James Plagge Is Elected Head of Local Bird Club

James Plagge was elected pres- ident of the Barrington Bird club at a meeting held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Prentice Tues- day evening. Other officers elected were Mrs. Clifford Stent, vice president; Mrs. Lester Higgins, secretary; Mrs. Arthur Donovan, treasurer.

Mrs. Lester Higgins gave an in- teresting talk on "the crow— a pest or a sinner." Her description indicated he was neither, having too many good qualities to be cen- sured yet a few unfavorable ones to keep him out of the "sinner" category." In conclusion, Mrs. Higgins sang one of Orpheus Schantz songs "The Crow," accom- panying herself on the accordion.

General discussion and refresh- ments concluded the program. Members of the bird club will go on their annual "Christmas Bird Walk" the morning of December 22.

Programs at School

A group of colored jubilee sing- ers will give a public program in the school auditorium at 2 p. m. Wednesday, Dec. 19. A movie, "The Call of the Wild," will be shown to grade children Tuesday, Dec. 18.

'CORRECTION

Mrs. Alfred Edwards, 90-year- old member of the Baptist congre- gation, will give a talk on her memoirs at the diamond jubilee service of the church Sunday after- noon. By mistake, the name of Mrs. Alfred Church was inserted last week.

Eight Scouts to Be Given Awards at Court of Honor

Eight local scouts will be awarded honors at the boy scout court of honor to be held in the high school auditorium at 8 p. m. Friday. Rev. H. L. Eagle will preside and awards will be presented by scout executive Nimtz of the northwest suburban council.

The public has been invited to attend.

Boys who will receive awards are Jack Grullert, Edo Folkerts, Junior Long, Arthur Castle, James Prow, Bob Plagge, Frank Scher- merhorn, and Jerry Kohout.

Troops 19, 21 and 29 will be at attention during the ceremony and the cub pack will be guest of honor. A social hour will fol- low the awards.

The next scout court of honor is to take place during national scout week, about the middle of February.

Undergoes Operation

Miss Agnes Welch, member of the Barrington faculty, underwent a major operation at Wesley Me- morial hospital Monday. It is re- ported that Miss Welch is making satisfactory recovery.

Miss Welch's place is being taken by two former teachers, Mrs. Harold Grebe and Mrs. John Catlow.
