Enrollment at State Institutions Now 47,203

Illinois' twenty-seven penal and eleemosynary institutions have a present population of 47,203, according to a report made to Gov. Henry Horner by A. L. Bowen, director of the state department of public welfare...

The total enrollment at the state institutions on February 1 reached 47,203, the director's report revealed. The difference between enrollment and resident population is accounted for by prisoners on parole and absences from farflung from Old Soldiers' homes.

Modern irrigation systems and the introduction of the methods of regulating the waters of the Nile river...

Quicksand
Quicksand is the most treacherous soil because it cannot be distinguished at sight. Its danger is well illustrated by an accident in Colorado in 1875 when a whole train fell into a tract of it and sank to a depth of 50 feet—Daily News Weekly.

Barrington Hills

Among the many week-end visitors in Barrington were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pynchon who spent their week-end with the Robert Buckleys. Mrs. Pynchon is better known to the library world as Adeline Atwater. Mr. and Mrs. Pynchon spent last summer in Barrington. This week Mrs. Pynchon's daughter is co-starred with Edmund Lowe at the Palace theatre.

Mrs. Helen Rossing's next reading will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Buckley March 21 on the same day Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hornum will be reading from the home of Mrs. Rossing.

A great many friends of St. Paul's will be at the home of Mrs. Norris Bokum west in town Thursday for the wedding of their daughter Doris to Newton King at St. Christy's church.
