Joan Crawford in "Sadie McKee" to Be Here Sun., Mo.

As the Earth Turns' Coming Shirley Temple Film Next Week

Glady's Hasty Carroll's recent starring movie, "As the Earth Turns," which has been dramatized for the screen comes to the Catlow theatre Friday and Saturday. The characterizations, so deftly and realistically drawn from the lives of the ragged No. England pioneer types, are portrayed by Jean Muir, Dana Woods and William Janney.

The picture deals with the life and loves, the joys and tribulations of a small community farmer folk.

Fully endorsed as a commendable film by the joint prevention committee of National Women clubs, the picture can be recommended as wholesome, delightful entertainment for fans of all ages. Comedy subject, Pathe news an excursion and included in this bill.

Lighting makes a gorgeous gown in various settings, and Joan Crawford at the head of one of the most brilliant casts ever assembled for a motion picture—these are the ingredients of "Sadie McKee" which plays the Catlow Sunday and Monday. A multimillionaire's wife in several sequels, Mrs. Crawford gives the opportunity to wear some of the loveliest gowns ever designed by Adrian, internationally famous fashion designer, before being published in book form.

The exceptional cast supporting Mrs. Crawford includes such stars as Franchette Tonoy, Gene Raymond, Esther Ralston, Zeigler Sears, Helen Ward and Gene Austin.

Daddy Rogers in hand set, special cartoon, news and commutes to singing will precede the showing of the feature.

"All Men Are Enemies" will be the screen attraction for the night at the Catlow next Tuesday. The story is the tender, moving and sensitive romance of an impulsive young Englishman and a beautiful young Viennese girl in the Isle of Capri. Hugh Williams and Helen Twelvetrees play the leading roles.

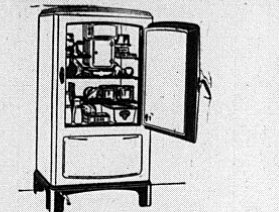

"Little Miss Marker," Paramount's picture of Danton Ronzoni's widely-read magazine of the same name is scheduled to play the Catlow next week Wednesday, Thursday and Friday with Temple, Adolph Menjou and Dorothy Dell in the principal roles.

The story is a sentimental yarn of a little girl left as security for a racing bet. The girl's father never does return, and she is taken over by a shabby, crone, tick-tock bookmaker. The girl takes a liking to her new environment and before long she is talking the lingo of the "gang" and acting their rough, slangy ways. When they realize this they set about bringing back her sweet, childish ways, and in so doing, unwittingly reform themselves.

Clean Gas Heat at World's Fair

MR. BUESCHEL doesn't want you to take his word for it. He says, "Ask all my friends what I think of gas heat. Why, I'm the best advertisement for gas heat in this neighborhood." Like more than 20,000 other gas heat users, Mr. Bueschel can hardly find enough words to express his satisfaction. "Whenever someone visits us," he says, "the first thing I do is to show off my basement. I simply can't understand how anyone can use coal for heating."
