New County Setup Approved; Appoint Committee Members

Appointments of 23 standing committees to reduce administration expenses and simplify work of the board were confirmed by the board of supervisors of Lake county at the meeting held last Thursday. A new set of rules and regulations was also adopted.

The number of committee accepted by the board was reduced from the 23 standing committees of last year. These 33 committees were combined into 22 committees, while one new group, a tubercular advisory committee, was designated.

After accepting the new rules and regulations as recommended by the rules committee, the board approved the personnel of the commissions. Homer T. Cook of Wauconda is the new chairman of the board.

H. D. Kelsey, supervisor of the town of Cuba, was honored with chairmanship of the plats and subdivisions committee and is also a member of road and bridge and purchasing and printing, important functioning groups.

Harry Washo, supervisor of the town of Els, is a member of three committees, poor and veterans relief, right of way and jury.

Early Rush to Pay Lake County Taxes

More than 1,000 Lake county property owners paid their current taxes at the office of County Treasurer Allen J. Nelson Monday in the opening rush to avoid the penalty for delinquency which will be added on June 1.

All tax bills including 141,296

Mrs. Conrad Lockert entertained several of Darlene's friends at her home Friday evening in honor of her fourteenth birthday.

The tax bills mailed to the property owners show the amount of the current and back taxes on real estate and the current tax only on personal and property listings. In all there were 45,991 bills on real estate which had back taxes as well as current taxes, leaving 91,305 real estate parcels on which there are no delinquencies.

Payment on the tax bills, including $4,500,000 in current extensions on real estate and personal properties and the back taxes on real estate, is due now. The first installment on the real estate taxes must be paid before June 1.

The second installment on real estate taxes becomes due on August 1 and becomes delinquent on September 1. As in past years, many property owners are making a single payment of the entire tax bill at this time.

The Subject Turns to Cleaning

When the Tuesday Ladies' Club starts to discuss themes of feminine interest you'll invariably find that cleaning is a subject of vital interest. You'll find women looking for cleaning that is thorough, safe, speedy and economical. And you'll always find women agreeing that they get those features here—always.
