or later be liquidated from the assets of the old First State Bank. It is not the practical, general-use building that can be easily disposed of as soon as business conditions improve. Without considerable remodeling it is not suitable for most retail uses and hence could hardly be sold for such at its real value. Even as a home for a tavern continuing indefinitely to be successful it might need more remodeling than the results would justify.

Many uses for the building have been called to our attention including a home for the Barrington library, a medical and dental clinic building, the home of a new bank, the location for a mortgage company with offices for local insurance agents, and home of a United States post office. Going over these suggestions briefly we arrive at the following conclusions:

BARRINGTON LIBRARY BUILDING—The location, the fine appearance of the building, the skylight arrangement, and the roominess would make the building an excellent library structure without much remodeling necessary. But the cost would be prohibitive for the local community. Only a certain amount of money from local tax collections can be spared for library use. The cost of good books and the expense of a good librarian's services will naturally take most of this money.

MEDICAL AND DENTAL CLINIC—It is doubtful if the local dentists and physicians care to give up their present independent quarters to enter a cooperative clinic. There is not a sufficient field of service to justify a clinic of additional professional men.

NEW BANK—It was built for banking purposes and undoubtedly is best suited for a bank building. It is doubtful if a new bank will be organized in this community before the building must be disposed of.

MORTGAGE COMPANY HOME with offices for insurance men, etc.—There is a mortgage company now in process of organization. Many years will elapse before this can be large enough to warrant an independent home.

UNITED STATES POST OFFICE—This has its principal drawback in the old federal law or regulation which requires that federal buildings must be built new by the government. Old buildings can be rented but not purchased. However, the post office site suggestion seems to be the best that has been made in the local case. The building is large enough to house a post office serving a much larger community than this; so it would be adequate to meet Barrington's needs for many years to come. It should be accepted as architecturally suitable for a post office. The purchase cost of the building plus the cost of remodeling and equipping should not exceed $35,000—a saving of $35,000 from the $70,000 Barrington post office on the "promised land." The $10,000 or more to cover remodeling costs could be expended with local contractors, laborers and building supply companies; whereas a $70,000 job would bring in out-of-town laborers, out-of-town material dealers and probably out-of-town contractors. The bank building is centrally located in the downtown business district and centrally located in the village and general community that the post office service affords. It is conveniently near the railroad station. The building is so located that its architectural beauty shows off to advantage. If remodeling it into a post office would improve its appearance, the building's conspicuous location is a strong selling point for the proposal.

THE DUMB OLD DAYS!

What a dumb bunch of legislators we must have had in the old days! They never thought of taxing horse feed! Why, our bright legislators and congressmen of the present day have discovered a gold mine where their fore-fathers saw only a dusty road!

Up in congress there are some bright chaps who in an earlier day would have taxed not only horse feed, but horse shoes, harness, buggy whips, carriage lanterns, and even the "one horse chassis" itself! Last year they taxed gasoline, motor trucks, motor cars, motor cycles, accessories, spare parts, repair parts, and lubricating oil—and see what they got! They got $181,125,988 from gasoline, $22,289,635 from lubricating oil, $23,836,119 from tires and tubes, $3,046,827 from motor trucks, $22,475,888 from motor cars and motor cycles, and $1,443,072 from parts and accessories. Then to make sure they'd overlooked nothing, they taxed the pipe lines that move the automobile's liquid oats to market and got $10,237,275 more. Try these internal revenue bureau figures out on your adding machine and you'll find that out of the 25,000,000 motorists, and not counting the 80,000,000 other taxpayers, federal taxes extracted $207,454,791 in 1933!

WHAT'S GOING ON IN BARRINGTON

The new 200-cent gold dollar dollar, after scarcely a month of active life, already is beginning to have a reputation for the American people. Whether wholly responsible or not, it is being associated with the gradual increase in the cost of living that is under way. Only as prices go higher does the average person appreciate that something may have happened to his dollar to make it different from the dollar of last March 4. The dollar which on January 20 theoretically contained 23.22 grains of gold, showed gradually a new meaning is being given to the changed currency. Prices of commodities have risen 7 per cent of the 1926 level, which has been set as the objective of those seeking to obtain a higher level of prices. This is 23 per cent above the low point of 1933 made in the week of March 4.

