

"Devil Tiger" and "Hi, Nellie" to Be at Catlow Theatre

Picture, Made in Asia, Opening Here Friday and Saturday

"Devil Tiger," which plays the Catlow Theatre Friday and Saturday, is an authentic animal picture which was near the top in the making in the Philippines. It is the first dramatic story with a lion and a tiger as the central characters. The crew included five cameras and two assistants. Marlon Burns, Kane and Harry Woods are the principal players. Among the scenes recorded are those between a crocodile, a python and a lion, a tiger and a lion, a crocodile bear and a lion. The lions were spent recording in the north of the island. A complete cartoon and news program of wide interest will be shown Monday afternoon.
