

228 Mrs. and Mrs. Orville Meiners and son Roland, 239 W. Lake street, were called to Kankakee Sunday because of the serious illness of Mrs. Meiners' father, Mr. T. Wells, 76 years old.

HELPFUL SERVICE
We Deliver 10 a. m. to 9 p. m.

WER'S
RUN BY HOME FOLKS

General Store
VER, Manager
216 Station St.
Until 6 P. M.
Until 9 P. M.
9:30 P. M.

Can't Beat Values
Saturday, June 8-9

10-lb. Bag 46c
Granulated 26c
25-lb. box 6c
or Brown 6c
Circles 14c
2 lbs 53
2 bars 9c
2 for 29c
3 rolls 25c

Big Bargains
June 8 to June 14

1-lb. Tin 19c
2-lb. tin 29c
3 1/2-lb. tin 59c
2 cans 11
1-lb. tin 29c
2 1/2-lb. Jars 49c
2 for 19c

Variety Specials
Blue Ribbon 1.60
AD MUSTARD, jar 9c
14-oz. tin 9c
2 for 29c
2 for 19c

Large Rainbo Now 10c
Blue Ribbon 1.60
AD MUSTARD, jar 9c
14-oz. tin 9c
2 for 29c
2 for 19c

Trustees Consider Veterinarian for Dairy Inspections
Trustees may decide...
$1.60
10c, 15c, 25c
39c
50c
$1
69c
1.66
50c

Commencement
for Class of 50 Seniors Thursday

Banquet Friday to Complete School Activities for Graduates

The school seniors will receive diplomas this afternoon at 3 p. m. at the banquet held in the gymnasium. The principal, Dr. E. C. Johnson, presided at the commencement.

Arlington Heights Men Drown in Sloum Lake Sunday; Children Saved

James Jeronksi, 40, of Arlington Heights, was drowned in Sloum lake south of Wauconda Sunday when the boat in which he was rowing capsized. Three of his children, who were in the boat with him were saved by swimmers at a nearby bathing beach.

Trustees Receive Bids for Auditing; Will Let Contract

The finance committee of the board of trustees of Arlington Heights has received bids for the auditing of the school for the year ending May 31. The committee will let the contract to the firm of Schlotz Thomas & Co., 1165, Charles J. Anderson & Co., 1200, North West Ave. Co., 1200, Lewis G. Azzano Co., 1250, Edward Gore & Co., 1300, George W. Rosseter & Co., 1410, Arnold Himmelblau & Co., 1400, P. L. Crawford & Co., 1400, Jonathan Cook & Co., and Bushy & Oury also wanted to be included in the bidding but asked for more detailed information.

Steady Progress on Construction Work at School Reported

A new crew of workmen, which includes two or three men from the Barrington district, replaced the old crew at the high school building this week. The work is progressing steadily, although enough construction remains to keep a fairly large crew busy during most of the summer months.

Death Claims Last Civil War Veteran of N. W. District

Charles F. Helm, 89, the last surviving Civil War veteran of Northwestern Cook county, died at the Sherman hospital, Elgin, about 7 a. m. Tuesday after a brief illness of cancer of the bladder. He had been in fair health prior to his recent illness.

Expect Large Crowd at Annual Alumni Banquet at Salem Church Friday

Nearly 500 invitations to the annual alumni banquet Friday night have been mailed out to graduates of the Barrington high school, and an unusually large crowd is expected.

Workers Are Busy Remodeling Home for New Factory

Twenty workmen are busy at the old hotel building site excavating the basement, removing partitions from the first and second floors and removing the roof and third floor of the structure. Three feet of dirt have been excavated from the basement and concrete underpinnings have been laid to support the foundation. The basement alteration will be completed by the end of this week except for laying of a new concrete floor which probably will not be started until the middle of July.

Trustees Consider Veterinarian for Dairy Inspections

Trustees may decide...
$1.60
10c, 15c, 25c
39c
50c
$1
69c
1.66
50c

Rapid Growth of High School Shown by Size of Graduating Classes

The rapid growth of the Barrington high school is reflected by the size of the graduating class of the last six years. Fifty seniors were to receive diplomas Thursday evening, making up a class 66 per cent larger than the record class which finished school in 1929.