On the horizon appears the soldier bonus again. There's a majority for it both houses but it is doubtful whether enough votes can be mustered over a presidential veto. Reasons for it both houses but it is doubtful whether enough votes can be mustered over a presidential veto. Reasons for it both houses but it is doubtful whether enough votes can be mustered over a presidential veto.

Recovery by subsidy—using direct grants from the public treasury today is an established objective of the program for overcoming the present depression. President Roosevelt says that hereafter subsidies are to be called subsidies, and will not be disguised by some other name. Subsidies involve the use of public money to give benefits to some particular industry or some special group of individuals because of a determination that the industry or group in question is entitled to support in the interest of national welfare.

The total amount of emergency and regular subsidies now is more than $2,000,000,000 a year. It remains to be seen whether the president will maintain a firm stand with regard to the air mail contractors who had their contracts cancelled recently by the postmaster general because of revelations before a senate subcommittee which convicted administration officials that they had

Bronchos, W Locals Need Win to Assure Share in Championship

Local basketball devotees who flock to the B.I.H.S. gym this Friday evening will witness the feature game of the year when the Barrington Bronchos meet the Warren Blue Devils in a contest that will decide whether or not the Bronchos can share in the district-wide conference basketball championship. An unusual situation now exists in that three schools Barrington, Palatine, and Libertyville are all tied for first place in the heavyweight division with a victory and a defeat, and as the conference schedule ends with Friday's set of games any of the three schools who wins this weekend will be in on the championship. The Bronchos will be eagerly watching the progress of the Palatine-Anderson game at Anderson and the Libertyville-Argonne game at Libertyville for if the Bronchos win and both Palatine and Libertyville lose, the local eagles would be undisputed champions, provided of course they beat Warren.

Warren, second place winners in the conference tourney, will be worthy foes for the homeing Bronchos and they have won 40 points a game in its last two league titles. The maroon and black horde defeated Warren at Barrington on January 12; winning 23 to 22 in a last minute basket by Conn. and Palatine's game was a 21-20 victory over Cook Kelson of Warren has two outstanding stars in Bowling and Zimmerman who have played five ball all season. A lightweight encounter will open the evening at 7:30 p. m. with the feature game starting around 9:30.

Bensenville Is 51 to 28 Victim of Prep Cagers

Latta Makes 18 Points as BHS Cagers Team Sets New Scoring Record
The Barrington Bronchos cage team won a new high scoring record in the district North-west conference basketball game when they whipped Bensenville 51 to 28 on the Wednesday night of Friday night, March 2, at the high school gymnasium. The previous record was set by the Palatine team when they defeated Bensenville 44 to 28 in a court clash at Bensenville on Friday night. The Bronchos' victory was a 18-point margin for the local team to keep the Palatine and Libertyville teams from sharing the championship. The Bronchos had little trouble in the Bensenville cage game, none at all, as they shot for the final victory. A high-powered scoring attack by the Bronchos squad got into the Bensenville net in the first quarter and the reserves as well as the team turning in a pleasing performance. Eugene Latta was the star performer. Eugene Latta was the star performer.

"Cut Out The GADGETS"

That is the advice Gordon H. Ciley, for 16 years advertising manager for John Wanamaker, gives to business men who want to get the greatest results from their advertising dollar. He says: "If you want to do more real advertising and at the same time reduce the cost of it—CUT OUT THE GADGETS. Cut out the knickknacks, donations, programs, tickets, charged up to 'Good Will Advertising.' Eliminate waste in postage and wasteful methods and mediums—spend this saving of from 15 to 25 per cent in the newspapers."

Few people realize the actual coverage of even the most modest country newspapers. Not so long ago an advertising expert, after careful research, ascertained that a certain well known metropolitan paper is read, on an average, for the space of 20 minutes, while the average country newspaper has a "reading life" of 3 hours to its credit! It is kept 'round the house for a week and everyone in the family takes his turn in going through its pages. Use space in your local newspaper—convincing—attractive copy—regularly—continuously! Concentrate! Every dollar you invest in Barrington Review advertising pays dividends.
