DRY COWS, BLOODLESS STONES

"Most business executives have climbed into their pos-itions through a lifetime of hard work," comments the mag-azine Liberty in discussing the present industrial situation in the country, and "if their duties are turned over to untrained labor leaders, workers will have real cause to complain.

"You cannot milk a dry cow," said the editorial, entitled These Are Days That Try Men's Souls. "You cannot squeeze blood out of a stone; and business must be run intelligently to earn a surplus from which wages must be paid, and untrained officials cannot manage a business intelligently.

"To take business out of the hands of those who have earned their places as executives is contrary to American ideals. All our present difficulties, all the injustices that workers may have had to endure are due to the failure or

workers may have had to endure are due to the failure on the part of government officials to enforce laws, to protect capital and labor alike. And both are entitled to protection. "But the laws have not been enforced. The lawless activities of racketeering capitalists should make justice hang her bead in shame. They have bought government officials: they have told them how to run their offices. But that does not excuse efforts now apparently being made to destroy the stability of huge honestly conducted business enterprises by giving labor undue authority. "The American Federation of Labor represents ten per cent of the workers of the country. When these propose to dictate to all workers, to use every means to compel workers to join their union, they menace the freedom of capital and labor alike."

SPENDING $233 A SECOND

SPENDING $233 A SECOND

American taxpayers have been called upon to "kick through" with $233 every second since last July 1 for expenditures of the federal administration, more than half of which has gone and is going toward financing of the emergency recovery features of the new deal, according to figures released by the U. S. budget bureau.

Government expenditures for the 10-month period totaled $5.822.427.211, the budget reported, which is an average of $19,152.392.14 every 24 hours.

Commard with this dath expenditures the age of $19,152,392.14 every 24 hours.

Compared with this daily expenditure, the government has been collecting an average of $8,184,164.89, leaving nearly $11,000,000 of the daily expenditure to be borrowed.

Reduced to smaller figures, this means that the government has been spending $2.34 for every $1 collected. And of the outgo, $1.28 has been for recovery programs.

BUT IT HAS NOT WORKED

BUT IT HAS NOT WORKED

Of course, the result of inflation must be fictiously higher prices which eyerybody has to pay without commensurate higher wages. But have it and the new deal restored America nearer to the 1928 prosperity than other countries? The answer is to be found in the figures. Great Britain has regained 62 per cent of that prosperity, Germany 40 percent and the United States 30 percent, France 27 percent, with an average for the whole world of 28 percent. And the answer raises a question: Will the governmental supervision, restriction and regimentation give American enterprise the free rein to recover from now on more rapidly than in other contries?

King Tut's "curse" has no terrors for James H. Breasted, noted Orientalist, who laughs at the idea that there has been anything supernatural about the deaths of several persons who engaged in excavating the faimed Egyptian tomb a few years ago. Said he: "All tommyrot. I defy that curse. For two weeks I slept in the tomb of King Tut-Ankh-Amen and took my meals there. I never felt better in my life." Dr. Breasted is returning to Egypt to resume work at the tomb.

The government is dealing out bitterness to Puerto Rico in a big way. Two tons of quinine, enough for about 28,000,000 single doses, are being sent to that island for the campaign against malaria being made there. It is said that more than 50,000 sufferers from malaria are being treated.

This fact has no bearing on foreign trade, however, as there are only two cars in the shipment. They are being sent as a present to Henry Ford from the Soviet-owned Gorka factory, to which Ford sold automobile patents.
