REVIEW

Advertising Gains Merited By Results

The confidence that advertisers place in the Barrington Review is reflected by a steady increase in display lineage over a four-year period. Using 1933 as a base, the percentage gain has been:

Year	Advertising Gain
1933	100%
1934	22 3/4 per cent
1935	30 1/4 per cent
1936	56 1/4 per cent

This confidence comes from Results—Results in the form of sales to the growing family of Review readers, customers of the advertisers.
