tion of land, granted by the federal government, now known as the McCormick estate. He was educated here and was graduated from the Elgin Academy in 1881. He married Miss Irene M. Hawley in 1887. Mrs. Waterman preceded him in death.

He was engaged in various businesses for several years and was made treasurer of school district No. 43 in 1900 and village treasurer on May 11, 1908. Mr. Waterman served in those two capacities until failing health forced his retirement from the two positions in 1933 and 1934.

In addition to the above two offices he was also village trustee and village secretary. When the Barrington Lions club was founded he was one of its charter members. For many years the family made its home at the present location, 240 W. Main street.

He is survived by two children, Mrs. Reuben Rieke of Barrington and Morris C. Waterman of Chicago, four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. One son, Roy, preceded him in death.

Countryside Garden Class

The Countryside Garden class invites the Garden club of Barrington, the Village Garden club and the Junior Garden club to a tulip tea to be held at the home of Mrs. Olga Roloff on Wednesday, May 25, from 3 to 5 p. m.

The committee in charge consists of Mrs. Orin Wood, Mrs. Lester Higgins and Miss Elizabeth Howland.

Propose Dedication

Officials of the public works administration communicated with the village board this week and suggested a dedication program for the new sewer system during the week of June 13 to 16, the fourth anniversary of the founding of the federal bureau. A. C. Burandt, village clerk, reported the matter will be presented at the next meeting.

May Get Movie Test

Movie scouts from Warner Brothers and Fox Movietone, searching for canine talent, have visited High Hough farm near Barrington recently to see Noah at work. Noah is a Doberman Pinscher belonging to Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Lederer, owner of the country home. Mr. Lederer had his trainer, Richard Mike, put Noah through his paces. Two of the feats of dog performance were treating a man bound with ash cord and trailing a "kidnapper."
