County Marriage Licenses Decrease

With December showing the first gain in the number of marriage licenses issued in any single month since County Clerk Russ Alford took office on November 1, 1935, a total of 4089 licenses were issued during the past year, or 17.7 less than in 1935.

During the past December 246 licenses were issued. This number was 61 more than was issued in December 1935.

The decrease during the entire year, as compared to 1935, is approximately 30 per cent. Included in the 10 months of administration by former County Clerk H. A. Hendee and the two months of Alford's administration in 1935, a total of 5820 marriage licenses were issued.

Lake county's banner year was in 1934, when the World's Fair in Chicago brought many people from all sections of the country to Waukegan to be married. That year 6161 marriage licenses were issued.

In the past year marriage licenses were issued only during regular business hours of the clerk's office, from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.