Steady Progress on Construction Work at School Reported

A new crew of workmen, which includes two or three men from the Barrington district, replaced the old crew at the high school building this week. The work is progressing steadily, although enough construction remains to keep a fairly large crew busy during most of the summer months.

Trustees Receive Bids for Auditing; Will Let Contract

The finance committee of the board of trustees of Arlington Heights has received bids for the auditing of the school for the year ending May 31. The committee will let the contract to the firm of Schlotz Thomas & Co., 1165, Charles J. Anderson & Co., 1200, North West Ave. Co., 1200, Lewis G. Azzano Co., 1250, Edward Gore & Co., 1300, George W. Rosseter & Co., 1410, Arnold Himmelblau & Co., 1400, P. L. Crawford & Co., 1400, Jonathan Cook & Co., and Bushy & Oury also wanted to be included in the bidding but asked for more detailed information.

Steady Progress on Construction Work at School Reported

A new crew of workmen, which includes two or three men from the Barrington district, replaced the old crew at the high school building this week. The work is progressing steadily, although enough construction remains to keep a fairly large crew busy during most of the summer months.

Death Claims Last Civil War Veteran of N. W. District

Charles F. Helm, 89, the last surviving Civil War veteran of Northwestern Cook county, died at the Sherman hospital, Elgin, about 7 a. m. Tuesday after a brief illness of cancer of the bladder. He had been in fair health prior to his recent illness.

Expect Large Crowd at Annual Alumni Banquet at Salem Church Friday

Nearly 500 invitations to the annual alumni banquet Friday night have been mailed out to graduates of the Barrington high school, and an unusually large crowd is expected.

Workers Are Busy Remodeling Home for New Factory

Twenty workmen are busy at the old hotel building site excavating the basement, removing partitions from the first and second floors and removing the roof and third floor of the structure. Three feet of dirt have been excavated from the basement and concrete underpinnings have been laid to support the foundation. The basement alteration will be completed by the end of this week except for laying of a new concrete floor which probably will not be started until the middle of July.

Another Civil War Vet Passes

Charles F. Helm, center next to boulder, died Tuesday morning. He resided in Barrington township for 81 years.

Steady Progress on Construction Work at School Reported

A new crew of workmen, which includes two or three men from the Barrington district, replaced the old crew at the high school building this week. The work is progressing steadily, although enough construction remains to keep a fairly large crew busy during most of the summer months.

Trustees Receive Bids for Auditing; Will Let Contract

The finance committee of the board of trustees of Arlington Heights has received bids for the auditing of the school for the year ending May 31. The committee will let the contract to the firm of Schlotz Thomas & Co., 1165, Charles J. Anderson & Co., 1200, North West Ave. Co., 1200, Lewis G. Azzano Co., 1250, Edward Gore & Co., 1300, George W. Rosseter & Co., 1410, Arnold Himmelblau & Co., 1400, P. L. Crawford & Co., 1400, Jonathan Cook & Co., and Bushy & Oury also wanted to be included in the bidding but asked for more detailed information.

Steady Progress on Construction Work at School Reported

A new crew of workmen, which includes two or three men from the Barrington district, replaced the old crew at the high school building this week. The work is progressing steadily, although enough construction remains to keep a fairly large crew busy during most of the summer months.

Death Claims Last Civil War Veteran of N. W. District

Charles F. Helm, 89, the last surviving Civil War veteran of Northwestern Cook county, died at the Sherman hospital, Elgin, about 7 a. m. Tuesday after a brief illness of cancer of the bladder. He had been in fair health prior to his recent illness.

Expect Large Crowd at Annual Alumni Banquet at Salem Church Friday

Nearly 500 invitations to the annual alumni banquet Friday night have been mailed out to graduates of the Barrington high school, and an unusually large crowd is expected.

Workers Are Busy Remodeling Home for New Factory

Twenty workmen are busy at the old hotel building site excavating the basement, removing partitions from the first and second floors and removing the roof and third floor of the structure. Three feet of dirt have been excavated from the basement and concrete underpinnings have been laid to support the foundation. The basement alteration will be completed by the end of this week except for laying of a new concrete floor which probably will not be started until the middle of July.

Fire Threatens Business Block Sunday Morning

Blaze Starting From Wire Short in Shinner's Causes $3000 Damage

A spectacular fire which blazed in the air space above three adjoining stores early Sunday morning caused a total damage estimated at $3000 and threatened to destroy an entire block of connected business houses.

