"Get Wise, my Lad!" said Tweedledee to Tweedledum...
Said Tweedledee to Tweedledum, "If you have any brains, sir, and want to take a trip to town, you'll ride North Western trains, sir. They take you there, they take you back, without a jolt or a bump, and you can't get any other way." "If you can't get any other way, sir," you said to ride North Western trains, and here's the way I view it: You didn't need to tell me to, because I always do it!"

Irene Dunne, Clive Brook Coming in "If I Were Free"
"Carolina" With Janet Gaynor. Lionel Barrymore at Catlow Friday.
"Carolina," which is finishing its three-day run at the Catlow theatre Friday night, is proving to be one of the most captivating of all the Janet Gaynor pictures. Lionel Barrymore is co-starring with Miss Gaynor, and with the aid of Robert Young, Hugh Hamilton and Henrietta Crosman, making an imposing cast.
"Winifred Baby LeRoy," Dorothea Wick and Alice Brady play the leading roles in "Miss Fane's Baby is Stolen," the Saturday offering at the Catlow. This is a fast-moving drama from start to finish. It opens in the luxurious home of a Hollywood star's home. In the darkness of the night Baby LeRoy is snatched.
Miss Wick, plunged into the terrific dilemma of uncertainty, is torn between the desire to notify the police and the fear of obtaining "contact" with the kidnapers should she appeal to the law.
She finally makes the call which makes a nation gasp.
A group of interesting short subjects, headed by an Andy Clyde comedy completes the bill. The screen's famous "Gold Diggers," Joan Blondell and Glenda Farrell took new Broadway play operations in "Havana Widows," which comes to the Catlow Sunday and Monday. Guy Kibbee and Frank McHugh, popular comedians, play the male roles.
A Louise Fazenda comedy, news, cartoon, scenic and community singing will add interest to this program.
The bargain night show, next Tuesday will bring Charles Ruggles, Marguerite Churchill and Charles Farrell in "Giri Without a Kisser." It has to do with the Bohemian group of the artist colony; and comedy is an ever present factor. Harry Langdon in "Circus Houdoo" will provide twenty minutes of fun.
"If I Were Free," with Clive Brook and Irene Dunne, is scheduled to come to the Catlow next week Wednesday and Thursday nights. Brook and Irene are victims of disappointing marriages when they meet at a party. Their new acquaintance is a stimulant for each to carry on for the other's sake. But the conventional complications set in. Although Irene
