Federal Loan for Bank Depositors Is Still Uncertain

The status of the First State bank relative to loan from the reconstruction finance corporation for dividend to depositors remains unchanged according to information from H. E. Robertson, deputy receiver at Des Plaines.

Receiver's Statement of First State Liquidation Is Received

Receipts from assets	116,543.00
Advances paid (bill payable)	128,057.00
Paid depositors	128,057.00
Former receiver's sal.	3,620.00
Present receiver's sal.	943.00
Atty. fees to 1933	1,000.00
Atty. fees since	154.00
Chk. & misc. expense	15,440.00
Advances to protect assets	13,576.00
Cash	5,172.00
Losses on conversion of assets	2,309.00
Remaining resources	456,094.00

The statement needs no interpretation. Collections made by the receiver plus cash on hand which the bank closed total $166,543.00 was forwarded to the organization last December, but to date no action in regard to making a loan has been taken. Following is a statement of condition of the closed bank as of June 30, 1934:

Kenneth Grebe Severely Hurt in Accident When Truck Sideswipes Car

Kenneth Grebe, local young business man, was severely injured Wednesday morning when a truck driven by Ralph Fichtel and a car collided with his car on Dundee avenue, Elgin. The machines struck each other when the truck driver, northbound, made a left turn onto a driveway as Mr. Grebe was going south. Mr. Grebe was rushed to the Sherman hospital in an ambulance but was unable to leave after treatment. He received a scalp laceration and a cut on one ear. He will be absent from work for a few days while recuperating from the effects of the fall.

What Will You Eat Wear, Ride in, or Use? Read the Ads

To the reader "what interests you most in your local newspaper?" a question replied: "The advertising." and that, probably, would be the correct answer from the majority of readers of The Review. In this issue, for example, there are some 50 display announcements on 24 different subjects and 150 different items. Many of these offer special bargain prices to the readers.
