Miss Kotel Becomes Bride Saturday

A beautiful wedding was solemnized at Salem church Saturday evening at 6 o'clock, when Miss Jane Kotel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kotel, 442 N. Cook street, became the bride of Floyd Crosby, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Crosby of Janesville, Wis.

Baskets of aquiline white peonies, mock oranges, and tall white candelabra against a background of palms made a lovely setting for the exchanging of vows. A 6 o'clock Miss Anna Catherine Armstrong, an intimate friend of the bride, played an organ prelude of "Melody" by Hoffman and "Fragrance" by Schubert. She wore a peach lace dress of princess style, and a corsage of gardenias. Two vocal numbers, "Beloved It Is Morn" and "Calm Is the Night," were sung by Mr. Lee of Elgin.

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march the bridal party entered the church with little Audrey Hosford strewn petals for the bride.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, who was in marriage. She was attired in white silk lace, princess style, with train. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a band of white roses and lilies of the valley. She wore a gold tulle sash that her mother wore at her wedding, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley, her chosen flowers.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Leona Kotel, as maid of honor. She wore a peach net dress over peach taffeta and a transparent poke bonnet of peach roses. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses.

Miss Verne Larson, Mrs. Clark Shooley and Mrs. George Wakefield served as bridesmaids. They wore aqua-marine chiffon and transparent poke bonnets of the same shade with bands of peach roses. They carried arm bouquets of tall-stemmed roses.

Robert Crosby attended his brother as best man. Donald Hitchins of Sparta, Mich., Robert Mullins, and Victor Little, of Janesville, Wis., served as ushers. They were all in white as also was the groom.

The bride's mother was in navy blue chiffon while Mrs. Crosby wore a blue lace suit. Both had corsages of gardenias.

After the impressive single ring ceremony was read by Rev. Stauffer, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where a wedding supper was served to 100 guests.

Mrs. Crosby attended Knox college and the University of Illinois and Mr. Crosby attended the University of Wisconsin.

The bride and groom are spending their honeymoon traveling through Michigan and Canada. They plan to stop at Niagara Falls before returning home. They will live in Cambridge Springs, Pa., where Mr. Crosby is employed by the Carnation Milk company.

The bride wore a navy blue suit with white accessories for her "going away" costume.