Steady Progress on Construction Work at School Reported

A new crew of workmen, which includes two or three men from the Barrington district, replaced the old crew at the high school building this week. The work is progressing steadily, although enough construction remains to keep a fairly large crew busy during most of the summer months.

Trustees Receive Bids for Auditing; Will Let Contract

The finance committee of the board of trustees of Arlington Heights has received bids for the auditing of the school for the year ending May 31. The committee will let the contract to the firm of Schlotz Thomas & Co., 1165, Charles J. Anderson & Co., 1200, North West Ave. Co., 1200, Lewis G. Azzano Co., 1250, Edward Gore & Co., 1300, George W. Rosseter & Co., 1410, Arnold Himmelblau & Co., 1400, P. L. Crawford & Co., 1400, Jonathan Cook & Co., and Bushy & Oury also wanted to be included in the bidding but asked for more detailed information.

Steady Progress on Construction Work at School Reported

A new crew of workmen, which includes two or three men from the Barrington district, replaced the old crew at the high school building this week. The work is progressing steadily, although enough construction remains to keep a fairly large crew busy during most of the summer months.

Death Claims Last Civil War Veteran of N. W. District

Charles F. Helm, 89, the last surviving Civil War veteran of Northwestern Cook county, died at the Sherman hospital, Elgin, about 7 a. m. Tuesday after a brief illness of cancer of the bladder. He had been in fair health prior to his recent illness.

Expect Large Crowd at Annual Alumni Banquet at Salem Church Friday

Nearly 500 invitations to the annual alumni banquet Friday night have been mailed out to graduates of the Barrington high school, and an unusually large crowd is expected.

Workers Are Busy Remodeling Home for New Factory

Twenty workmen are busy at the old hotel building site excavating the basement, removing partitions from the first and second floors and removing the roof and third floor of the structure. Three feet of dirt have been excavated from the basement and concrete underpinnings have been laid to support the foundation. The basement alteration will be completed by the end of this week except for laying of a new concrete floor which probably will not be started until the middle of July.

Croquet Is Real Game of Skill. Secretary of New Club Insists

An organization known as the Barrington Croquet club has developed interest in the mild but scientific sport. He was taken a court laid out just south of the Jefferson Ice Co. plant. The club has 15 members and annual membership applied for. Max Lines is president and Louis Miller secretary and treasurer.

Steady Progress on Construction Work at School Reported

A new crew of workmen, which includes two or three men from the Barrington district, replaced the old crew at the high school building this week. The work is progressing steadily, although enough construction remains to keep a fairly large crew busy during most of the summer months.

Trustees Receive Bids for Auditing; Will Let Contract

The finance committee of the board of trustees of Arlington Heights has received bids for the auditing of the school for the year ending May 31. The committee will let the contract to the firm of Schlotz Thomas & Co., 1165, Charles J. Anderson & Co., 1200, North West Ave. Co., 1200, Lewis G. Azzano Co., 1250, Edward Gore & Co., 1300, George W. Rosseter & Co., 1410, Arnold Himmelblau & Co., 1400, P. L. Crawford & Co., 1400, Jonathan Cook & Co., and Bushy & Oury also wanted to be included in the bidding but asked for more detailed information.

Steady Progress on Construction Work at School Reported

A new crew of workmen, which includes two or three men from the Barrington district, replaced the old crew at the high school building this week. The work is progressing steadily, although enough construction remains to keep a fairly large crew busy during most of the summer months.

Death Claims Last Civil War Veteran of N. W. District

Charles F. Helm, 89, the last surviving Civil War veteran of Northwestern Cook county, died at the Sherman hospital, Elgin, about 7 a. m. Tuesday after a brief illness of cancer of the bladder. He had been in fair health prior to his recent illness.

Expect Large Crowd at Annual Alumni Banquet at Salem Church Friday

Nearly 500 invitations to the annual alumni banquet Friday night have been mailed out to graduates of the Barrington high school, and an unusually large crowd is expected.

Workers Are Busy Remodeling Home for New Factory

Twenty workmen are busy at the old hotel building site excavating the basement, removing partitions from the first and second floors and removing the roof and third floor of the structure. Three feet of dirt have been excavated from the basement and concrete underpinnings have been laid to support the foundation. The basement alteration will be completed by the end of this week except for laying of a new concrete floor which probably will not be started until the middle of July.