Lageschulte-Tate

Nuptials-Saturday

Salem Evangelical church was the scene of a pretty wedding at six o'clock Saturday evening when Miss Ruth Helen Lageschulte, daughter of Mrs. Walter Lageschulte of Hubbard Woods, became the bride of Raymond H. Tate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Tate of Barrington. Miss Naomi Tate played Lohengrin's Wedding March and Rev. Philip H. Beuscher read the marriage vows before the church altar, which was decorated with palms and baskets of flowers. Raymond H. sang "Because" and "The Sweetest Story."

The bride who was given in marriage by her grandfather, H. J. Lageschulte, wore a gown of white satin, made very simply with long sleeves, a train and lace neck. She wore a long veil caught to head with a band of braided-silk. She carried pink and blue and white bouquets. Miss Jean Schultze, the bridesmaid, wore pale blue silk and a blue net hat and carried white Shasta daisies. David Capilli served the bridegroom at the head table. The entering were Wayne and Willard Grabenkort.

The church services were followed by a reception at the residence of the bride's grandfather H. J. Lageschulte. Fifty guests to present. Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Tate will spend several days in Chicago. They will live at 336 W. Lake street, Barrington, Mr. and Mrs. Tate attended Barrington public school and Mr. Tate is employed at Jewel Tea company.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Henth, Milwaukee, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Parsons, Aurora, Mrs. W. Wilkins, Lake Forest, Miss Dorothy Bernberg, Mrs. Hippesler and daughters Misses Antonette and Rosebud, Mr. and Mrs. C. Liliquist and daughter Marjaret, Miss Elizabeth Wesolowski, Mrs. Beestrom, Mr. and Mrs. H. Olson, J. Johnson, all of Chicago, Miss Amelia Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Fisher, all of Hubbard Woods, Miss Dagna Apland of Irving Park, Miss Inge Larsen of Chicago.

Miss Lucille Claude, bride of Otto Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Claude's garden on the Waller estate in Cuba township was the scene of a beautiful sunset wedding early Saturday evening when their daughter Lucille became the wife of Otto Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Miller, also of Cuba township. The sun was lowering behind the spruce and cedars as the bride came into the gazebo in the honor of her father, Mrs. Hermann Koehnig who had been changing "The Bells of St. Mary's" played to the bridal chorus from the organ at the approach of the bridegroom. The bride and groom met in front of a handsome blue spruce where Rev. Hermann Koehnig officiated using the single ring service while Mrs. Koehnig sang "At Dawning" by Cadman. The bride was dressed in beige lace and was attended by her sister, Miss Marjorie who wore blue lace. Both carried arm bouquets of daisies. Louis Miller, a nephew of the groom served as best man. A wedding dinner and reception followed the ceremony after which Mr. Miller and his bride left for a short vacation in northern Wisconsin. On their return they will be at home to their friends at 118 Garfield street, Barrington.

Miss Dorothy Edwards, bride of F. Anderson.

Miss Dorothy Edwards of Cary and Floyd Anderson of Dundee were united in marriage at a four o'clock wedding in the home of the bride's parents Saturday afternoon. Rev. Hermann Koehnig officiated using the single ring service. The bride wore white organdy and was attended by her sister, Miss Dorothy Edwards who was in green tulle. The groom was attended by Melvin Schuring of Dundee. Following the service the wedding dinner was served to the forty guests and a reception followed. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will make their home in Barrington.

Mr. W. D. Dotterer, Chicago Book Reviewer.

The September meeting of the Methodist foreign mission society was held in the Sawyer room of the church Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. W. D. Dotterer as speaker of the day. Mrs. Dotterer gave an interesting review of "A Dawn in the Markin," a story of Japanese people both in Japan and New York city. The author of the book was a former instructor in Japanese language and history at Columbia university. A business meeting preceded the review. Mrs. Erman S. Smith had charge of the devotions.

Schroeder-Goddis

Wedding Sunday

Miss Harriet Schroeder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Schroeder of Des Plaines, became the bride of William J. Goddis Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Goddis of Barrington at a four o'clock wedding in Trinity Lutheran church, Des Plaines, Sunday afternoon. Rev. L. G. Bald read the marriage service and Mrs. A. Wehrow served as organist. Mrs. P. P. Patis, soloist, sang "O Promise Me." The bride, lovely in white crepe and a veil, carried white roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mabel Schroeder, who wore green organdy and carried yellow roses. Miss Alice Baldwin, in yellow organdy, served as flower girl. Louis Bernberg of Des Plaines was best man. Mrs. Goddis, mother of the groom, wore a printed silk suit and Mrs. Schroeder, mother of the bride, was dressed in brown; both wore corsages of tallisun roses. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and gladioli for the wedding, and at the conclusion of the marriage service, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Ninety guests attended the reception. The young couple will make their home at 947 Woodlawn avenue, Des Plaines.

Is Honored at Showers

The former Miss Ruth Lageschulte who was the bride of Raymond Tate last Saturday was honored at two lovely showers last week. Monday evening Mrs. Arthur Lageschulte was hostess at a miscellaneous and pantry shower and sixteen guests enjoyed a social hour at hearts with prizes given to Miss Ethel Bernberg and Mrs. Helen Lageschulte. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess who was assisted by the Misses Pearl and Irma Benson. Mrs. Inge Larsen of Chicago was among the guests.

The "Always Faithful" Sunday school class of which the bride was a member entertained at a miscellaneous shower Wednesday evening at Mrs. Anna Landwehr's cottage on the camp grounds. The twenty guests spent a delightful hour at games, after which the honored guest was sent on a treasure hunt that proved to be most successful.
