Palatine Coming Jan. 11 for Game on Local Floor

Game probably Will Decide Northwest Conference Championships

Since the Warren-Barrington game has been postponed because of the reopening of the Warren school, the Bronks' next conference game will be with Palatine on Jan. 11. This game will probably decide the championship as both teams are undefeated so far.

In a non-conference game Saturday Palatine defeated Arlington 3 to 2 while the Bronks defeated Arlington earlier in the season 13 to 12. This gives the Bronks a slight theoretical edge over the Palatines.

Beats Bronchos to 17 in Game at DeKalb Tournament

Members of the Broncho squad accompanied by Coach Paul Clark traveled to DeKalb Wednesday morning to participate in the annual holiday tournament sponsored by the DeKalb Teachers College. The Bronchos were pitched against the powerful LaSalle high school team in their first game Wednesday morning and lost 25 to 17.

The Bronchos had a bad first half, were trailing 17 to 3 at the end of the first half. In the second half, however, the Barrington boys found their feet and outscored LaSalle 14 points to 11, to make the final score 28 to 17. The team on the squad who went were: Conn. Eilers, Latta, Mollenkamp, Workman, Wichman, Wallace, Strabenkorf, Overhue, and Kubacka.

St. Paul, Baptist Teams Win Games in Church League

St. Anne took undisputed possession of the cellar in the church basketball league by losing to the Baptists 17 to 22 Monday night. St. Paul showed its power against a hapless Methodist team to defeat the latter 34 to 13.

The Baptist-St. Anne contest was even until the last quarter, when the Baptists began sinking their shots to draw into the lead. Williams scored nine points for the Baptists, while St. Anne's scoring was evenly divided among the whole team.

The Law of Averages

The law of averages aims to demonstrate that, while the trend of human affairs cannot be forecast with certainty, it can be worked out to a considerable extent arithmetically by arriving at averages on statistics relating to the event.

The English Language

The English language belongs to the great Germanic branch of the Teutonic family of languages. It was brought to the British Isles during the Fifth and Sixth centuries by the invasions of the Angles, Saxons and Jutes.
