Joe Welch Injured Escorting Behanna Funeral Cortège

While serving as motorcycle escort for the funeral cortège of Mrs. William Behanna of Waukegan Tuesday morning, Joe Welch, local resident and deputy sheriff of Lake county, sustained severe leg injuries. An automobile coming from the rear hit Mr. Welch, causing him to sustain the side of the car. A medical examination showed that the injuries included torn ligaments and several deep flesh wounds. Welch was brought to his home, 430 Jane terrace, in an ambulance and is recovering there.

Mrs. Behanna, wife of the former corporation counsel of Waukegan, was crowned at Fox Lake Saturday evening when Jack Baird's sailing boat was blown during a storm. Following rites at Waukegan Tuesday morning, her body was taken to Valparaiso, Ind., for burial.
